

Camera's Eye Catches Interesting Events and Personalities of Week

Kills Mother

Associated Press Photo
Leslie Barrett, 19, admitted he killed his mother but was too intoxicated to remember according to Seattle, Wash., police. He claimed it was an accident.

Joins Big League

Associated Press Photo
Howard Magle, former football star at Oregon State, has quit his coaching job at Willamette University, Ill., to join the Washington, D. C., American League baseball club in Biloxi, Miss. He is a catcher.

HERE ARE THE LATEST BATHING SUIT FASHIONS ALL IN A ROW

Associated Press Photo
Here they come swinging down the strand—bathing beauties passing in review. But after all, the purpose of this picture is to show you the variety of suits offered for water enthusiasts in 1932. The girls are on the beach at Santa Monica, Cal. Many of the styles shown have been exhibited on continental beaches.

COURT ORDERS SPILLING OF SACRAMENTO WINE

Associated Press Photo
Federal prohibition agent opening the drains on some of the 31 huge vats at the Silva Brothers winery in Sacramento, Cal., county. Approximately 135,000 gallons valued at $270,000 flowed into a wasteland sump on the order of a federal court.

GUNMAN CAPTURED IN NEW YORK

Associated Press Photo
"Smiling Joe" Filkowiak, Cleveland's ranking "public enemy," is shown between two Cleveland detectives after he was captured in a sharp fight in a crowded New York street. The gunman, who is wanted in Cleveland on numerous charges of gang violence, was sought for 14 months in half a dozen cities.

WHERE CHINESE LINES HELD

Associated Press Photo
Here is a map showing the battle lines of Chinese and Japanese forces after the Japanese failed in their offensive against the center of the Chinese lines at Kiangwan. Resisted in the drive against Kiangwan, the Japanese suddenly switched their attack to the Chapel end of the Chapel-Wosung front. Observers deduced they had assumed a defensive attitude to await reinforcements from Tokyo.

CAREY TALKS IT OVER WITH BROOKLYN PITCHERS

Associated Press Photo
Max Carey, new manager of the Brooklyn Dodgers, is shown here as he opened his field campaign by passing out some advice to a group of young pitchers at the Brooklyn spring training camp in Clearwater, Fla. Left to right: Carey, Vickers, Mungo, Mattingly, Jones, Gallivan and Crider.

NEW YORKER'S GIFT PRESERVES REDWOOD AREA

Associated Press Photo
Addition of 6,000 acres of fine forest land to California's state park system, saving the ancient trees from private exploitation, was made possible by a contribution of $500,000 made by Edward S. Harkness of New York. The money he gave was matched by funds supplied by the park commission. Shaded area on map shows location and extent of the new preserve. The photograph is of a typical spot in the heart of the old trees.

KENTUCKY'S GIFT TO THE STAGE

Associated Press Photo
You get an idea of what is meant by Blue Grass beauties when you gaze upon Lois Maye of Louisville, Ky. She is now a dancer in Broadway's "Vanities."

GIANTS START 'BIG PUSH'

Associated Press Photo
Adolph Luque (left), veteran pitcher obtained by the New York Giants from Brooklyn, and Francis Healey, catcher, are not letting any grass grow under their feet at the Giants' spring training camp in Los Angeles. The boys, feeling ambitious, hitched themselves to a mower to work off some excess energy.

After Eye Operation

Associated Press Photo
Ramsay MacDonald, British prime minister, is shown here as he was well on the way to recovery after a delicate eye operation.

MIDGET GOLFERS TO THE 'FORE'

Associated Press Photo
Mary and Ellen Gallagher, five-year-old twin daughters of Mickie Gallagher, golfing star, couldn't even be persuaded to take their eyes off the ball long enough to "watch the birds," as intent were they on this game over the Forest Hills course at Augusta, Ga. Little Mary may have been interested in another kind of birds, the way she's going for that cup!

Financier's Slayer

Associated Press Photo
Tadashi Konuma, 23-year-old assassin of Junnosuke Inouye, Japan's leading financier and thirteenth minister of finance of that country is shown in Tokyo as a detective held him soon after the shooting.

SUSPECTED IN STRANGE PLOT

Associated Press Photo
Mrs. Christina Smith, Buffalo widow, was held in Cleveland as police tried to break through her story that a wife known as "Terry Tower," abandoned in Cleveland, was her own. They accused her of obtaining a founding from a maternity hospital in the Ohio city and passing it off as her own so that she might not lose a $30,000 share in the estate of her late father-in-law.

Sails For Wedding

Associated Press Photo
Grand Duchess Marie, Russian emigre, is shown shortly before sailing for London to attend the wedding of her son, Prince Constantine of Sweden, to a Swedish commoner. She has been divorced from Prince William of Sweden since 1914.

War Kills Fiance

Associated Press Photo
Olive Bell Hamon, daughter of the late Jake L. Hamon, Oklahoma millionaire, who was engaged to marry Robert H. Short, American aviator killed in an air duel in China with Japanese planes.

Josephus Daniels

Associated Press Photo
Recent portrait of Josephus Daniels of Raleigh, N. C., secretary of navy in President Wilson's cabinet.