

COUNTY BRIEFS

GOLD HILL

GOLD HILL, Ore., Oct. 24—(Spl.)—W. E. Rose was hurt quite severely at the cement plant Saturday evening, and is now at the hospital in Grants Pass. His forefinger on his right hand had to be amputated.

Jack Newnam injured his toe at his mine located the other side of Rock Point. It was split open and the nail taken off.

Mrs. Hulda Avena and son Monte and Mrs. Ivan Keaster and children, Crosby Elaine and Wilbur Leon were week end visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Puhl.

Jewel Cook, who was 6 on Oct. 18, gave a party to a few of her friends, those present were: Evelyn Martin, Gladys Allen, Alice Allen, Jill Martin, Ray Clement, Orpha Millard, Maxine Cook, Valentine Cook and the hostess, Jewel Cook.

Wm. Flippin returned from Lakeview Saturday where he has been visiting for two weeks.

Mrs. Ernest Wardrip of Coquille is here as the guest of her parents, and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stone, and daughter, Nettie.

Mrs. Zaida Smith was in Grants Pass Friday and Saturday as the guest of friends.

Mrs. Chas. Beck of Grants Pass was here over the week end as guest of Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Drake.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Drake visited in Grants Pass Friday, Mrs. Chas. Beck returned here with them on Monday.

Mrs. Olive Turner returned from Portland Saturday where she visited friends.

John Chisholm, who has been in Hood River packing apples, returned to Gold Hill Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cook and Mr. and Mrs. Snodgrass were Medford visitors Saturday.

Mrs. George Hammerly and daughter, Jeanne, were Medford visitors Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Force and family and Mrs. Tom Chisholm and daughter Eileen were Medford visitors Monday.

First edition of the "Nugget" was published Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. It consisted of about three-column pages, and contained much high school and grade news. The paper will be delivered to subscribers in town. There will be at least eight copies the first semester.

Mrs. Alva Cook was a Medford visitor Wednesday.

Helen Condit of Grants Pass was a Gold Hill visitor Tuesday. Mrs. Condit was in an auto wreck but has recovered so she can drive her car.

Clinton Walker, Frank Carter and Clyde Walker were on a hunting trip from Saturday morning until Wednesday afternoon. It is reported they shot nothing.

Mrs. Marjorie Pena has been absent from duties as school teacher the past two days because of illness. Mrs. Shorb substituted.

Ed Holt was a Grants Pass visitor Wednesday.

Bert Ross and mother, Mrs. W. E. Ross, visited Mr. Ross at a Grants Pass hospital Tuesday.

Mrs. Geo. Hammerly and Mrs. Merritt Merriman were Medford visitors Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wolf, who opened the "Nugget" garage, have moved into the stone house on the north side of town belonging to James Chisholm.

Saturday evening a party of 16 hiked to the beacon. They were Lucille Wheatley, Jou Prime, Dora Smith, Bill Hammerly, Nettie Stone, Miss Hankey, Leroy Tompkins, Jeanne Hammerly, Miss Fenwick, Lois Cameron, Florence Wilkin, Ed Walker, Wallace Iverson, John Fleming, Ernest Kell and Junior Robinson. All report a good time.

JACKSONVILLE

JACKSONVILLE, Ore., Oct. 24—(Spl.)—Mr. and Mrs. Clatus McCredie of Medford and Mrs. Tom Ross of Central Point called on their aunt Mrs. Katie Hoffman here Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lem Wilson have as their guests this week Mr. Wilson's sister, Mrs. Herman Froelich and husband of Tacoma. They arrived here Saturday and will spend some days here.

Several local housewives are attending the cooking school being held at Medford.

Ladies aid society held a covered dish luncheon at the church Thursday. They met at 9 a. m. to talk comforters for Mrs. George Backes who lost all bedding by fire Sunday morning. The missionary ladies gave Mrs. Backes a towel and tea towel shower Tuesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clint Dunnington went to Klamath Falls Wednesday.

