

MAJOR PITCHERS DEMONSTRATING EARLY MASTERY

Records Show 13 Games Where Opposition Allowed Not More Than Five Hits—Babe Ruth Has Flu

By Herbert W. Barker, (Associated Press Sports Writer.)

Not since the days before the lively ball have major league pitchers demonstrated such striking early-season mastery.

The season is barely a week old, yet they have written into the records 13 games in which the opposition made not more than five hits.

Dazy Vance of Brooklyn and Hal Schumacher of the Giants have contributed two-hit masterpieces. Vic Sorrell and Earl Whitehill of Detroit and St. Johnson of Cincinnati have pitched three-hit games. Monte Weaver of Washington and Whitlow Wyatt of Detroit have four-hit contests to their credit. The five-hit hurlers include Pat Caraway of the Chicago White Sox, and Dick Coffman and Sammy Gray of the St. Louis Browns; Ed Brandt of the Boston Braves; Ed Holley of the Phillies and Guy Bush of the Chicago Cubs.

Giants Blank Hires.

Schumacher, young St. Lawrence university graduate, pulled the Giants out of a slump with his excellent effort yesterday and enabled them to beat the Braves, 8-0. Johnny Verge's home-run with the bases filled was the big blow in the Giant attack. Urbanski got both of the hits Schumacher allowed.

Holley's five-hit game gave the Phillies a 2-0 triumph over Brooklyn in 11 innings.

Bush stopped the world champion St. Louis Cardinals cold and the Cubs won, 4-1, with Riggs Stephenson driving in three runs. Pittsburgh scored three runs in the ninth to beat Cincinnati, 4-3, in the other National league game.

St. Louis Trims Tigers.

In the American league, St. Louis nosed out the Detroit Tigers, 1-0, although Vic Sorrell allowed only three hits.

George Karnshaw fanned 12 men as the Philadelphia Athletics trounced Washington, 11 to 3. The A's drove Fred Marberry out of the box in the fourth inning. Jimmy Fox hit his third homer.

Cleveland stopped the Chicago White Sox, 6-1, on a six-hit pitching performance by old George Conally, a White Sox castoff. Willie Kamm, another White Sox star, collected three hits, was walked twice, drove in four runs and scored another.

Cold weather forced postponement of the New York Yankees-Red Sox game at Boston. Ruth came down with grippe. The Babe did not expect to travel with the team for an exhibition game at Springfield today, but probably will start in the double-header tomorrow.

Series Edge Goes to Senators—Indians Take Double Header From Oaks—Seals Bow to Reds

(By the Associated Press.)

Seattle's Indians profited most from the Sunday double headers on the Pacific Coast baseball league diamonds. Trimming the Oaks twice, they moved up from seventh to fifth place in the league ladder. The Missions and Angels improved their percentages in games won, though they divided honors respectively with the Seals and Hollywood Stars.

Seattle stepped on Oakland in the morning game 7 to 2, and then blanked the Oaks 4 to 0 in the afternoon to take the series. Phil Page pitched a one-hit game for the tribe in the second contest.

Sacramento and Portland divided the day's games, with the series honors going to the Senators. The morning game, played in Stockton, was 6 to 3 for Sacramento, but Portland took the afternoon contest in the capital 10 to 8, Jimmy Moore settling matters with a homer with two on.

Hollywood and Los Angeles added a game apiece both to their winning and losing totals for the season, with the Stars grabbing the first game 5 to 4 after 11 innings, and yielding the second 5 to 2.

The league leading Seals gave the Missions their only win of the series in the second game of the double header played here. The morning contest went to the Seals 7 to 4, though the Missions pounded Caster and Wolf for 13 hits. The afternoon score was 5 to 3, with Art Lieber, Mission hurler, holding the Seals well subdued.

BUTTER AND EGGS STEADY AS WEEK'S TRADE OPENED UP

MARKET FOR BUTTER REFLECTS PRACTICALLY A STEADY TONE, INASMUCH AS OPEN TRADING A CONCERNED. LAST WEEK SHOWED A DECREASE IN THE COUNTRY SHIPMENTS TO PORTLAND, BUT THE LOCAL MAKE INCREASE. BOTH ARE SOMEWHAT BELOW A YEAR AGO.

There was again no general change in the egg market price list here or generally throughout the country. Local co-ops continue to quote former values and are maintaining them, although some outsiders are still reported as cutting.

Low price on small broilers is having some effect upon the demand for hens generally and especially for light weights. Practically all bidders are now quoting 9c for light hens with 11c for mediums.

Market for country killed calves continues to reflect more or less steadiness and even strength in spots. Hogs are just holding their own, but there is a steady call for both old and new crop lambs.

Notes of wholesale trading: Pea market firmer in the south. Potatoes are steady for both old and new crop.

Rhubarb demand is steady and mostly 2 1/2c for top quality. Cabbage market remains very firm with quality stuff scarce.

Be Conservative But Don't Hoard

NO ONE can be blamed, at any time, for taking the safe and conservative course in handling his possessions, whether they be great or small. That is the sensible course to follow.

Some people, however, have carried conservatism to extremes, by withdrawing their deposits from safe banks, or converting sound, income-paying securities into cash, and putting the money away in strong boxes or hiding it in places of supposed safe-keeping. Now, however, thoughtful citizens are seeing the folly of such practices.

Hoarding is not thrift. Money withdrawn from useful purposes and hidden under a mattress or buried in the back yard does no one any good... not even the owner. Hoarding is anti-social. If everyone hoarded, the thing hoarded would be worthless.

Money invested in sound, productive enterprises does good. It keeps people employed, keeps the channels of trade open and active, and earns for its owner a steady cash return.

The 6,500 preferred shareholders of The California Oregon Power Company are people who have put their money to work in a useful enterprise, instead of hoarding it. These shareholders have helped to build the power plants, transmission lines and distribution systems that supply electricity to 60 cities and towns in the Northwest. They receive cash dividends regularly every three months. The Company recently paid its 43rd consecutive quarterly dividend... an eleven-year record of consistent returns to investors.
