Medford Girl Scouts
Win Golden Eaglet Badges
Two Medford Girl Scouts, Madge Kunzman and Katherine Stearns, received the highest award in Girl Scouting at an impressive ceremony in the court room of the Jackson county courthouse here Saturday night. Each was presented with the Golden Eaglet badge.

The two girls have been identified with Girl Scout work here since its organization over four years ago. They are still members of troop one, their original group.

C. E. Gates, who has been for many years an active participant in character-building organizations of this city, presented the awards.

The golden eaglet ceremony followed the awarding of other badges to members of Medford troops. Two members of troop one color-guard escorted Mr. Gates to the platform. The troop colors were then advanced, while Miss Clita Golden, troop captain, escorted the golden eaglets forward and presented them to Mr. Gates, who addressed the girls on the subject of Girl Scout achievements and the responsibilities involved.

Attesting the fact that since these girls are the first golden eaglets of southern Oregon, their responsibility is much greater. The badges, small golden replicas of eagles, were pinned on, and the Girl Scout salute and handshake given. Mr. and Mrs. George Kunzman, parents of Madge Kunzman, were introduced, also Dr. R. W. Stearns, father of Miss Katherine.

The girls composing the color guard were Julie Schow, Leda O'Neal, Mildred Walker and Irene Stubbfield.

Two short plays were presented earlier in the evening, "Just a Few Flats" by troop seven of Roosevelt school, and "The Princess of Many Knobs" by troop four of Junior high school.

Following dinner, bridge was enjoyed with prizes for high scores going to Mrs. Meta Gilbert and Mrs. Emma Wilson. Mrs. Barnes was presented a bouquet of double daffodils and snapdragons, guest prize. Other honor guests of the evening were Mrs. Nellie McGowan, past grand matron of the state of Oregon, and Mrs. Emma Wilson, mother of the worthy matron, Mrs. Barnes.

PRESSURE-COOKING MAKES NEW SHREDDED BISCUIT TASTIER

Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit Great Improvement

One of the first things to be noticed about the new, improved Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit is the unusually delightful flavor and crispness. The Kellogg Company uses a special process of "pressure-cooking." This bakes in the rich flavor. Every shred is thoroughly cooked and therefore easier to digest.

The biscuits are then toasted a light golden brown on both top and bottom—not just one side. This makes them much crisper and crunchier.

Economy has not been overlooked either. Instead of the usual dozen, you get 15 biscuits to the package. Incidentally, the biscuits are a new, convenient size—two just fit the cereal bowl.

There is also news in the fact that the Kellogg biscuit is so rich in food value that the Medical Arts Laboratory of Philadelphia certifies every package. Mothers are welcome to this improved and healthful cereal. They find it equally delightful for breakfast, lunch, or children's suppers—serving it with hot or cold milk or cream, and sometimes adding fruits or honey.

Local grocers have this new shredded biscuit. It may be identified by the familiar red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

CRIMINAL INSANE STILL AT LARGE

SALEM, April 12.—(AP)—Trails to the whereabouts of Thomas Larsen and Andrew Swelger, criminally insane men who escaped Sunday night from the state hospital, apparently grew warmer during the night. State police and local officials were aided since late yesterday by two clues, and the search was concentrated on roads leading north from the Marion county line.

Clothing identified to be that belonging to the fugitives, was found in a box car near Brooks. It could not be ascertained where the people nor the government of El Salvador would celebrate Pan-American day, April 12, because of dissatisfaction over the refusal of the United States to recognize the Martinez government there.

BOY AIDS FRIEND WITH CASH FROM CHECK HE FORGED

A forged check, signed out to Donald Miniken and made with the name of Floyd S. Baker, was turned over to city police officers yesterday, when the check was returned to Rankin Estes who had cashed it Saturday. Baker had no account in the bank where the check was drawn. It was disclosed. Information received from the checking station, said that Miniken, with two companions in a car he had rented from a Medford garage, stopped at the station Saturday night, and the car was taken from them. As the checks had not gone through the clearing house, local officials did not know of his activities until Monday, and the youths were released by the checking station officers.

Estes reported to officers that Miniken said he had worked for several days, and planned to give $2 of his money to an old friend of his who worked on Estes' ranch. The boy was given $4 by Estes, who Sunday took the other $2 to the man in the country.

Miniken purchased a load of wood Saturday from the Medford Fuel company and passed a check for $12, according to officers. Be correctly corrected by ETHELWYN B. HOFFMANN Sixth and Holly Streets
