

FLIEGEL NAMES NEW HELPERS FOR COMING YEAR IN ELKS CLUB

Numerous committee appointments were made last night at the meeting of the Elks lodge by the newly installed exalted ruler, Joe Fliegel. They are: Finance committee, Roy Pruitt, Don Newbury and Clarence Fry; house committee, W. A. Gates, O. O. Alexander and Joe Fliegel.

On the sick and relief committee were appointed members to carry on the work in the following districts: Medford, Nick Young, N. S. Bennett, O. M. Selaby; Phoenix, Andrew Horn; Applegate, Miles Cantrell; Jacksonville, F. L. Touvalle; Prospect, Dewey Hill; Eagle Point, Royal Brown; Gold Hill, Johnny Reed; Central Point, B. L. Sanderson.

Lewis Ulrich, Larry Schade and B. B. Hammond compose the committee on social and community welfare. Elmer Hull, Ben Miller and Cole Holmes the Elk picnic ground committee and C. C. Lemmon, Gus Newbury and T. E. Daniels, attendance committee.

The legislation committee is composed of Carl V. Tengwald, Dick Crowson, J. R. Bierma, Owey Patton and W. A. Pradier and the Medford Elk committee of E. C. Ferguson, A. J. Klockner, Ernest Bostel and Pradier.

Members of all other committees will retain their positions until relieved.

FARMER ALLEGES DAMAGE BY DITCH

Claiming $906 damage to his hay crop and road, the past six years by seepage water from a ditch of the Medford Irrigation District and the Rogue River Valley Irrigation district E. E. Tucker, a farmer, this afternoon filed suit in circuit court to recover. Tucker alleges in his complaint that for six years he has tried to raise hay on a tract traversed by the ditch, and each year it is drowned out. Upon this count $736 is sought. Tucker further alleges that the seepage water makes his private road near impassable, to the extent of $25 per annum and asks $150 on this count.

YOUTHFUL SLAYER SUSPECT NABBED

BAKER, Ore., April 15.—(AP)—Accused by police as the slayer of a woman who had taken him into her home Clarence Woolery, 14 years old, was held in jail here today for the killing of Mrs. Frank Garlock. Mrs. Garlock was shot to death Wednesday night while eating supper on her ranch home. Her husband was in Baker.

Jack Linville, city police officer, captured young Woolery last night. The youth had eluded state and county officers who had searched the Auburn district 20 miles southwest of here where the shooting occurred.

When Linville came upon him Woolery raised his rifle as if to fire, the officer said, but surrendered when he discovered the policeman was ready to fire.

French, American Difference Ironed

PARIS, France, April 15.—(AP)—Definite progress toward the elimination of the differences between the French and American views on disarmament was reported tonight after an important conference between Secretary of State Stimson and Premier Tardieu at the foreign office.

LESS WORK BETTER RESULTS

... because C and H MENU Sugar dissolves quickly, creams easily

Try C and H MENU Sugar the next time you make a cake or an icing, a meringue or a pudding. You'll be amazed, like thousands of others, by this marvelous all-purpose granulated. It's so wonderfully sweet, so perfectly white, so unusually fine! Just notice how quickly it dissolves, how easily it creams into smooth, velvety richness. You'll understand, at once, why experts have called C and H MENU an ideal sugar for cooking.

Remember, you can't be sure of getting this sweet, pure cane sugar unless you insist on the handy non-sifting carton or the white cloth bag labeled C and H MENU. Accept no other container and you'll always be protected against inferior quality.
