OREGON HELPLESS BEFORE TROY WITH LILLIARD ABSENT

Trounced 53-0, And Has No Offensive Threat—Webfeet Willing But Weak—Bernie Hughes Provides Sole Defensive Sparkle.

OLYMPIC STADIUM, Los Angeles, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Troy's mighty men were foot-loose again today, as the University of Southern California crushed Oregon's green garbed gridsters into one of the most decisive defeats of their history, 53 to 0, before 50,000 persons.

For the third time in as many starts, the Trojans battered their irresistible way to victory over an opponent from the northwest, once the home of the Pacific coast conference's football great.

Shorn of his chief offensive threat, "Smoky" Joe Lillard, by a conference ruling of ineffectuality a day before the game, Coach Clarence Spears could not find a backfield combination which was able to press deeper than the Southern California 43-yard line during the struggle, although the Oregon green showed flashes of a sturdy defense, despite being out-weighted by a goodly margin.

It was the brilliance of Orville Mohler, Trojan dynamo, which furnished the responsive spark that sent Troy flaming to eight touchdowns in the first three periods of play.

It was the steady, sturdy, showing of Erny Pinckert, both defensively and offensively, which helped to subdue the willing but weak Webfeet.

Shaver scored twice early in the third stanza before Coach Howard Jones started sending in his second, third and fourth teams. The second of these touchdowns came after a march of 19 yards in eleven crushing charges off tackle and through the guards.

Summary: Oregon 53, S. California 0. Pinckert; Mohler (sub for Musick); Palmer (sub for Arbelbide); Shaver; Beatty (sub for Shaver); Brouse (sub for Beatty); Points after touchdowns: Baker 3 (placements); Erskins (sub for Smith) (placement); Musick (placement).

MEDFORD SCORES
26-7 WIN OVER CAVEMEN SQUAD

By CLAUDE MANKE
Evidently playing unc' wraps, with Klamath Falls scores on the sidelines, Medford high defeated Grants Pass yesterday on their own field 26-7 before a crowd of 500 people.

Medford made most of her yardage on end runs and line plunges and both teams did considerable passing. They seemed to be about even in this phase.

The locals off-tackle bucks looked nice with strong interference. Gillynky and Scheel were Medford's best ground gainers, the former by his end runs and Scheel by his line plunges. Shrieves started at right end, catching the majority of passes tossed to him, one for a touchdown.

In the first quarter Grants Pass held the Tigers on even terms, stopping a 40-yard march up the field 10 yards short of their goal soon after the game began.

In the second period Gillynky carried the ball to within striking distance of the Grants Pass goal, from where Harrington loosed 15 yards to Shrieves and the lanky end carried it to the 10 yard line. Scheel bucked it over from the five yard line and Zumburrn missed the kick. Grants Pass put up a stubborn defense, but failed to stop the Tiger's drive.

The Cavemen came back strong, throwing passes into the flat end zone for several gains. They could not sustain their attack and lost the ball on downs a few minutes before the half ended. Medford started to work in earnest on the Grants Pass tackles and Scheel galloped through for several long gains before the pistol.

Shortly after the second half started Gillynky was expelled for slugging and Scheel replaced him. An exchange of punts gave the ball to Grants Pass over their own 38-yard line where after a few line plays that gained nothing punted to Gillynky who twisted his way back 27 yards to the Grants Pass 43-yard line. Behind the heavy attack by Harrington and Zumburrn he tore off 20 yards to the end, but Medford was penalized 15 yards for holding and Grants Pass took the ball. Three free plays failed to gain and Medford again began to hammer the Caveman line at the quarter ended, with Scheel making the heavy attack, carrying it down to the 10-yard line.

Several short bucks put it over, with Scheel scoring his second touchdown, making the score 12-0. The kickoff was fumbled by a Grants Pass back and Medford recovered on the enemy's 20-yard stripe. Gillynky gained eight yards around end and Scheel carried the ball 10 yards through right tackle and then packed it over on the next play for his third touchdown of the day.

Grants Pass came back on the following kickoff and worked the "dead-man" play with McGuire hiding out on the sidelines. He gathered in O'Neil's pass and ran 60 yards to O'Neil's 7-yard line where Gillynky overtook him. Harrington fell as he tried to intercept the pass and McGuire got away with no trouble.

Four times the Medford line threw back the thrusts of the Blue and White, but on the fourth they carried it over by inches. They added the extra point by bucking the ball over.

STATERS CRUMPLE PINNING ATTACK BEFORE STANFORD BY IRISH LAUDED TRICKS, RESERVES IN DRAKE DEBACLE

PALO ALTO, Cal., Oct. 17.—(AP)—Stanford's Indians opened their coast conference season in impressive fashion today with a 25-7 rout of Oregon State's giant eleven.

