MARSHPIELD, Ore, April 20.—OPPlans for a nation-wide system of parole designed to restore thousands of young first offenders to useful citizenship, were announced here last night by Circuit Judge James T. Brand and were overs helmingly approved by the Coos Bay American Legion posts in the state.

Judge Brand outlined a plan wherehy the American Legion and auxiliary and the American Legion and auxiliary part to the court only once a month, with little actual contact, jurists are reductant to allow law violators any kind of parole. Judge Brand pointed outless themselves to act as "big mothers" and "big sisters," the paroled first offenders not only would be allowed more freedom to seek employment, but would be under closer surveillance at all times.

City Plans to Maintain Plot Where Diamond Course Located - Carnival Fee Cut Opposed by Council

In accordance with a polition largely signed by residents in the Jackson East Third and North Riverside territory, which was presented to the city council last night, the former ministure golf course established by Fay Diamond in the triangular piece of ground immediately in the rear of the armory property, in the rear of the armory property, and which has been given up and returned to the armory, will probably be maintained by the city as a small city park and beauty spot. After hearing the petition read the council referred the petition read the committee on parks and playgrounds for investigation and recommendation. The city officials, offhand, seemed agreed that the idea was a rood one especially as the cost of able expense in improving and beau-tifying the premises with valuable shrubs and flowers. The National Guard, which controls the armory, is agreeable, according to Capt, C. Y.

Carnival Fee Stands

The council went on record last night as opposing the request of a carnival company attraction which plans to show in Medford early in May, that it be allowed to exhibit at $25 a day fee instead of $100 a day as provided for in the city ordinance regarding licenising carnivals. C. C. Darby, chairman of the council license committee, had asked the council to take action on the matter, stating that his committee, after deliberating over the request, was decidedly opposed to granting any reduction in the license fee.

Victor Dallaire and Richard Apple-gate, well known here where they attended school, left for the south improvement. The company's repre-sentative will arrive here some time during May to further take up this

A inrely signed petition for elec-tric lights to be placed in the block on Haven street between Summit and Columbus avenue was reported to the committee on buildings and lights.

Many Dogs Picked Up Chief of Police McCredie reported that he had visited the dog pound department of the Humane society Tuesday and learned there that the society is enforcing the city ordinance prohibiting dogs from running at large during the months of April, May and June, had been picking up an average of four dogs daily—nearly an average of four dogs daily-nearly all "alley burns," and that the soclety is prepared to vigorously enforce the ordinance. Action was taken on several indi-vidual property settlement matters due to delinquent city takes, and on some other matters of minor import-