Mrs. Robert Sharmock returned home Wednesday from a two weeks trip to Iowa, where she accompanied a patient from the sanitarium. Sydney Smith, back home. Mrs. Sharmock stopped at Los Angeles en route to visit friends.

Thomas Kahlor passed away Sunday at the home of Mrs. Thrasher. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at Conger's chapel. Burial was made in the Jacksonville cemetery.

Mrs. Ethel Wilson of Corvallis, had charge of the Rogue River sanitarium the past 3 weeks during Mrs. Sharmock's illness.

Mrs. Ray Stevenson had as her Sunday guests her aunts, Mrs. Ella Meade and Mrs. Esther Burroughs of Grants Pass and cousins, Mrs. Geo. McCullom of Klamath Falls and Mrs. Floyd Sloan of Reno, Ore.

G. O. Sanders is having a week's vacation and is on a hunting trip in Klamath county.

Ray Coleman, Lee Smith and Dan Shuss who have been hunting in the Burns vicinity the past week returned home Sunday, each one bringing a mule deer. The three Hackett boys brought home a deer apiece Sunday from the Evans creek district.

Chris Keegan made a business trip to Gold Beach the past week.

BUTTE FALLS

BUTTE FALLS, Ore., Oct. 24—(Spl.)—Don Smith and Wilma Garman were married Saturday and will live with the bride's father.

All Butte Falls teachers attended the institute in Medford Monday. It was a play-day for the children. Willis Carson and family have returned to Butte Falls, after three years spent in Kansas.

Mrs. Ella Westerland and sister, Mrs. Otis Crawford, Mrs. Tieroff and Mrs. Youngs were guests at the Carson home Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jackson and Mrs. Harry Young and Patty have gone to Oakland for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Boardman of Prospect spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Larson.

Ruth Carson is in school here again. She has been in Kansas three years.

Glen Pruett has been ill with abscessed tonsils for several days. He is staying in the fish hatchery which work started on the fish hatchery this week.

Earl Wymore is working at the fish hatchery.

Billy Spencer returned to Butte Falls after attending school a short time in Medford.

Dick Carson entered the fourth grade Wednesday.

The grade school will have a party next week.

Mrs. Charlie White was here from Prospect Wednesday. Mrs. Chambers will return with her for a visit.

Mr. Botts was here Wednesday.

Ralph Nelson and Homer Kent went to Klamath Falls last week. Frank Carson and Ira Tungate went hunting Thursday. Because of the rain they should come back smiling, each with the limit.

TABLE ROCK

TABLE ROCK, Ore., Oct. 24—(Spl.)—Mrs. Ralph Raymond entertained the young folks of the Table Rock Sunday school with a taffy-pulling at her home Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Davison had as guests last week. Mrs. Davison's sister, Dr. and Mrs. Butt of Berkeley, Calif. While here they enjoyed trips to Crater Lake and Crescent City, accompanied by the Davisons.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hart and family, Edna Knowles and Edith Sage spent Sunday with Mrs. Hart's relatives at Talent.

Mrs. Frances Pierson and sons Paul and Stanford accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Richardson and son Donald, were Table Rock visitors Sunday afternoon.

Miss Evelyn Hamilton left for Eugene last week where she has accepted a position.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Payne with Mrs. Payne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, all of Brookings, Ore., visited here a short while Wednesday afternoon. They returned to the Meadows to view their old homestead which they hadn't seen for 14 years.

Community club will meet Oct. 30 with a short program, games and refreshments.

Mrs. Charles Angle will leave soon for Long Beach, Calif. to visit relatives an enjoy a vacation.

Con Devore of the City Meat market at Medford was here Thursday making arrangements to feed his best cattle at the Nelson ranch this winter.

Fishing industry seems to be coming back into its own judging from the numerous fish peddlers in this district.

Recent rains have wet the ground sufficient to play in many places.

