Steel in Portland — Next to his family, there is nothing so near the heart of Will G. Steel as Crater lake. Mr. Steel, who learned to love the lake years ago, believes there is no water quite so blue, no cliffs quite so impressive, no sunrises quite so beautiful, no atmospheric effects quite so wonderful as at Crater lake. Even while he served as secretary of the Eugene chamber of commerce he couldn't refrain from boosting Crater lake, although Lane county has quite a number of scenic spots within her own borders and the Medford Chamber of Commerce could be relied upon to do its bit by Crater lake. Mr. Steel is at the Imperial from Medford — The Oregonian.

REED AFFIDAVITS ARE COUNTERED IN NEW ALLEGATIONS

Counter-affidavits, alleging that those filed in behalf of Albert W. Reed, Salem prison life term, in his plea for a new trial, were actuated by malice and animus against Roy Layman, Ashland policeman, and chief identifying witness for the state in the murder trial, were in course of preparation today by the district attorney's office. The counter-affidavits are sworn to by citizens of Ashland and county and state officers. Some of the affidavits, District Attorney George Codding said, would charge that some of the defense affidavit-makers entertained bitterness against the slain officer, Victor Knott. Other affidavits are expected to refute the new evidence advanced by the state. The state will resist the motion for a new trial, and arguments will be made on the legal phases of the new trial motion. Reed was convicted of complicity in the slaying of Victor Knott last November, and was sentenced to life imprisonment which he started serving March 5.

Coming to Craterian Friday

(By Jack Retlaw) Is it necessary for girls to have a "past" in order to interest admirers? That question is most neatly answered by beautiful Constance Bennett in her newest screen sensation "Lady With a Past," which is coming to the Fox Craterian theater tomorrow and Saturday. Ably assisted by Ben Lyon, David Manner and many others of note, Miss Bennett enacts a role that is tremendously brilliant. Practically everyone agrees that but few stars of the screen today can wear gowns like Connie. In "Lady With a Past," she displays many extremely gorgeous frocks and what-not. A clever additional attraction on this program is the Boy Friends comedy "The Knockout," and it's a dandy.

Vic Meyers Band On Holly Stage Tomorrow Night

There will be much merriment at the Holly Theatre tomorrow evening at 8.15 when Vic Meyers and his famous Columbia Recording orchestra will be presented on the stage. Vic Meyers became a nationally known figure a short while ago when he ran as Seattle's personality candidate for mayor. Meyers' campaign was front page news for many weeks. Meyers asserted that if elected, Seattle would undergo such rigid economy that the city of Edinburgh, Scotland, would send over a committee to investigate his methods. Belter kissing and more graft was his motto. It is said that during the campaign he wore no vest so that he could not be accused of favoring vested interests and suggested that the way to solve the liquor problem is to prevent sipping of Sweet Adeline after 11 p. m. without permission of the copyright owners. He did think, however, that a small saloon might be made to pay in Seattle. Had he been elected, Meyers would have insisted that the police department consist of more bassos and fewer tenors and would have placed a spring board on the Aurora bridge for the benefit of suicides. Patrons of the Holly will be given a real treat when this famous orchestra leader and his equally famous band appear on the Holly stage.

VOTER MAY REGISTER DURING NOON HOUR

Until April 19th, the county clerk's office will be kept open during the noon hour, to register voters whose working hours prevent them from so doing during the day. This will be an accommodation for office help, clerks, and all others. Registration continued brisk today, with an increase in this city and Ashland.
