

Camera's Eye Catches Interesting Events and Personalities of Week

VENTURA CELEBRATES FOUNDING BY SPANIARDS

The 150th anniversary of the establishment of the Mission San Buenaventura by Father Junipero Serra will be celebrated in Ventura, Cal., April 3. At the top is a view of the mission as it looks today with (inset) an authentic picture of Father Serra taken from an old print made while he was at San Fernando college, Mexico. Lower: the mission as it appeared in the early eighties.

MRS. HOOVER ON SOUTHERN CRUISE

Mrs. Herbert Hoover (left) pictured on her arrival in Savannah, Ga., while on a cruise down the Atlantic coast aboard a government motorship. On her left are Mayor and Mrs. Thomas M. Hoynes and Gen. William L. Grayson, representative of Governor Russell of Georgia.

POLICE ROUTED BY 3,000 UNEMPLOYED MARCHERS

Four men were killed and about 30 wounded when some 3,000 unemployed marchers overpowered police at the city limits of Dearborn, Mich., and forced their way to the gates of the Ford Motor company's River Rouge plant. Police are shown here in retreat. They returned with reserves and finally dispersed the mob.

SUSPECT IN MAIL BOMBINGS SEIZED IN CHICAGO

Colombo Boeri, 47 (inset), was accused of complicity in the bomb-by-mail affairs of last December—in one of which three men were killed at Easton, Pa.—when he was arrested in his Chicago home and a large supply of explosives, weapons and anti-Fascist literature was found there. Murray Garson, special assistant secretary of labor (left), L. J. Alpine, immigration inspector, and George Yunker, Chicago patrolman, are shown examining evidence.

May Take Soviet Job

Robert P. Lamont, Jr., of Denver, son of the secretary of commerce, will go to Moscow to consider an offer to aid in developing the Soviet cattle industry. If he accepts the Soviet offer he will have complete charge of cattle breeding.

Gets Fascist Demand

Fighting broke out between Finland's government troops and a force of Finnish fascists after the latter sent a note to President Pehr Edvin Svinhufvud (above) demanding that the cabinet resign and a new one be chosen.

LINDBERGH DOLLS ATTRACT CROWDS IN ST. LOUIS

The famous Lindbergh collection, representing gifts from all over the world, has taken on added interest for St. Louisans since the kidnaping of the famous flier's son. Here are shown some of the many persons who daily inspect the collection of dolls in the museum of the Missouri Historical society.

TYPICAL RUSSIAN SOLDIERS

Soviet soldiers are being concentrated along the Manchurian border according to advices reaching Tokyo. Two army corps were in the immediate vicinity of Vladivostok, the reports said. Here is a typical company of Soviet infantrymen on the march.

MCCORMICK-SIMMS BRIDAL PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Albert G. Simms (right) after their wedding at the bride's home in Colorado Springs, Colo. The bride is the former Mrs. Ruth Hanna McCormick, former congresswoman from Illinois. Mr. Simms is a former congressman from Albuquerque, N. M. At the left are Judge Simms, brother of the groom, and Mrs. James Allshie.

Helen Wills' 'Double'

Edith Larsen (above) of the Salvation army in Honolulu is said to bear a marked resemblance to Helen Wills, the tennis queen.

Prefers Death

Mary Nolan, film actress, said she would commit suicide rather than serve a jail sentence in Los Angeles upon conviction of nonpayment of wages. Her husband, Wallace Macrery, was also sentenced on similar charges. They have appealed.

HACK AND HIS NEW BUDDIES

Hack Wilson in a new uniform and with a new bat is shown with business in the Brooklyn Dodgers' spring training camp at Clearwater, Fla.

HURLEY WALKS OUT ON COMMITTEE

Two members of the senate territories committee are shown here with Secretary of War Patrick J. Hurley, who indignantly strode from a committee meeting at which he was being questioned about Philippine independence, saying he would not "remain to be called a liar." The incident was later smoothed over. Senator Hawes (D., Mo.) is at the left, and Chairman Bingham (R., Conn.) at right.

FREED OF DEATH PLOT CHARGE

Mrs. Olga Ziegler is shown with her two children, Helen, 8, and Billie, 3, after her acquittal in Hackensack, N. J., on a charge of murder. The state demanded the death penalty charging that she plotted the slaying of her husband to collect insurance. George Fiamard, 21, had pleaded guilty to firing the fatal shots but denied that Mrs. Ziegler was implicated.

SEEK DEATH FOR KIDNAPERS

Sensators Warren Barbour (right) of New Jersey and Roscoe Patton (left) of Missouri are shown on the steps of the capitol in Washington as they discussed a bill by the latter to punish by death kidnapers operating across state lines. They are pressing the bill following the kidnaping of Charles A. Lindbergh, Jr.

Adolf Hitler

Adolf Hitler, leader of the national socialists in Germany.

Her Fiance Killed

Robert M. Short, an American pilot killed in China while flying a Chinese plane, was the fiance of Olive Belle Hanson (above), daughter of the late Jake Hanson, wealthy Oklahoma politician. Miss Hanson also is a pilot.