Before a slim crowd of 18,000 spectators, Coach Glenn Warner's 1931 gridiron creation moved off to a slow first half start; speeded up in the third period to take the lead and finished in a spurt that saw two touchdowns crash over in spectacular rallies.

Held to a 7-7 score at the end of the first half, chiefly because the second team men were on the field, the Indians came back to outplay their opponents who outweighed them ten pounds to the man both on the line and in the backfield.

When they came out for the third period, the regulars were in place. The Warner line movement and trick reverses, as executed by the first-stringers, proved too baffling for a hard fighting Oregon State crew.

After Stanford's 13-10 period touchdown, the Staters tightened and for several minutes battered down the field in what appeared to have the makings of another score.

Just when Stanford followers began to fidget in their seats, the cardinal and white garbed gridiron warriors started their closing rally. They retained the ball on their own 21 yard line. The next play put the ball over Oregon State's last line, Allen about a 45 yard pass to Colvin who crossed the goal line, 15 yards away, standing up.

With the game apparently clinched, Lacombe, substitute halfback, bobbed up to intercept an Oregon State pass. He caught it on the line and kept on running for three five yards. It put the ball on Oregon State's 20 yard line. Two minutes were left to play. Line drives added ten yards and a first down. Rintala, substitute fullback, decided to pass. He saw no receiver but still over the goal line and the game ended soon after Lacombe's place kick try for point was blocked.

ROOKS OUT CLASS EASTERN NORMAL

CORVALLIS, Ore., Oct. 17.—(AP)—The Oregon State Freshmen outclassed Eastern Oregon Normal football team here today and won the game, 25 to 0.

The game uncovered a sensational ball carried in Franklin, who came here from the Long Beach, Calif. high school. Franklin scored twice in the first half for the Rooks and then was withdrawn from the game.

MONMOUTH, Ore., Oct. 17.—(AP)—The Oregon Normal school football team defeated the Chico State eleven of California, 19 to 12, here today in one of the hardest fought football battles seen here in several years.

HATCHERY PROJECT UNDERWAY SOON

J. R. Russell, superintendent of the United States Bureau of Fisheries, was in this city yesterday with P. B. Hawley, superintendent of the Oregon fisheries and M. L. Ryckman, superintendent of the state hatchery, arranging for construction of the government hatchery at Butte Falls.

Work will start at once on the clearing of the land and laying of pipe. The building program will include hatchery house, residence, garage, store house and cold storage plant.

4-H YOUNGSTERS SHAME RICH MEN IN CATTLE SHOW

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 17.—(AP)—Two farm youths pushed millionaire "gentlemen farmers" into the background in the final judging at the national dairy exposition here.

With "cheap" animals they carried away grand, senior and junior championships in the exhibition of Guernsey cows.

The junior and grand champion, Ruth Mary Rose of Mills Center, was entered by Cleo Hoy, 18-year-old 4-H club member of Lincoln, Neb., who thought so little of his chances he left for home Wednesday without awaiting the final verdict.

Edwin Schultz, 17, a 4-H club member from Mercer, Kansas, entered Louise's Marguerite, adjudged the best senior cow of the breed.

Older, wealthier and more experienced exhibitors said the triumph of the two youths, the biggest upset of the exposition, shattered the common belief that breeding of fine dairy cattle is a business for rich men only.

CITY TO ENFORCE LOW TREE LIMB ORDINANCE ANEW

The citizens of Medford have, with but comparatively few exceptions, complied with the recent request of city officials to trim all tree limbs that project over the sidewalk and curb in front of their homes to a height of 10 feet.

City Superintendent Scheffel, who expressed much pleasure in relating this yesterday, will make another check of the overhanging tree limb situation tomorrow, after which efforts will be made to have all property owners, who have not already done so, comply with the request.

In past years, low overhanging tree limbs have made disagreeable walking in front of quite a number of homes, especially in rainy weather, as the wet limbs washed into faces.

What made the recent edict for tree trimming over the sidewalks so generally effective was in great part due to the fact that several men out of employment saw a chance to earn some money and went about the city where limbs were seen hanging low offering to make the necessary trimming at 40 cents an hour, they turning their own tools for the work.

Superintendent Scheffel says the city loaned some cutting tools for this purpose where the men had none of their own.

Indications now are that there will be less trouble from overhanging limbs this fall and winter than ever before.

EAGLES TO ENJOY WEEK OF ACTIVITY

Next week will be an active one for the Fraternal Order of Eagles in Medford. On October 23, State President D. D. Hale will attend the lodge with Reynolds V. Ohmart, chairman of the organization's state old age pension committee, and Art Reddick, deputy auditor on the Pacific coast.

