

GOAL OF CONCERT BRANCH INCREASES AT FIRST BANQUET

One Hundred Enthusiastic Workers Join Drive for Good Music—Campaign Closes Saturday Night

At a meeting, characterized by enthusiasm and optimism, attended by more than 100 workers, the drive for organization here of a southern Oregon branch of the Civic Music Association, opened last night at the Hotel Medford. The banquet program closed with a membership of 48 persons ready to head the roll and a new goal of 1200 members established.

Workers were reporting to headquarters in the Chamber of Commerce building this morning at an early hour with increased memberships which are expected to swell the total to an important number before the close of the day. A check on the memberships had not been made at press time.

May Exceed First Aim The capacity of the Senior high school auditorium where the concert will be presented, is 1200. Such a membership in the Civic Music Association, if obtained, will bring many more concerts to Medford than the three planned, when the goal was placed at the minimum, 400.

Miss Jane Goude, special representative, is in Medford this week to supervise the campaign, which will close Saturday night. She is assisted at headquarters today by Mrs. Effie Herbert Yeoman, Mrs. Treva Lumsden and Miss Elsie Carlton Strang. Workers are circulating throughout the city in an effort to give everyone a chance to join the association as tickets to concerts will not be sold after the close of the drive this week. Anyone who is not contacted is invited to call at the chamber of commerce to join.

Need Emphasized D. L. Cornet, special representative on the coast from Chicago, was chief speaker on the program at the Hotel Medford last night. He emphasized the need for good music in the life of each individual and showed the workers how organization of a branch here will supply the people of southern Oregon with this long felt need.

"Good music is necessary to the development of our better instincts," he stated. "It is the fourth want in life. They are: Food, shelter, raiment and music. There are only two factors in a concert worthy of consideration," he continued. "They are the artist and the audience. The Civic Music Association emphasizes art instead of the artist, singing not personality, playing not showmanship. It centers all effort on building audiences for the appreciation of good music."

The association is carrying on in 225 leading cities of the nation. Mr. Cornet told his audience. Memberships in the association entitle the owners to attend concerts in any city, where they are being held. During hard times, he explained, people usually learn to spend their money on more worthwhile things, for this reason the Civic Music Association expects an even larger membership this season. Denying oneself cultural satisfaction is always poor economy, Mr. Cornet declared.

Isaacs in Chair The speaker was introduced by Wm. F. Isaacs, chairman of the southern Oregon branch, who presided at the banquet. Several persons prominent in musical circles of southern Oregon, were called upon for short talks. Among them were President J. A. Churchill of the Southern Oregon Normal school, Miss Woodruff of the music department of the normal, Miss Harriett Baldwin, supervisor of music in the Medford schools, and Mrs. E. E. Gore, local piano instructor.

Workers were asked to make a report to headquarters Wednesday night at 7:45 o'clock, when the first official check on memberships will be made. Among the persons joining the association last night, were the following well known leaders: Dr. E. W. Shockley, Mrs. John Fluhrer, Miss Fay Wacey, Miss Eleanor Curry, Mrs. Lloyd Williamson, Mrs. Treva Lumsden, Dr. Burt Lagoon, Mrs. Ben Sheldon, Attorney and Mrs. G. M. Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Fluhrer, Dr. I. H. Gove, Wm. I. Vawter, Jr., Rev. Claude B. Porter, Miss Harriett Baldwin, Wm. F. Isaacs, R. W. Frame, Mrs. C. H. Paeke and M. N. Hogan.

Many other names connected with moves for the cultural advancement of the city are found on the list.

THEATER SCORES HEAVILY IN SUIT OVER EYE INJURY

The defense in the damage suit of Roy G. Patch against the Pacific Theater, Inc. (Holly), for $50,000, scored heavily this morning in the cross-examination of the plaintiff, when he reluctantly admitted that since the filing of the action he had driven an auto on the streets of this city. Patch qualified the admission with the comment, "It was on streets where traffic was light."

Before Patch answered the question, he was sharply requested by the court so to do. Patch also admitted under cross-examination that he could see to count money.

The defense also filed an answer to a divorce suit made by Patch in 1925, wherein he set forth that he was totally blind in one eye, and had only partial vision in the other, a condition the defense claims he now alleges in the present action.

Patch further admitted, that "I have very slight vision in my left eye," while the defense insisted the complaint alleged total blindness.

Patch, under cross-examination by Attorney George M. Roberts, also denied that a Dr. Copeland of Athens, Ohio, a few years ago had issued a certificate showing blindness in one eye, and partial blindness in the other, and that his wife in St. Louis, Mo., had solicited aid, by use of the certificate.

Patch appeared on the witness stand wearing thick, black glasses, and carrying a long staff. Many of his answers were contradictory. As his own chief witness, he was on the stand yesterday afternoon, and under defense questioning most of this morning.

The complaint alleges that while employed as a projector at the Holly theater, his eyesight was injured due to negligence and specifically charges that John Niedermeyer left open a steel door to a powerful light, which struck him full in the face.

A jury, with but one woman, Mrs. Winnifred Short, was chosen. The trial is expected to be concluded by tomorrow noon.

