Claudette Colbert Star Of Craterian Hit; Boyd Has Role

(By Jack Rathaw)
Who is the best dressed star in Hollywood... which means, in many ways, who is the best dressed woman in the entire country?
A racing battle between many of the fairer celebrities, trying to outdo each other in fine raiment, plus their stunning personalities, seems to have narrowed down to three beauties—Lilyan Tashman, Kay Francis and Claudette Colbert.
To be recognized at the film capital as the smartest attired woman is a tremendous triumph indeed. It is a costly triumph, however, as up-to-the-minute gowns, frocks, etc., require jobs of good money.
For the first time, two of the three

"finalists" in this exciting race will appear in the same picture, and fans will be afforded a rare opportunity to compare these two anyway. They are none other than Claudette Colbert and Lilyan Tashman, and the picture is "The Wiser Sex," which is showing today and tomorrow at the Fox Craterian theatre.
Noted William Boyd has the honor as the principal male star, but most of the credits will be cast feminine-ward, when the gorgeous gowns of Claudette and Lilyan flash into view. The picture is a knockout!
The added attraction on this program will be the appearance of Harry Lauder, noted Scotch comedian and song star, in a clever screen vocal offering.
The office of Flory Insurance Service and Chauncey Flory, U S Commissioner, now located on the 4th floor of the Liberty Bldg.

"Are you sure you're keeping kissable?"

Your poise and grace,
Your lovely face,
Your rosebud lips, all cry "Come Hither!"
Why spoil their lure
With "smokes" impure?
Why cause my love to fade and wither?

You smoke OLD GOLDS?
Lady, that holds
My heart in bonds that will not sever,
Because it shows
You're one who knows
How to keep kissable forever!
