

Kansas Remains Solitary Dry State in Straw Vote Conducted by Lit. Digest

Night states are voting more than four to one wet while Kansas is the only one voting bone dry, as over 500,000 more ballots are tabulated in this week's returns of the Literary Digest's prohibition poll, according to figures published in tomorrow's issue of the periodical.

Of the total of 2,576,459 ballots tallied this week, 630,217, or 24.46 per cent are dry and 1,946,242, or 75.54 per cent register wet sympathies.

Connecticut, Illinois, New Jersey, Louisiana, New York, Rhode Island, Wisconsin and Wyoming quote percentages ranging from 80 to 95 per cent of their total state vote for repeal of the 18th amendment.

Kansas shows a slight gain in dry sentiment in the current report, polling 53 per cent for continuance of the 18th amendment.

The dry vote scores a fourth consecutive gain this week, rising from 15.85 per cent of the total vote of the first week's returns to 24.46 per cent in the fifth tabulation this week.

All states evidence a slight increase in dry sentiment with the exception of Alabama, Massachusetts

SPECIAL PROGRAM OF MUSIC WILL OBSERVE PALM SUNDAY, CHURCH

Day after tomorrow is Palm Sunday and the Presbyterian church will be one to observe the holy day with a program of special music, featuring several well known local artists. An invitation is extended to all music-minded people of the valley who enjoy a program of religious compositions, interpreted with ability and appreciation.

The church quartet will open the program with the singing of "Palm Wide the Gates," from Stainer's "Crucifixion." A soprano solo, "Ride On, Ride On," by John Prindle Scott, will be sung by Elsie Carlton Strang. Merland Tollefson, home from the University of Oregon for the spring holiday, will also entertain and has announced as his solo "All Ye Who Travel Upon the Highway," from the "Seven Last Words of Christ," by Dubois.

Voices to be heard in the quartet are Elsie Carlton Strang, soprano; Edna Effert, contralto; A. J. McConough, tenor, and W. W. Howard, bass.

Eva Hazelrigg Marsh, organist, will play all accompaniments and Merland Tollefson will be guest soloist of the morning.

RAIN SQUALL HITS COASTAL REGION

PONTIAC, March 18.—(P) South-east storm warnings were ordered up this morning at all Oregon and Washington coast stations.

Heavy rain squalls broke over the Oregon coast during the night and spread into the central and eastern sections.

The weather bureau predicted continuation of the storm over the weekend.

The warm rains and melting snow sent rivers of the state higher. At Salem the Willamette rose five feet in the 24-hour period ending at 8 a. m. today.

THE HOME OF BREAD LIKE MOTHER MADE

Tomatoes vs. Oranges

QUOTING Dr. William Weston, in an address before the National Medical Association convention:—

"Oranges and tomatoes are about equal in their Vitamin C value but tomatoes have slightly greater source of Vitamin A and Vitamin B than oranges have. This should be reassuring to people who find it difficult to get fresh orange juice for the baby for tomato juice is quite as valuable. Infants can take a larger quantity of tomato juice—fresh or canned—than of orange juice without manifesting ill effects. Oranges are less than half as rich in iron as tomatoes." (From Medford Mail Tribune, Jan. 24, 1931).

According to this famous physician—Tomatoes are simply a better product for less. Rogue River Valley tomatoes are conceded to be the finest in the west. Tomorrow we quote special prices on all tomato products.

A Right About Face and a Prophecy

Progressive bakers are realizing that to sell the housewife cake they must use the housewife's own materials and her own recipes and beat her at her own game. The particular housewife has refused to consistently buy bakers' cake because it lacked that something.

"That Something" was a shortage of eggs, butter and cream. As far as appearances go, Bakers' cake was superior but the flavor was not there.

NOW—this whole aspect is changing. Bakers such as ourselves are using the housewife's own methods and with mass production and superior equipment are making the same cake for less money. Just as surely as Bread Baking was taken out of the home, so will cake baking eventually be taken out of the home. As this idea gains momentum more and more it will be demonstrated that except on very special occasions the housewife can no longer afford to bake at home.

STUDENTS HONOR PATRON SAINT AT FESTIVE PROGRAM

The fantastic dreams, the deep religious faith, the laugh with the tear behind it, the wit and humor which characterize the people who inhabit the Emerald Isle, all entered the program presented last night by students of St. Mary's Academy in observance of St. Patrick's day.

Plays, songs, harp and piano music blended into one beautiful story of the Irish folk and their love of the patron saint.

The auditorium was filled to capacity for the occasion and sham-rock and green bows were much in evidence. Owen Patton, one of the city's most beloved Irishmen, received tickets. He was in an unusually festive mood, having earlier in the evening danced to music broadcast from Dublin.

The program opened with three favorite melodies of the Irish, sung by the boys' choral class. The harmony achieved by the young voices was rewarded with much applause.

"The Gifts of St. Patrick," a quaint little play, emphasizing the faith of an old Irish mother in a wish made on the day for wearin' o' the green, was ably presented by the following students: Ariene Jensen, Genevieve Devaney, Patricia Hayes, Edna Burkhardt, Warren Loffer and George Smith.

Elaine Brophy, talented young musician, played two compositions on the harp, "Irish Airs" and "The Last Rose of Summer." The audience received each with enthusiasm.

The rhythm band, in first appearance, was one of the high spots of the evening. The young bandmaster and his assistants appeared in vivid costumes and won the hearty approval of the crowd with their dapper air, as well as playing.

The girls' choral class, in singing "The Kerry Dance" and "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling," also won much applause.

Martha DeSouza, pianist, was next on the program and played with ease and understanding, "Irish Melodies."

Groceterias Giving Tomato Bargains

W. A. Gates announces today that the Groceterias stores will have special prices Saturday on all tomato products, to better acquaint everyone with this popular food. Mr. Gates quotes Dr. William Weston, who said, in an address before the National Medical convention in 1931, "Tomatoes have a slightly greater source of vitamin A and vitamin B than oranges. Tomatoes are more than twice as rich in iron as oranges."

Car Turns Over on Applegate Highway

APPLEGATE, March 18.—(Sp.)—G. P. Barabaw narrowly escaped serious injuries Monday when his car turned over. After moving the R. J. Phinney family to their new home on Wolf gulch, Mr. Barabaw was going home. The brakes failed to hold and he headed for a bank, but the car went up the bank and turned on the top in the road. The top and windshield were demolished.