Paul Wilson and Bob Sage while looking for pheasants Sunday saw a four-point buck on the south end of the Byrum place. Paul fired four times with his shot gun and frightened the deer so that it ran into a wire fence, breaking off 6 posts, according to the boys this was one of the largest deer ever seen in these parts.

Mr. and Mrs. George Maxwell entertained Saturday at a bridge dinner, with four tables of cards at play.

Miss Carri Pitts is having the porch on her house rebuilt, and other carpenter work done on her house. Mrs. Lee Smith is having a new fireplace built at her home. Charley Hamilton is doing the work.

Mr. and Mrs. George Maxwell entertained Saturday at a bridge dinner, with four tables of cards at play.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Lee moved Wednesday to Williams Creek where they will live on part of the Dr. Jenkins ranch.

Chester Moore returned home Sunday from Waldo where he had work with the forest service during the summer and fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Frafun of Butte Falls district visited at the Fred Bartley home this week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Backes who lost their home by fire Sunday will rebuild soon. They are reselecting their wood shed and garage and will live there this fall.

Royal Neighbors met at their hall Tuesday for a social evening. Mrs. Lenora Brooll, district deputy of Ashland met with them and outlined her plan for this year's work. Games were enjoyed and refreshments served.

Mrs. Anna Coffman and Mr. and Mrs. Vernie Stephenson and family motored to Cooper Sunday where they spent the day at the Robert Watkins home.

Mrs. Walter Bell and family left by auto for Wilmington, Calif. this week where they will visit Mr. Bell and stay during the winter. They plan to return here next spring and now wheat on their ranch near Rich.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Butcher of Thompson Creek moved to their home here Wednesday.

Dr. Gillis and Dr. Wilson of Medford called Tuesday evening to attend Mrs. Jim Anderson who is quite ill.

Benton Poole and daughter Maude and Fred Copper of Big Applegate were business visitors here Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gore of Lakeview called on their cousin, Mrs. Ray Stevenson and Mrs. Chester More Tuesday. Mrs. Gore will be remembered here as Mrs. Iva Glen.

W. A. Johnston, high school instructor of Rogue River, accompanied his civic class to Jacksonville Wednesday to look over the museum and antique shop. There were twenty-one students who enjoyed the all-day trip.

Missionary society of the Presbyterian church met with Mrs. Jim Forties Tuesday afternoon with about 15 ladies attending. The study of Alaska and India was enjoyed after which refreshments were served. Mrs. Cora Bixby will entertain the society next month.

John Bowdish has traded for property on Lozier Lane and will move there this week. They lived on the place formerly owned by Mary Hurst the past year and won many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Bowdish have been active in 4-H club work the past summer. Mrs. Bowdish is president of the P-T. A. of Jacksonville.

of this week. Mr. Hanson will take possession of the Jones place immediately.

Harland Fiekta of Marshfield is visiting his uncle George Fields and other relatives. Tuesday he visited his sister, Mrs. Maude Lyons of Phoenix. Mrs. George Fields accompanied him.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Gray of Williams Oct. 19, weighing 7 pounds. She has been named Eleanor Hallen.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Goldsmith of Medford are making their home with Mrs. Goldsmith's father, Alva Davidson for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Roberts visited Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Henson of Medford Sunday.

A home owned by Don Hedgepeth was shot by a hunter on the T. D. Davidson ranch last week, the bullet shattering a leg bone, making it necessary to shoot the animal. It is not known who shot it.

Charles Vincell was badly bruised and cut by limbs of a falling tree one day last week and was confined to his room for several days. No bones were broken and he is around again.

Mat Morrison is greatly improved in health and expects to return to Williams Creek before the end of the hunting season.

A grass fire starting on the Riley Davis barn spread rapidly and burned about a half mile of rail fence on the T. D. Davidson farm, endangering the barn. It was controlled by a large crew of men before other damage was done.

J. E. Mansfield has as visitors, his brother-in-law George Hull of Salem and his nephew Earl Lehman, who are spending their vacation hunting on Williams creek.

Henry Hammond is building a bungalow on his place, using the cabin as one room and adding a large room in front and a long roomy porch on the side.

