Banquet in Eugene Tonight for Dean Allen.

Invitations have been received by several former students of the University of Oregon in this city to the banquet to be held tonight at the Eugene Hotel in honor of Dean Eric W. Allen, dean of the school of journalism, who is finishing his 20th year with the University of Oregon and his 16th as dean of the School of Journalism.

Dean Allen has been granted a leave of absence for the balance of this school year in lieu of sabbatical leave. His birthday is April 4 and so in honor of the two occasions students have chosen this opportunity to express their love and appreciation of his great contribution to the school.

Invitations have been extended a few close friends and graduates of the school in all sections of the coast.

Miss Brannan to Speak Here On April 9.

Study clubs of the city and many other groups are anticipating the arrival here next week of Miss Eleanor Doddridge Brannan, who will speak at the Christian church April 9. As associate secretary of the National Council for Prevention of War, Miss Brannan brings a message of great interest to the thinking people. Her address will be open to the public and a large attendance is anticipated.

Her subject for the Medford meeting has not been announced. Those on which she speaks are: "The Challenge of the World Disarmament Conference"; "America at the Crossroads"; "How to Make the Kellogg Pact a Reality"; "Europe Today"; and the "New World Road Guide."

Miss Brannan is a descendant of Richard Dana, who in 1640 came to Cambridge, Mass., from England.

High School Misses Entertain Tonight.

Misses Evelyn Herman and Tess Merrill will be hostesses tonight at a bridge party at the M. M. Herman home, to which guests have been invited to make possible a three-table event.

Yellow daffodils will be used as predominant note in the scheme of decorations and the guest list will include the names of members of the high school set.

Mrs. Sexton Guest of Friends in Medford.

Mrs. Clara Miller Sexton of Portland, known to Medford folk this week as Hester Heath, instructor of The Mail Tribune kitchen chalet, is a guest while in this city of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Hayes, 59 Quince street, with whom she will spend the week-end. She is also being greeted by numerous other friends during her stay here.

Missionary Society To Lead Service.

The Woman's Home Missionary society will have charge of service at the Methodist Episcopal church, South, Sunday evening, April 3, at 8 o'clock.

Mr. LaDieu Honored At Surprise Party.

Miss Thelma Fox was hostess last evening at a surprise party given in compliment to Al LaDieu on the occasion of his birthday anniversary. A pleasant evening was spent at cards with prizes going to Mrs. Art LaDieu, Miss Dorothy Rogers, Moore Hamilton and Art LaDieu.

Following cards refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. LaDieu.

Roosevelt Daddies To Be Entertained.

Tonight will be Daddies' night at the Roosevelt school and the daddies will be required to participate in the program by taking the place of daughter and son in recitations and study period. Members of the home and school circle will be hostesses.

Degree of Honor Meets Saturday.

The Degree of Honor club will meet tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in the Degree of Honor hall over the Medford Pharmacy.

Guests of Kenly's Return South.

Corning Kenly, Jr. and Horace Bailey of Boston, Mass., who have been guests for the spring holiday of Mr. and Mrs. F. Corning Kenly, leave today by motor for Thatcher school at Ojai, where both are students.

Miss Ellen Hill of Ross, Cal., who was also a guest for the Easter season, left last night for her home. She is Mrs. Kenly's niece. Farwell Kenly, student at Menlo park, left last week to resume his studies after vacationing here.

John Wells Leaves Monday for School.

John Wells, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. S. Wells, who is vacationing here, will leave Monday for Tamaulipas to resume his school work.

Pan Hellenic Meets At Hotel Tomorrow.

The local chapter of Pan Hellenic will meet tomorrow at the Hotel Holland for luncheon and cards. Hostesses for the afternoon are Mrs. Frank Ditzler and Mrs. R. A. Hadley.

Messrs. Hillis Guests Of Mother Here.

Joseph Hillis, who has been visiting on the Atlantic coast and in Chicago, where he was employed at the Trovill theater for the past two years, is a guest here this week of his mother, Mrs. Eunice Hillis. Ulen Hillis is also a guest of his mother, having stopped here en route from the University of Washington to Los Angeles, where he will join the staff of the Los Angeles Times.

Dile Club Meeting Postponed for Month.

The meeting of the Dile club announced for tomorrow afternoon has been cancelled and no meetings of the club will be held during the month of April. The next gathering of the group will be held the first Saturday in May.

Miss Patton Invites Friends to Luncheon.

Miss Helen Patton is entertaining at luncheon tomorrow at the attractive home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Patton on Capitol Hill. She is inviting eight guests for the informal event and will use an abundance of spring blossoms as decorations.

Handsome Willys Autos On Display At Sabin-Rindt.

Sabin-Rindt Motors, Inc. have been selected as dealers in this territory for Willys-Overland and Willys-Knightcars. T. A. Piggott, factory representative of the Willys-Overland Pacific company, with offices in Los Angeles, Cal., has been in Medford for the past week to complete arrangements with O. E. Sabin and N. J. Rindt, who handle the popular De Vaux cars.

The first carload of these handsome, speedy automobiles is on display today at the Sabin-Rindt show rooms at 22 North Riverside avenue, where a general spring housecleaning and redecorating job has just been completed. The Willys-Overland company manufactures the lowest-priced six-cylinder car in the world, according to Mr. Rindt.

Since 1928 Sabin-Rindt Motors, Inc., have maintained the same staff of employees and have been in their present location most of that time. H. E. Conrad is shop foreman; A. M. Milan, mechanic, and L. R. Johnson, Mark Kline and Henry Dyrage, salesmen.
