Ned Burgesses Are Welcome Guests, Feted By Friends

Mr. and Mrs. Ned Burgess, who were recently married in Boston, Mass., are guests this week of Mr. Burgess' father, E. G. Burgess, Jr., and Mrs. Burgess at their ranch home on Griffin creek. They are spending the week end at the coast, having motored with the Leonard Carpenters to Gold Beach and Agnes. While here, the Burgesses will be the inspiration for much delightful entertaining.

Former Opera Star Visits Friend Here

Mme. Mathilde Cottrelly, a former noted opera singer and actress of Europe and New York city, was a guest during the week of Mrs. Royal E. Bebb. Mme. Cottrelly, an old-time friend of Mrs. Bebb's, was accompanied by Mrs. D. Archibald of Los Angeles, with whom she motored from New York through the Canadian Rockies en route to Los Angeles. Mrs. Archibald is a playwright and is writing the life of Mme. Cottrelly, which promises to make a very interesting book.

Past Matrons Here Meet for Luncheon

An enjoyable affair of Monday afternoon in lodge circles was the luncheon for past matrons of Reames chapter, O. E. S., held at the Hotel Medford. Luncheon was followed by bridge and prizes went to Miss Gertrude Weeks and Mrs. E. G. Riddell. Hostesses for the event were Mesdames C. D. Thompson, Chas. Wood and R. G. Fowler.

Thursday Musicals Announces Concert

This week's meeting of the Thursday Musicals will be in the form of an organ concert at the Presbyterian church at 10:30 a. m. The public is invited to the concert and promised a very worthwhile program. Local artists who will entertain at the organ are Miss Dorothy Reynolds, Robert Coult and Sebastian Apollo. There will be no admission charges.

Church Night Held For New Members

Regular church night, honoring the 121 new members, was conducted Wednesday at the First Christian church, with a covered dish dinner at seven o'clock. A program, which included a variety of reports and entertaining numbers, was given following dinner. This large number has been added to the organization during the past year.

A song service led by Rev. W. B. Baird was conducted, after which Miss Genevieve Brown entertained with a piano solo. Talks were given by leaders of various departments, with Mrs. Allan Curry speaking for the Missionary society, Miss Leneve Simkins, H. I. Triangle club; Mrs. Ernest N. Biden, women's organization; Marjorie Gregory, Christian Endeavor; M. E. Olson, Bible school; Lee Smith, the official church board. Misses Brown and Virginia Gregory sang a vocal duet, followed by a reading by Rev. Baird. Dr. L. H. Gove sang a solo, after which new church members responded. The evening's program closed with the entire group singing, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

Junior High Faculty Has Annual Picnic

About forty people enjoyed the annual fall picnic of the Medford Junior high school faculty held Friday evening at the Elks picnic ground. A huge bonfire was built, and the group enjoyed roasting part of their food around the fire. A. H. Fitch and B. R. Finch chose sides for the baseball game, which is a yearly event at the picnic, with Mr. Fitch's team being the victor. A luncheon set was presented Mrs. Hilding Bengtson, member of the faculty, recently married.

Fast Noble Grands Meet at Millard Home

The Fast Noble Grands club of the Rebekah lodge met on Thursday evening at the home of Elise Millard on Haven street. This was the first meeting of the club since the summer vacation. The greater part of the evening was spent in finishing a quilt. Mrs. Ethel Weed, president of the club, being away on vacation, Mrs. Lona Bergman presided. Mrs. Millard was assisted in serving refreshments by Maude Stickle and Mary Wiley.

Choir Forms Organization

Members of the choir at the First Christian church were entertained Thursday evening at the studio of their director, Mrs. Effie Herbert Yeoman. Twenty-one members were present. Organization was perfected, with Mrs. Eunice Smith being elected president, Miss Virginia Gregory, secretary-treasurer, Miss Leneve Simkins, librarian, and L. G. All Countries Enter Program of Study Club's First Session

The Wednesday Study club gave a most interesting program on October 7th, the first meeting of the year. A brief resume of the latest events in the history of the countries studied last year, was followed in each case by current events and discussion. The countries considered were: China with its problems of civil war, famine and disease, encroachments by Japan, and influx of communists from Russia; her irrigation projects for relief work and the probability that all warring factions will unite to free China from Japanese aggression; India and Ghandi,—names that are almost synonymous, the influence he has gained by passive resistance, which no armed force could have accomplished, also his plea, that freedom is every nation's birthright. Russia is modifying her economic rulings and equality of labor is abolished. Skilled labor is doing piece work, and large salaries are paid to experts. The government's attempts to better the living conditions do not meet with great success. It was brought out in the program, that Arabia and Palestine are still having trouble over the question of Jew or Arab as the dominating influence, and whether the land can support so many people. Turkey shows the triumph of west over east in the modernization of its