Mrs. Alice Bacon, county school superintendent and Miss Calkins, health nurse, visited the Williams school last week.

John Brown, who has been seriously ill is slightly improved. Dr. Baily of Grants Pass was called to see him one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Banks Newcomb and Mr. and Mrs. Kradel were dinner guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morton of Ashland. Mrs. Kradel went to see Dr. Wood, throat specialist. Mrs. Stella Stratton, who has been a house guest at the Nortons, returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cougle of Sprague River are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cougle, Earl, who has been employed there also returned home, work having shut down for a while.

Mrs. Doc Mansfield who has been ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bill Lemmon, is improved sufficiently to be taken home. She is still quite weak.

George Sparlin, Clem Blodgett and Alfred Larimore spent five days, returning in the Grayback county, returning Tuesday with four big bucks.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

of this week. Mr. Hanson will take possession of the Jones place immediately.

Harland Fiekta of Marshfield is visiting his uncle George Fields and other relatives. Tuesday he visited his sister, Mrs. Maude Lyons of Phoenix. Mrs. George Fields accompanied him.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Gray of Williams Oct. 19, weighing 7 pounds. She has been named Eleanor Hallen.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Goldsmith of Medford are making their home with Mrs. Goldsmith's father, Alva Davidson for the winter.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Roberts visited Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Henson of Medford Sunday.

A home owned by Don Hedgepeth was shot by a hunter on the T. D. Davidson ranch last week, the bullet shattering a leg bone, making it necessary to shoot the animal. It is not known who shot it.

Charles Vincell was badly bruised and cut by limbs of a falling tree one day last week and was confined to his room for several days. No bones were broken and he is around again.

Mat Morrison is greatly improved in health and expects to return to Williams Creek before the end of the hunting season.

A grass fire starting on the Riley Davis barn spread rapidly and burned about a half mile of rail fence on the T. D. Davidson farm, endangering the barn. It was controlled by a large crew of men before other damage was done.

J. E. Mansfield has as visitors, his brother-in-law George Hull of Salem and his nephew Earl Lehman, who are spending their vacation hunting on Williams creek.

Henry Hammond is building a bungalow on his place, using the cabin as one room and adding a large room in front and a long roomy porch on the side.

Mrs. Alice Bacon, county school superintendent and Miss Calkins, health nurse, visited the Williams school last week.

John Brown, who has been seriously ill is slightly improved. Dr. Baily of Grants Pass was called to see him one day last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Banks Newcomb and Mr. and Mrs. Kradel were dinner guests Tuesday of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Morton of Ashland. Mrs. Kradel went to see Dr. Wood, throat specialist. Mrs. Stella Stratton, who has been a house guest at the Nortons, returned home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cougle of Sprague River are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cougle, Earl, who has been employed there also returned home, work having shut down for a while.

Mrs. Doc Mansfield who has been ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bill Lemmon, is improved sufficiently to be taken home. She is still quite weak.

George Sparlin, Clem Blodgett and Alfred Larimore spent five days, returning in the Grayback county, returning Tuesday with four big bucks.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns were on a hunting trip last week in the Applegate region.

Ethel Carr was a Medford shopper Thursday.

Callers at L. H. Hughes' Monday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph DeWitt and son, Nicholas, Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Wheeler and Doris of Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Potts and daughter Constance of Central Point.

Mrs. Eldridge who has been spending a few days with Mrs. Hughes returned with Mr. and Mrs. Potts to visit a few days.

Mr. Kantor was shopping in Medford Saturday.

Mrs. George Drake spent Monday with Mrs. Ray Ward.

Harry Steele was hunting on Anderson creek Thursday.

Ed Marshall is helping E. P. Hughes, Sama Valley harvest his corn crop.

Ed Marshall spent the week-end on a hunting trip to Hatt's lake with Mr. Grinstead and Mr. Runtz of Medford. They had no luck.

Dallas Reeder and Archie Ferns