

TIGER HOOPSTERS LOST ONLY THREE GAMES IN SEASON

Dietrich, Harrington and Wilton White Lost by Graduation in Spring—Good Material Next Year

(By Adrian Fraley.) Medford Tigers last week completed one of the most successful basketball seasons in several years. The Tigers brought home fourth place from the state tournament, having been defeated only by the state hoop champions by one point. Two members of the team also brought high honors for the local senior high school.

Red Scheel was placed on the all-state team and George Harrington received honorable mention. Scheel and Harrington have earned this recognition by steady, hard work throughout the season. Scheel declares that he did not deserve this honor more than any other member of the team. George Harrington, who will be lost by graduation, states that the one thing he regrets is that he will be unable to return and play for the team next year.

The Tigers lost three of their regular players because of graduation, Bob Dietrich, George Harrington and Wilton White. Bud Lindley will be back but will only be able to play until mid-year. Red Scheel will be able to play another year. Tom White, Bill Knigs and Latham will be back for next season's competition.

Good reserve material will be coming to the front next year. Medford won all but three of the games they played this year, dropping one to Salem, one to Oregon Frosh, Astoria nosing them out in the state tourney.

PETROLLE STOPS AGGRESSIVE 'BAT' IN FINAL FRAME

Duluth Veteran Wins Easily With Long Range Sharpshooting — Fargo Billy Has Hard Luck With Titles

By HERBERT W. BARKER Associated Press Sports Writer. NEW YORK, March 25.—(AP)—Perhaps he doesn't care for that sort of thing, but it seems an undoubted injustice that Billy Petrolle never gets a whack at a flat championship.

Considered in many quarters the greatest fighting man now in the ring, a logical contender for either the lightweight or welterweight title, the Duluth veteran is just as far away from a championship as he ever was.

To his string of victories over Jimmy McLarin, Justo Suarez, Eddie Ran and Billy Townsend, Petrolle added another last night—a one-sided triumph over Christopher (Bat) Battalino, of Hartford, Conn., former world's featherweight champion, and called recently the modern "Battling Nelson."

Big Crowd Attends. A near-capacity crowd of 18,000 spectators looked on uneasily as Petrolle cut Battalino to pieces with vicious rights and lefts to the head, brought blood streaming from the eyes, and finally stopped him after one minute and 31 seconds of the 12th and final round.

Despite Battalino's series of spectacular triumphs over Kid Chocolate, Fidel LaBarba, Al Singer, Earl Masto and Eddie Ran, Petrolle was the betting favorite at 7 to 5 as they entered the ring. And before three rounds were over it was apparent that Battalino was over-matched.

The Hartford boy committed fist-swinging suicide by carrying the fight to the Duluth slugger.

Aggressiveness Best Bet. Battalino had gained his most notable victories by his eternal aggressiveness and he thought he could whip Petrolle that way. Billy was too wily for him.

Billy retreated, firing damaging punches into Bat's face and body. In the third round he nailed Battalino with a smashing right uppercut that slashed the Hartford boy's nose to the bone and before the bout was over Battalino was bleeding from cuts over both eyes as well.

Through round after round Battalino gamely stood up under terrific punishment, but he finally weakened in the 12th. Two smashing punches to the body made Battalino sway. Another volley to the head sent him reeling into the ropes. Still he refused to go down, but he obviously was out on his feet and Referee Gunboat Smith stepped in and awarded the fight to Petrolle on a technical knockout.

Petrolle weighed 139 pounds, Battalino 135.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 25.—(AP)—Joe Bowman and Merritt "Sugar" Cain congratulated themselves today on having survived a weeding out which saw three slammates fall by the wayside.

Bowman came from the Portland Coast league club.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 25.—(AP)—Babe Ruth connected with his first home-run of the spring exhibition season in the first inning of yesterday's game between the world champion St. Louis Cardinals and the New York Yankees.

The Babe got his circuit drive off Bill Hallahan, the Cards' southpaw ace. The blow also scored Myril Hoag, who had singled.

Talks To Parents

THE REPORT CARD By Alice Judson Peale. The purpose of the marks the child is given in his various subjects is supposedly threefold—to give the school an objective record of his achievement, to let the parent know what progress his child is making and to let the child himself know how he stands.

Unfortunately grades are often used chiefly by both parents and teachers to make the child feel his failure when he has done poor work or to make him compare himself unfavorably with better students.

The idea, of course, is that this will challenge him to competition and fresh effort. Usually, however, the result is only to make the child feel inferior and discouraged, though he may try to brave it out and pretend he doesn't care to try to do better.

The child may be helped to regard his report card as something more than a means for letting others pass judgment upon him and awarding him praise or blame. He can learn to think of it as a way of helping him to check up on himself.

It should not be especially important to him to rank better or worse than someone else, or to make a grade just such and such a percentage short of perfect. But it should matter how much his report compares with his own previous ones.

If it is less good, then why? And what must he do to bring his work up to par? A frank discussion of his difficulties at this point often results in helping the child to find a way out of them before they become acute.

Success is only a matter of improvement over one's own past record. With that the child has reason to feel satisfied and so also should his parents and his teachers.

CRESCENT CITY LOT CASE NEXT ON COURT LIST

Selection of a jury in the suit of Aiden H. Hughes of this city against the Crescent City Investment Co., C. B. Day and the American Surety Co. for collection of money assertedly invested in Crescent City lots in 1928-1929, was under way in the circuit court today before Judge H. D. Norton. The trial is expected to take three or four days.

Linked with Hughes in the complaint are 24 other residents of the city and valley who made investments in ocean side lots in sums ranging from $25 to $200.

The American Surety Co. provided bonds for Day, under the Oregon law, in the sum of $2000, and the surety company is made co-defendant in the action. Hughes seeks the return of $800.

The plaintiff alleges in his action that the value and future prospects of the lot were "misrepresented" and that extravagant claims were made, one being that full-page ads ament the lots and Crescent City would be placed in the Hearst papers and the Saturday Evening Post and that it was further represented that railroads and factories planned to come to Crescent City as soon as the harbor was completed.

A number of valley Crescent City lot investors, not included in the above action, are said to be contemplating suit.

The American Surety company is represented by Attorney Gus Newbury. Hughes and associated plaintiffs are represented by Crews & Codding and George Neilson.
