RAIN AND SNOW BREAK DROUGHT SO. OREGON AREA

While the first heavy rain of the early fall season, which began to fall at 10 o'clock last night had resulted in the fall of .88 of an inch up to 5 a. m. today, the snow of yesterday and last night and early this forenoon amounted to from one to two feet in Crater National park, the latter depth on the west rim about two miles from the lodge where Caretaker Crooks has about 85 men at work on the first unit of the new rim road, and a one-foot depth at government camp, or headquarters.

The contractor for the second unit of the new rim road, and the contractor for the new Diamond lake road unit from the rim road also had small crews of men at work. It was not known here today whether the work has been abandoned for the year on the first new rim road unit, and other units because of the snow, but it is known that work on the Crooks contract is about completed.

Altho the little rain fell here after 5 a. m., the downpour during the night was very welcome to the agriculturists and orchardists of the valley.

More rain fell at the Southern Oregon Experiment station near Talent and at Ashland, than in the Medford vicinity. At the experiment station the fall was 1.55 inches, which Prof. Reimer says is greater than the 20-year average for October, 1.47 inches. At Ashland the rain of last night amounted to 1.20 inches.

This rainfall is of great general value to the valley, says Olen Arnsperger, head of the Talent and Medford irrigation districts, and especially to the vetch crop and cover crops in the orchards. It also will perk up the pastures.

Occasional rain is forecast for tonight and Friday.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 22.—(AP)—Western Oregon and the rest of the Pacific northwest received a soaking rain last night as a southerly gale of 50 to 60 miles an hour raked the coastline.

NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—(AP)—The stock market drifted somewhat lower today as Wall street was preoccupied with the arrival in this country of Premier Laval of France, the meeting of railway executives in Atlantic City, and the possibility of a further change in the rediscount rate after the close.

Save for a momentary upturn in the copper, the market drifted almost steadily lower, with rails conspicuously heavy. But the trading was extremely sluggish, and the

Signs of Better Times

WASHINGTON, Oct. 22.—(AP)—A thread of optimism ran through reports today by 30 cities to the president's organization on unemployment relief.

A number reported business establishments reopened and employment improved. Some said additional forces were being added to department stores in anticipation of the Christmas trade.

The New England council called this report "the most encouraging completion in recent months."

Sentiment in Pittsburgh steel centers was said to have improved on account of an expected increase in orders from the automotive industry and railroads.

A slight improvement in the employment situation was reported in Memphis and surrounding territory.

Buffalo said the Pullman company had announced 500 employees of the Buffalo plant had been called back to work.

MRS. TOLLEFSON NAMED BY P.-T. A.

EUGENE, Ore., Oct. 22.—(AP)—Mrs. William T. Brice of Portland was elected president of the Oregon Congress of Parent-Teacher associations at the concluding day of the annual meeting here today.

Other officers are Miss Jean Richardson, Portland, recording secretary; Mrs. H. N. Shaw, Portland, treasurer; Mrs. W. W. Gabriel, Portland, historian.

Vice-presidents elected from various districts include Mrs. Yago P. Tollefson, Central Point, southwestern and Mrs. W. L. Wales, Klamath Falls, southern section.

Industry, adding that "the day of large profits in industry IS PAST."

THERE have been pessimists IN ALL TIMES who have viewed the future with dark forebodings, asserting that the good days were past and that in the future people would have an exceedingly hard time of it.

WITHOUT EXCEPTION, they have been wrong. The world HASN'T gone to pot. After each of its troublous periods, it has recovered and has gone on to new heights of achievement.

This writer, who is admittedly a hopeless optimist, believes it will do so again.

Mississippi exports of merchandise in 1930 were valued at $30,000,000.

St. Petersburg, Fla., claims to have established the first open-air post-office in the United States.

GOOD WEATHER ASKED FOR SCHOOL PLAY DAY

Tomorrow will be play day for 400 grade children of Medford if it doesn't rain anymore, Miss Carin Desarmark, instructor of physical education, announced this afternoon. If it rains more tonight the play session will be postponed. The children are to gather at the Washington school grounds at 2:30 o'clock.

FOR LUNCHEON
The luncheon salad is often the main course. So it should be rather substantial... like this Tuna Fish Salad: After removing the tuna fish from the can marinate it. Pack the fish into small cups to mold it, and place in the ice-box for several hours. Unmold the tuna fish on beds of crisp lettuce and serve with Devilled Dressing which is made like this:
Mash three hard-boiled egg yolks smooth and blend with four tablespoonfuls of Wesson Oil. Stir into this three tablespoonfuls of cream, one tablespoonful of vinegar and seasoning of one-half teaspoon of salt, one-eighth teaspoon of pepper, and a dash of paprika, and one-quarter teaspoon of onion juice. Add two tablespoonfuls each of chopped green pepper and minced pimiento.

FOR BRIDGE
Your bridge guests will prefer a salad that is a happy medium between sweet and sour... a pleasant appetizer for their evening meal... such as grapefruit and orange salad. Alternate skinless sections of grapefruit and orange arranged with a garnish of pimiento-strips, make a salad that is mellowed by Cream Cheese Dressing.
To make Cream Cheese Dressing: soften two packages of cream cheese with eight tablespoonfuls of Wesson Oil. Add one-half teaspoon salt, one-eighth teaspoon of white pepper, one and one-half teaspoonfuls of sugar, one-quarter teaspoon of paprika, and thin with one tablespoonful of lemon juice. Beat into cheese and dust with paprika.

FOR DINNER
Gowns are more sophisticated for dinner. Salads too! Served as a separate course, the simple salad is best. Perfect, tender asparagus tips, slipped through a ring of green pepper or lemon-rind, placed on a single thick slice of red-ripe tomato. Serve with Chiffonade Dressing, which is made like this:
Beat together twelve tablespoonfuls Wesson Oil, three tablespoonfuls vinegar, one teaspoonful salt, one-quarter teaspoon of pepper and a dash of paprika; two tablespoonfuls of chopped pimientos, one tablespoonful chopped parsley, and a minced hard-boiled egg.

Each Occasion Suggests a Different Salad

JUST as no one dress is correct for all occasions, no one salad dressing is suitable for all salad flavors. There are dressings for all tastes, dressings as different as lemon is from honey and honey from cheese. So...

mix a dressing appropriate to the salad

Here are three suggestions. Three dressings that go with their salads just as cranberry goes with turkey, mint goes with lamb and cream goes with peaches. Try them.

AN INTERESTING LITTLE BOOK. Mary B. Murray has written a new little book filled with helpful salad suggestions. It suggests the right kind of salads for each occasion and the dressings that go best with each kind of salad. It also contains many new and interesting ideas that will help you make all your dinners and parties the successful affairs you want them to be.