A class of 100 candidates will be initiated at the lodge rooms in Dreamland hall and the visiting leaders will speak on unemployment, stabilization of employment and pension matters. The meeting will be open, the Eagles orchestra will play, and seats will be provided for a crowd of 500.

On October 24 the Ladies Auxiliary of the Eagles will be organized here with sixty members. This will be a gala event, long looked forward to by Medford Eagles and their families.

Edwin Schultz, 17, a 4-H club member from Mercer, Kansas, entered Louise's Marguerite, adjudged the best senior cow of the breed.

ORDER OF TEMPLE ON J. J. SKINNER

Malta Commandery, No. 4, Knight Templars, has issued invitations to all members in southern Oregon to attend the gathering Wednesday evening, October 21, in the Masonic hall at Ashland, according to Bill Day, recorder.

The Order of the Temple will be conferred upon J. J. Skinner of this city. Those taking part in the ceremony will include R. E. Sweeney, O. D. Frazee, W. H. McGowan of Medford, and W. P. Loomis, R. E. Detrick, W. H. McNair, F. D. Wagner, T. H. Simpson and O. Winter of Ashland.

A dinner will be served at 6:45, and it has been planned to have the several classes for the years represented by each one of the nine past commanders respectively, seated at separate tables in order to afford reunions.

A program of various activities for which troops were awarded points took up the major portion of the evening. The senior high school band, with F. Wilson Wait as instructor, gave a half hour concert before the regular events were conducted.

Commissioner Walter Jones and Capt. C. Y. Tengwald were in charge of troop inspection, with first place going to troop 3, of Roosevelt school, and second to troop 5. In the final classification for the evening, troop 3 was given second place, and troop 15 of Phoenix, third.

Burelson's ladies' ready-to-wear store is co-operating with Gotham's Silk Hosiery company in celebrating its twentieth birthday anniversary as makers of Gold Stripe stockings. New low prices on these beautiful hose will be in effect Monday, October 19.

Mr. Burelson announced that special displays showing many new styles in Gotham have been arranged at Burelson's. The new "Adjustable" Gotham stocking, which has been extensively advertised recently, is just one of the popular models included in the reduced price list.

ULCANS CONQUERED BY NORTHWESTERN

DYCHE STADIUM, Evanston, Ill., Oct. 17.—(AP)—It took Ken Meenan, 190-pound sophomore halfback to shake Northwestern into stride today before the Wildcats could defeat the University of California's southern branch, 19 to 0.

Northwestern's attack was immensely superior, netting 18 first downs to two for the westerners, but ragged play in the first period and an effective Bruin forward pass defense, kept the Wildcats from scoring until the second session.

Cougars fans, and there were only about a dozen of them, had hardly stopped their frenzied cheering over the W. S. C. touchdown when Kirwan rocked the stadium.

He bolted through the hole so fast that he fell flat on his face after traveling about 15 yards. Two Cougar backfield men, George Sander and Mentor Dahlke, pounced on him. They landed so hard that they fell off and the Bear quarterback leaped to his feet and romped unopposed to the goal line before the bewildered Cougars and startled spectators.

The referee was the only man to accompany Kirwan to the goal line. The W. S. C. players apparently thought the ball was dead.

BEAR QUARTER BY FREAK PLAY ENDS THE WITH COUGARS

MULTNOMAH STADIUM, Portland, Oct. 17.—(AP)—A dizzy, dazzling 60-yard run only a moment after the score was tied in the last period, gave the University of California a 13 to 7 victory over Washington State College in a sparkling Pacific Coast conference football game here today.

Just as the scorers were chalking up a Cougar touchdown made on a blocked punt to tie the score at seven all, Ed Kirwan, alpine Bear quarterback, broke through a big opening at left tackle and raced three fifths of the field to the winning touchdown.

VALLEY NET TITLE PLAY HELD TODAY

Reinforced by several college stars headed by Louis De Genault, Grants Pass Tennis Club's five man team will invade Medford today for a match with the local club which will decide the southern Oregon championship. The teams will meet on the Junior high school courts starting at one o'clock. Five singles and two doubles will be played.

Although they will be without the services of Kramer "Bud" Deuel and John Reddy, two of their stars, the Medford club will be represented by a strong combination headed by Jimmy Edmiston and "Doc" Harold Gillis, former Stanford university star, now practicing medicine in this city.

The other members of the local team will be chosen from Alvin Tollefson, Carter Boggs, Harry Garfield and Harry Butler.

Edmiston and Gillis will team together in the doubles and Tollefson will work with either Butler or Boggs.

Each team has a match to its credit and today's play will decide the championship.

The South Carolina football team is composed four-fifths of sophomores.
