FIVE REPUBLICANS WOULD BE JUDGE

Earl C. Gaddis, former mayor of Medford, late yesterday filed his declaration of intentions to run for the office of county judge. He is the fifth candidate to file on the Republican ticket, others being Earl H. Fehl, Medford; A. H. Willets, Talent; C. A. Thomas, Ashland, and C. B. Lamkin, Ashland, incumbent. Democratic aspirants are Attorney E. E. Phipps of this city and J. F. Wortman, Phoenix. Political observers at the court house figure there will be two more candidates and possibly three.

Jackson county Democracy showed a spurt of energy with three candidates filing for precinct committeeman. They are Fern Randles for the North Ashland precinct; Claude Miles for the Butte Falls district and C. W. Martin for the Gold Hill precinct. The filings give the local Democratic hosts a complete committee list for the county for the first time since Woodrow Wilson was president.

E. C. GADDIS FILES AS CANDIDATE FOR COUNTY JUDGESHIP

Pledged to a program of curtailment and strict economy in county business, E. C. Gaddis has filed as a candidate for the Republican nomination of county judge at the May primary.

Mr. Gaddis, a former mayor of Medford, has been identified with the business life of the city and county for 30 years, and enjoys a wide acquaintance. He has learned the general problems of the businessman, farmer and workingman, which combined with his knowledge of public affairs, makes him feel amply qualified for the position in charge of the administration of county business.

Although Mr. Gaddis has served the public in many capacities during the past 15 years, he has never held a salaried office. As chairman of the finance committee of the city council of Medford, 1917 to 1922, inclusive, he participated in reorganizing and strengthening city finances, and later, as mayor, helped reorganize the city fire department and further improve the city's financial standing. He was a member of the water commission from 1925 to 1931, and it was during the early part of this period that the Big Butte Springs water system for Medford was constructed.

Regarding his candidacy for county judge, Mr. Gaddis says: "I believe that my many years' experience in public work, together with my knowledge of county problems, qualifies me to be of considerable service in the readjustment that is necessary in our public affairs if conditions are again to reach normal. This is a job for an active, experienced man; requiring tireless effort and keen judgment, as well as the co-operation of every citizen of Jackson county. I will appreciate the support of every man and woman in the county that would like to see such a program carried out."

"My slogan: 'Strict economy in taxation and in county business.'"

HEAVY REGISTRY BEFORE PRIMARY

Registration books for the May primary close April 19, thirty days before the primary election, and will not be opened until after that date. Registration throughout the county is steady and will be the heaviest in several years.

Voters coming under the following must register to vote at the primary:

Any woman married or re-married since last registration. Any person who has failed to vote in the last two years. Any person who has become 21 years of age and never before registered. Persons who have moved to another voting precinct since last registration. Any person moving into the county since last registration. Any newly naturalized citizen and resident of the state of Oregon for six months. Any person who desires to change his or her political affiliations.

Postage proposals:

Legislative and administrative changes—$27,500,000.

Increase first class rates one cent except drop letters where no delivery service—$135,000,000.

In addition the committee proposed an increase of one per cent in the corporate income tax of corporations and their subsidiaries which desire to continue filing consolidated and affiliated returns.

This brings that rate to 14 per cent with the additional one per cent over the 13 per cent already approved, estimated to bring in $9,000,000.

The committee also proposed a 5 per cent levy on candy to bring in $12,000,000 and a 10 per cent levy on safety deposit boxes to bring in $1,000,000.

Applauded by Republicans and Democrats alike, Garner spoke in slow measured tones, unlike his former fiery addresses as minority leader.

With a husky voice and obvious emotion, he said:

"You have arrived at the conclusion you will have no sales tax, but I appeal to you for the sake of your party and your country to do your duty and restore some taxes to that bill by which this country's financial integrity may be maintained."

Then with a voice so husky it was difficult to hear in the galleries, he appealed:

"I don't care what taxes you impose. This comittee of yours is going to bring in a program gut if you don't like them, won't you have patriotism enough and the manhood enough to offer something else."

SOCIETY and Clubs

Luncheon at Parish Hall Lovely Affair

Reopening the social season with an extra splash of gaiety, the advisory board of the St. Ann's Altar society entertained at luncheon and cards yesterday afternoon in the parish house of the Sacred Heart Catholic hurech.

Spring blossoms decked the hall in which a false ceiling of yellow and lavendar streamers added much to the Easter color scheme. There were 25 tables arranged for luncheon and bridge, each with a small bouquet of spring blossoms adding more to the refreshing beauty of the scene.

Several piano selections were played during the luncheon hour by Miss Martha DeSouza, followed by music by the St. Mary's rhythm band, an exceptionally well trained group of children, led by the dapper young bandmaster, little Neil Mikasche, with Margaret Agnes ugan at the piano. Dressed in band suits of red, white and blue, the very young musicians were an especially fetching addition to the program. Their remarkable understanding of rhythm aroused much praise for the Sisters at St. Mary's academy, who have trained them.

Prize for high score in pivot bridge was won by Mrs. Cochran of Portland. Mrs. Josephine Clark won first at progressive, and Mrs. L. oyle took honors in 500.

The Altar society officers, the advisory board, with Mrs. DeSouza, chairman, were aponsors of the affair, assisted by the following table committee, Mesdames J. C. Murray, Ray Lewis, R. Baker, C. A. Hartley, R. Bigelow, Miss Anna Kelleher and Blanch Graves.

The party was voted one of the most successful in the history of the Altar society.

An invitation is extended to all persons interested in this subject.

Junior High P.-T. A. Meets Friday Afternoon

The Junior High Parent-Teacher association will meet Friday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock at the junior high school. The executive committee session will be followed by the study hour, which will be led by Mrs. C. B. Trowbridge. The study will continue with the subject of constructive criticism of children.

Church Group Has Social

Last evening the Loyal Workers' class of the First Christian church enjoyed a party in the recreational hall of the church. During the business meeting it was announced that group three, of which L. C. Gentner is leader, was winner of the membership contest conducted since January.

Floyd Collier's group one held second place. Members of group three will be honor guests at a dinner given by the losing five divisions. Amusing games were enjoyed the remainder of the evening, after which refreshments were served.

Under the leadership of Mrs. E. R. Cobb as teacher, and Mrs. Theo. Sims president, the class has enjoyed a steady growth with 162 in attendance Easter. The young people called on prospective members March 20 to increase the attendance.

the foreclosure of a mortgage against the Pacific Record-Herald company. The motion also requests the elimination of a "but" from one paragraph, and the word "which" from another.

Arguments on the motion for a new trial and the affidavits, which are highly conflicting, will be heard whenever counsel is ready, which will probably be at the conclusion of the Crescent City Investment company civil suit.

How to Escape FLU and Grippe

1 Avoid so far as possible the places where germs are most likely to be spread; over-crowded cars and public meeting places; overheated, stuffy rooms.

2 Be careful of close contact with others and beware of all coughers and sneezers; breathe through the nose, get fresh air, but avoid drafts or chilling.

3 Get lots of rest. Drink plenty of water. Keep the bowels open. Take extra precaution to keep in good physical condition, so your system will have normal resistance against germs.

4 Try, particularly, to avoid catching cold. Colds lower your resistance to disease germs. At the first sign of any cold, take Bayer Aspirin; remain indoors if possible until your cold is gone. And if you have a sore throat, dissolve some Bayer Aspirin tablets in water and gargle; this relieves the soreness, and it usually reduces the inflammation.

5 If you have any reason to suspect even a touch of flu, call your doctor at once.