SNOW PLOW WILL KEEP PARK ROAD CLEAR OF SNOW

The road in Crater Lake National park will be kept open between Anna Springs camp and the lodge at the rim this winter by daily use of the rotary snow plow or as often as is necessary, the same as last winter, but no effort will be made to have the entrance roads kept open for the public as far as Anna Springs camp until late spring, as they can comparatively easily be cleared of snow when the time approaches for admittance of the public.

This assures another early opening of Crater National park next year, as the main trouble in prior years has been the solidly frozen masses of snow between Anna Springs Camp and the rim. Last year's opening was the earliest in the history of the park because of the frequent use of the snow plow over this road.

Six men will remain at the park this winter, of whom will be permanent rangers Don Fisher and Char. Simpson, two men will be employed on the snow plow removal work, and Rudy Lueck will be the park photographer and assist in helping out the others when necessary, and the sixth man is the care-taker of the lodge.

SCHEDULE SHOWN FOR AERIAL MAIL

The Medford Mail Tribune today carries a complete schedule of airmail service, both trans-continental and coastwise. The arrival time and leaving time of all planes carrying mail; east bound, west bound, north and south bound are listed.

This schedule has been published at the request of Postmaster W. J. Warner, who feels that it may be of benefit to the many people, who have adopted the airmail service. A great increase has been realized in the service during the past few months. He advises all interested persons to clip the schedule and save it for future reference.

Lodges Hold Successful Meeting in This City A meeting of the Redmen and Pocahontas association of northern California and southern Oregon was held in this city Saturday evening and Sunday at the Redmen hall. The main feature of Saturday evening was the degree work put on by the local team, initiating 14 palefaces from Klamath Falls.

Short talks were made by the following officers of the great council of Oregon, in Portland: Great Sachem Dr. J. L. Bounds; Great Senior Sagamore Alvin Sievers; Great Junior Sagamore James Keys; Great Chief of Records Dr. D. A. Fellows. Also by Past Great Sachem Swint, and Great Trustee of California, Ruth Hughes, and Deputy Great Sachem Howard Glascock, and Deputy Great Pocahontas Dooms of Medford.

At the close of the program refreshments were served in the dining room. Dancing was enjoyed for the remainder of the evening. The Sunday meeting convened at 11:15 with Elbert Butts of McClelland presiding in the absence of President Jack Dooms of this city. It was voted to hold the next fall meeting in McClelland, Calif., the third Sunday in October. Following the meeting a banquet was served to the 85 guests attending. The various tribes and guests entertained with an interesting program during the afternoon.

The annual spring association meeting will be held on the summit of the Siskiyou the second Sunday in July. The program during the afternoon. The annual spring association meeting will be held on the summit of the Siskiyou the second Sunday in July.

Many Special Treats Enter Institute Program In perfect accordance with the move now on in Medford to bring to this city more art and culture, especially in the form of music, with organization of the Civic Music Association, was the program presented yesterday at the County Teachers Institute, according to the talk of many visitors.

The art exhibit displayed by Anthony Euwer of Portland included many water colors of exquisite beauty. Linked with poetry, which he also read to the audience, they took on a deeper significance. The close relationship of poetry, painting and music was emphasized by Mr. Euwer.

The musical program was presented by the high school chorus under the leadership of Miss Harriett Baldwin; grade children led by Miss Eleanor Curry, and piano numbers by pupils of Mrs. E. E. Gore.

Church Group Plans Old Fashioned Fair Plans have been completed by the Ladies' Aid society of the First Methodist Episcopal church for an old fashioned fair to be held at the church Friday evening, October 23. Each department of the church and Sunday school will take part in this great event and every room in the church building will be in use. One will serve as a lunch room, another as a bazaar headquarters for the display of hand-made gifts.

An antique room will house many lovely old treasures, closely linked with the history of Jackson county. A fish pond, pumpkin patch, and fortune telling booths will be among the features planned for the evening. An invitation is extended to the public.

Golden Link Class Meets Thursday The Golden Link Bible class of the First Baptist church will meet at the home of Mrs. Stanley Lydiard on Bible Row Thursday afternoon, October 22, at 2:30 o'clock. Members are asked to meet at the church at 2 o'clock to motor to the Lydiard home. A full attendance is desired for the meeting.

PROSPECT SCHOOL CHILDREN GUARDED BY ROAD PATROL

Establishment of a traffic patrol on the Crater Lake highway, in front of the public school at Prospect, has been made by the state police and California Oregon Power Co., as protection for school children and will be in force this week. The children when going or coming from school will have the right of way across the road, and it will be obligatory on autoists and truck drivers to look out for the children, instead of the children looking out for them.

Owing to the large number of children attending the Prospect school this year, the action became necessary. Ordinarily less than 100 attend the school; now more than 200 attend.

The highway will be open except when school is dismissed or assembling. Caution signs will be posted above and below the school. Strict observance will be enforced by the state police, and the California Oregon Power company will co-operate.

Each noon there is a traffic congestion on the highway in front of the school, as the workers rush to lunch, and the children do the same. There have been several near accidents.

It is also provided that the children, under the new order, play only in the school yard and proceed across the highway in orderly files.

The First M. E. Ladies' Aid will hold a Rummage Sale in the Panatorium Bldg. on Nov. 6 and 7. Anyone having donations call Phone 1608.
