CHAS. E. DENNEY ERIE PRESIDENT HERE FOR VISIT

Charles E. Denney of Cleveland, O., president of the Erie railroad, here today on a good will tour of the Pacific coast, meeting shippers and studying conditions, sees improvement in the economic situation, and feels "that with all the powerful forces now working for a return to normalcy, something vital is bound to be accomplished."

"Business conditions are better than they were last October, and far better than they were in 1929, after the crash," said Mr. Denney. "The trend is upward and the people as a whole are having their confidence restored."

Mr. Denney said business on the Erie system, was better than a year ago.

Accompanied in his private car, by R. E. O'Grady, New York City, manager of perishable freight traffic, J. A. Russell, general agent of the Erie, with headquarters at Portland, and William B. Sibley, general agent with headquarters in Seattle, arrived this morning. They will depart this evening.

President Denney was host this noon to the Rogue River Traffic association and other shippers of the valley, at a luncheon at the Hotel Medford. There were no speeches at this session. President Denney praised the well-known Epepe efficiency. This morning, the Erie party viewed local packing plants and interviewed local shippers.

This afternoon the Denney party played golf at the Country Club, with H. Chandler Egan, Don H. Clark and Paul Scherer.

President Denney was a visitor to this section every autumn for the past five years.

Four Fatalities In Oregon Industries Include Local Man

SALEM, Oct. 16—(AP)—Four fatalities resulted during the past week from industrial accidents. It was announced today by the state accident commission. There were a total of 584 injuries reported to the commission. Those killed while at work include Noble Meisner, Medford, hooker; John H. Meyers, Cook Creek, rigger; Pete Seatos, St. Helens, laborer; J. H. Schumacher, Mill City, faller.

Meisner, who suffered a crushed leg in a Prospect logging camp some time ago, died in St. Vincent's hospital, Portland, October 5.

Buster Keaton Has Role at Craterian

Comical capers in a gymnasium, a screamingly funny adventure with gangsters, and a love affair that results in a riot land Buster Keaton into hilarious troubles in his newest picture now playing at the Fox Craterian theater thru Saturday.

This is "Sidewalks of New York," a farcical romance of love. Buster plays a millionaire's son; he falls in love with Anita Page a girl of the tenement district, and for her sake sets out to reform her small brother.

With Cliff Edwards assisting him Buster manages to stir up troubles a plenty, gets mixed up with gangsters, dodges bullets, and blondes, until the final laugh when true love conquers and he wins the girl of his heart.

A clever Our Gang Comedy, a song cartoon and Paramount news complete the program, with Leah Holt featured in organ specialties.

Hoot Gibson Stars in Rialto Thriller

"Let or Buck"—That's the spirit of Hoot Gibson's newest western special "Wild Horse" which opened at the Fox Rialto theatre today for a two-day engagement.

Highlights of the picture are a battle between real wild horses, thrills and danger of subduing a mankiller, the excitement and color of a great rodeo, and Hoot Gibson in the role of a likeable, human "Show hand"

The story was written by Peter B. Kyne and ran in the Cosmopolitan magazine. The supporting cast includes Alberta Vaughn and Stepin Fetchit.

Marian Marsh Wins Applause at Holly

Marian Marsh, last seen here in "Svengali" plays an important role in "Five Star Final" with Edward G. Robinson. This sensational expose of yellow journalism has been attracting crowds to the Holly, and many who have seen it, declare it to be one of the strongest pictures ever to be put at that theatre. It will be the attraction at the Holly tonight and tomorrow afternoon and evening. Showing with the feature picture is a Graham McNamee News Reel, a novelty musical act, and a reel of Football Thrills.

Noted communication of Medford Lodge No. 103, A. F. & A. M., Friday, Oct. 16, 7:30 p. m. Visitors cordially invited. By order of E. L. LENOX, W. M. GEO ALDEN, Secretary.

I will not be responsible for any bills contracted by my wife after the 15th day of October.
MARSHALL T. DENZER.
