

BUTTER AND EGGS OPEN UNCHANGED AFTER WEEK-END

PORTLAND, March 21.—(AP)—There was no change in the butter market situation for the week's opening. There was a very heavy increase in receipts of butter here last week with a moderate gain in local turning.

The market for eggs appears practically unchanged at the week's opening with receipts practically steady. Peddling by producers to retailers continues the chief market price menace.

There remains a fairly steady tone in the cheese trade at primary points of the country.

There remains an easy feeling generally in the market for live light-weight hens as well as mediums, but heavy stock remains fairly steady. Broiler market is about steady at 18 to 22 lb., according to weight and quality.

Lower prices are being named in spots for country killed calves. Sales in general are not above $9.90 for tops with heavy spots mostly 60 lb.

While buying of potatoes in the local territory for carload shipment remains fairly active, California buyers appear to be fighting the latest price advances being quoted by Yakima.

There was a very liberal increase in offerings of vegetables during the Monday session of the east side farmers' wholesale market. The big increase in broccoli was a real surprise. There was a good stock from the Roseburg section selling around 80c for best 2's and 90c-91 for 1's.

NEW YORK, March 21.—(AP)—The stock market turned upward and closed with numerous net gains of 1 to 2 points today. Trading was sluggish, the day's turnover falling short of a million shares, but the closing tone was firm.

The turn seemed to reflect more than anything else a complete drying up of selling, which in turn prompted avert covering. The rally finally responded to President Hoover's reassuring statement regarding the reconstruction plan of taking care of the road's pressing financial requirements.

SUPPLIES STOLEN FROM GOLF CLUB

It seems even some burglars are particular about their clothes, for when the shop at the Rogue River Valley Golf club was entered some time last night, two pairs of plaid plus-fours were left untouched, but six pairs of golf knickers were taken, along with other articles, it was reported by Jack Hueston, professional at the club.

The plus-fours had been taken to the club by Fred J. McFerguson when he closed his men's store here, and were placed on sale at the club shop. Candy, cigarettes and a dozen pairs of golf socks were also taken, Mr. Hueston said. He estimated the loss at $45.

A hole was cut in the door, and the Yale lock opened from the inside. Mr. Hueston said the size of the hole indicated that the theft was committed by juveniles.

Depositors Sign Waiver. Depositors of the Jackson County Bank responded to its appeals, starting Sunday afternoon. They were advised by telephone to come to the bank, and all afternoon there was a large crowd waiting to sign.

Officials of the Jackson County Bank, expressed a deep appreciation of the helpful loyalty manifested by their clients.

Jackson county funds on deposit in the Jackson County Bank totaled $72,980, protected by $80,000 prime securities, according to County Treasurer A. Walker.

Little Excitement. The action of the Jackson County Bank caused but a minimum of excitement, among the depositors and business today at the three other banks of the city was normal this morning when the banks opened.

There was a large crowd of curious outsiders of the banks, but no unusual activity within.

Speedy adjustment of the situation is universally declared to be a business aid to the city and valley, and makes funds available at an early date, instead of the long period for formal receivership and liquidation. The banking life of the city, it is believed, will be strengthened and the community ultimately benefited.

There has been keen interest in the negotiations throughout the county, and the solution presented

ELKS STUDY FOR THURSDAY MATCH

Partisanship has flared to the fore again, and during the past few days numerous wagers have been made in connection with the Court Hall-Gus Newbury spelling match, scheduled for Thursday evening at the Elks temple.

Spelling books which have been in storage since the last match staged between the teams, are being dusted off. Some members said today they would refuse to study a great deal, for they might be chosen on the team which they were wagering against.

Sides will be chosen Thursday evening, and side bets being made include a few that the two captains will be among the first 25 to sit down.

Robert Force, said to be a Central Point man, and who works in an orchard at Eagle Point, was fined $20 and $4.50 costs on his plea of guilty to possession of liquor while driving through the valley yesterday. Two quarts of wine were found in the car which he says were for his own use. He claimed that a Central Point man named "Jerry" gave him the wine.

Inasmuch as Force was "broke," and his parents were dependent on his support, he was given until April 10 to pay.

Like fines were imposed on Charles W. Franks and Melville O. Wright, local young men, who while returning at high speed on the Jacksonville highway from the Jacksonville dance at 1 a. m. Sunday, when hailed by State Policeman O'Brien, gave the latter quite a chase, but were finally caught in the streets of Medford.

During their wild ride they nearly crashed into several cars. Three-fourths of a gallon of moonshine was found in the car.

Wright, who drove the car, was charged with liquor transportation, and Franks charged with liquor possession. They said that Franks had only taken but one drink of the liquor and pronounced it so bad that Wright did not touch it, and they had planned to throw it away. Both were without money and were given until April to pay.

FOUR AUTOISTS GET FINES FOR OWNING LIQUOR

Three men, while returning home from Saturday night dances and who fell into the clutches of the state police, learned in Judge Taylor's court today that late night car driving and liquor is a costly mixture. Another driver with liquor was also punished.

EXTEND HOLIDAY IRRIGATION DEBT

WASHINGTON, March 21.—(AP)—The house today passed an amended bill to extend a moratorium on construction charges to water users on federal reclamation projects.

The measure postpones all construction charges due in 1931 and half of those for 1932, until the end of the contract period. It would also extend for a year the time for beginning construction of the Uncompahgre, Colorado, reclamation project.

Representative Smith (R., Idaho) estimated the 18-months moratorium would defer payments of $3,000,000 to the reclamation fund.

$1500 ASKED BY SANDER IN FRUIT SETTLEMENT SUIT

The civil suit of Fred C. Sander, orchardist, against the Suncrest Orchards, Inc., operated by L. A. Banks, local newspaper publisher, opened this morning in circuit court.

Sander is asking for $1500 for fruits he claims was delivered the defendant. The question involved is one of the amount of freight delivered of the amount of fruit delivered and the amount of cull fruit included.

Sander is represented by Attorney Porter J. Neff and Frank DeSouza and the Suncrest Orchards by Newbury and Newbury.

When the jury was called for the case, Mrs. Max GeBauer, a member whose name was mentioned in affidavits submitted last week by attorneys for Earl H. Felt in a motion filed for new trial, charging irregularities and prejudice of the jury in the libel suit, won by Game Warden Parr, asked to be excused from serving. Her request was granted with the consent of attorneys and E. B. Carter called to take her place.
