Steel Tires in Talk on Park

While he was addressing the Grants Pass chamber of commerce luncheon yesterday noon in connection with the showing of the Crater Lake park snow scenes moving pictures, Will G. Steel, the "Father of Crater Lake," after having talked 20 minutes had to terminate his remarks suddenly thru sheer exhaustion. He regretted this very much as he had prepared an elaborate address.

Mr. Steel, who is 78 years old, has never fully recovered from his serious illness of three years ago, followed by one less serious in the winter of 1931 and is in far from robust health. Next week he is scheduled to address the Mazamas club in Portland which he helped organize 38 years ago, and now plans that that will be his last public speech.

Dead Indian Ranch Home Is Destroyed

Word was received in this city today, that the ranch house of W. R. Taylor in the Dead Indian district, was destroyed by fire last Thursday, from causes unknown. It was a total loss, partially covered by insurance. It was unoccupied during the winter. It is thought that some passing traveler spent the night in the house and left a fire burning. The misfortune was not discovered until Monday.

TALKATIVE BANDIT SHOT TO DEATH IN PORTLAND HOLDUP

PORTLAND, Ore., April 5.—(AP)—A tall, lanky unidentified robber, he was fatally wounded last night when he attempted to hold up the Baker Drug company store, one block from the Portland police station.

Ross McFarland, part owner of the store, fired four shots at the bandit, one of which entered the right side of his head. He died at a hospital at 2 a. m. today.

Entering the store in his usual cool manner, the robber asked for a package of cigarettes. When McFarland handed him the cigarettes, he passed over a 25-cent piece and then followed the drugist to the cash register where he pulled a nickel-plated revolver from his pocket.

"Hand it over," he snapped, covering McFarland with the gun.

McFarland opened the till, fumbled with the money and produced a $5 bill, which he handed to the robber.

"You're too slow," the latter growled, and started around the end of the counter.

As he reached the end of the showcase, McFarland drew his own gun, which he had concealed under his coat in a vest pocket, and began firing.

At the first shot the robber exclaimed: "Quit, you got me!" But McFarland continued to fire until the bandit fell in a heap to the floor.

START INTERIOR WORK ON NEW COURT HOUSE

Interior work and masonry on the new county court house is now under way. Plastering will start as soon as the partitions are installed and approved. All local plasterers will be given work. The work of installing granite in the front entrance is progressing. Inspector Harry Turner reports that several pieces of the Indiana limestone shipment contained flaws, which he rejected, and will be replaced.

Request of the masonry contractor to import another brick mason was denied by Inspector Turner, who reports that most of those employed are Jackson county men.

RENEWED SEARCH FOR BODIES OF EDWIN C. BROWN AND WIFE, DEAD INDIAN HOMESTEADERS WHO LOST THEIR LIVES IN A BLIZZARD LAST JANUARY WHILE ATTEMPTING TO REACH THEIR OWN CABIN, WILL BE DELAYED BY A NEW FALL OF SNOW THE PAST THREE DAYS. STORM CONDITIONS PREVAILED OVER THE AREA SATURDAY AND SUNDAY WITH UNSETTLED WEATHER TODAY. AS SOON AS THE WEATHER clears the hunt will be resumed.

It is figured that the Browns perished within a half-mile radius of their own cabin which they could not see in the gathering darkness and blinding snow.

Blondes Coming to Craterian Wednes.

Why blame it on the Greeks? For countless hundreds of years, the Greeks—probably because of their particular prominence in antiquity—probably because of their unexcelled civilization of centuries ago—were the considered arbiters of things generally.

In other words, the Greeks generally had a name for them. This is also true of the present, as witness that exceedingly clever picture coming to the Fox Craterian theater tomorrow and Thursday, titled "The Greeks Have a Name for Them," featuring the three "must-get-there-les."

The closing attraction at the Holly tonight is the delightful comedy, "Impatient Maiden," starring Lew Ayres.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., April 5.—(AP)—Politically aroused by an intensive campaign in which the major parties were split, Wisconsin voters balled today to choose delegates to the national Democratic and Republican conventions in Chicago. A heavy vote was forecast.

Democrats had the opportunity to endorse the candidacy of Governor Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York by voting for a slate of delegate candidates pledged to support him.

Republicans were offered a conservative delegation, who, although unimpressed, endorsed the administration of President Hoover at their state conference.

SENATOR BARKLEY ROOSEVELT FRIEND, NAMED KEYNOTER

CHICAGO, April 5.—(AP)—A supporter of Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt of New York—Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky—has been named to sound the keynote for the democrats when they meet here June 27 to select their presidential candidate.

Senator Barkley who but recently withdrew as a possible "favorite son" presidential candidate to support the Roosevelt campaign, was selected as the party's national convention temporary chairman yesterday by the democratic arrangements committee.

Jouett Shouse was recommended for the permanent chairmanship.

Shouse, who is chairman of the party's executive committee, was regarded as the candidate of the anti-Roosevelt faction for keynoter in making a recommendation for permanent chairman the committee women disagreed, precedent for it has not been the practice in the past for the committee to take such action.

When the said Misses Blondell, Claire and Evans start out to "trim" the party, they stay trimmed, brother they STAY trimmed!

Even if "The Greeks Had a Name for Them," the good old American slang would have picturesquely termed them beautiful "gyp artists"—and that means something in these cold, calculating days of frenzied finance and modernity.
