World; Norman Fraley, Medford, education and efficiency; Francis Schilling, Ashland, missionary; E. Helen Wilson, Medford, prayer meeting and Joe Hartley, Phoenix, quiet hour.

Helen Smith, Butte Falls, life work recruit; Leona Spade, social recreation; Rev. C. H. Hilton, Grants Pass Christian church and Rev. George McClure, Ashland Congregational church, pastor advisors; Bob Rutledge, Grants Pass, Oliver Chapman, Phoenix, and Irma Fewell, convention boosters and Nellie Claire Priest, Grants Pass, executive advisor and contact chairman.

MISS GOUDE IN CITY TO LEAD MUSIC DRIVE

Miss Jane Goude of San Francisco, who will lead the drive for the Civic Music association being conducted in the valley this week, arrived in Medford on the Shasta this noon. She will attend the seven o'clock banquet at the Hotel Medford this evening, which will be attended by officers of the association, and interested parties.

D. A. R. News

Crater Lake chapter D. A. R. had the honor Saturday afternoon of entertaining three state officers at a one o'clock luncheon at the Medford hotel. The State Regent, Mrs. W. W. McCredie of Portland, the state vice regent, Mrs. H. Cochran of Medford and Mrs. H. G. Russell of Portland, who is the state corresponding secretary were the guests of honor. The large table in the banquet room was beautifully decorated with orange and yellow autumn flowers and orange colored candles, all in brass containers. The place cards were water color sketches of Crater Lake in whose honor the chapter was named.

After the luncheon the regular monthly meeting was held at the home of the chapter vice regent, Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, 839 Minnesota avenue.

Mrs. J. O. Grey presided during the regular opening exercises and short business meeting and then introduced Mrs. McCredie, who gave a very interesting account of her trip east last spring when she attended the Continental Congress held in Washington, D. C. She described the new Continental Memorial Hall and gave the high spots of the congress. Later she spoke again of the work of the Daughters in Oregon and highly complimented Crater Lake chapter.

The chapter voted to hold an antique exhibition in the near future and Mrs. Grey appointed the following committee: Mrs. Volney Dixon, Mrs. F. Thayer, Mrs. C. M. McDonald, Mrs. R. C. Van Valzah, Mrs. C. L. Wood, Mrs. W. W. P. Holt and Jane Snedcor.

The membership committee announced a tea to be given at the home of Mrs. J. A. Perry to which all who are known to be eligible to membership in the D. A. R. will be invited.

Mrs. Herman Purucker gave a delightful piano solo during the afternoon.

Other guests present besides Mrs. McCredie, Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Purucker, were Mrs. Enslin Peil, regent of Mt. Ashland chapter, Miss Williams of Chicago, Miss Bliss of Mt. Carmel, Ill., Miss Ward of Central Wash., and Mrs. Hutchinson of Berkeley, Calif.

Those assisting Mrs. Ulrich as hostesses were Mrs. W. W. P. Holt, Mrs. Wilson Waite, Mrs. Don Newbury and Mrs. Frank Touvelle.

Presides at Tribune School

MRS. ETHEL HALL

Mrs. Ethel Hall, of San Francisco, accompanied by her colored maid, was in Medford a short time yesterday looking over the Holly theatre and arranging preliminaries for the Mail Tribune School of Home Economics, to open Thursday.

The three-day school will be conducted by Mrs. Hall, remembered by many home economists as Mildred Kitchen of the Call Bulletin. She will return to Medford Wednesday evening to prepare for the opening of classes to be held each afternoon at the Holly.

All southern Oregon housewives are extended a cordial invitation to the school. Everything will be free and there will be many interesting features of entertainment for all who attend the three days' program.

A thirty minute oven dinner, prepared on the Hotpoint range, will be the leading demonstration on the Thursday program.

Each afternoon will bring hints and recipes of value to all homemakers. Table setting, serving, party suggestions, budgeting and many other things will be given considerable prominence along with cooking.

ARREST EUGENE PAIR HERE, FELONY CHARGE

Walter Riggs, who was arrested at Mud Springs Saturday night by state police officers, and his wife, Mary Frances Riggs, arrested at Phoenix, were returned to Eugene this morning by Sheriff Harry Bown of Lane county.

The two were arrested on warrants issued from Eugene charging felony. They had obtained goods in that city under false pretenses, according to the complaint. The sheriff, accompanied by his wife, arrived in Medford Sunday morning, and left early today.

CHOOSE JURY IN DAMAGE CHARGE AGAINST THEATER

Selection of a jury, to hear the damage suit of Roy Patch against the Pacific Theaters, Inc., Holly for $30,000 for alleged injuries sustained, in the operation of a moving picture machine, began in the circuit court this morning, before Judge J. T. Brand of Marshfield. Circuit Judge

H. D. Norton being disqualified by reason of an affidavit of prejudice filed by M. O. Wilkins of Ashland, attorney for the plaintiff. Attorney George M. Roberts represents the defense. Patch, the plaintiff, appeared in court wearing heavy dark glasses. In the questions to the jury, the plaintiff asked each prospective juror if they were employers, and explained that the action is filed under the Employer's Liability clause of the Oregon law. The defense, in its questions, intimated that it would show that any injury to the eyes suffered by Patch, occurred before he was employed by the Holly theater, and that his affliction was not due to any negligence of the defendants. The trial is expected to take the better part of two days.
