TRIBUNE KITCHEN CLASSES LARGEST IN CITY'S HISTORY

Three-Day Sessions Draw Thousands—Final Day's Program Devoted to European Dishes—Give Prizes

Voted as the outstanding cooking school ever conducted in Medford, the three-day Kitchen Chautauqua at the Holly theater, sponsored by The Mail Tribune, closed this afternoon, with a record attendance.

The instructions, which have been ably related by Miss Heath each day, were devoted to onion soup, gulyas of beef, string beans (Spanish), Russian salad, Dutch macaroni, afternoon tea (continental fashion), gingerbread with tutti frutti frosting and apricot-pineapple jam.

The count at yesterday's session showed 1148 women attended the lecture. During the afternoon, Miss Heath awarded prizes to the housewife who had been married the longest, the one who had been married the shortest time, and to the woman with the largest family, who did all of her own work.

Throughout the chautauqua The Mail Tribune has received excellent co-operation from the Medford business concerns and manufacturers and distributors of national products.

Several short news items, including "Graham McNamee's News" were shown on the Holly screen between 1:30 and 2 o'clock, through the courtesy of the Holly management.

Thrilling Picture Of Air Conflict At Craterian Theatre

"Sky Devils" the Howard Hughes production which is showing today and tomorrow at the Fox Craterian theater, is easily the most sensational of the year.

Here is a sure cure for the hard-times blues. No matter how depressed you might be, this slam-bang comedy of the air will lift you to soaring heights.

"Sky Devils" is the amusing and important tale of three daredevil American fliers, who violate every rule of war for a good time.

The "Sky Devils" are Spencer Tracy, William Boyd and George Cooper, and each gives an outstanding comedy characterization.

There is something awe-inspiring about a lifetime devotion—a love that burns in a steady flame through years of heartache as well as joy.

Ralph Bellamy comes very close to "stealing" the picture and Adolphe Menjou also gives a great performance.
