

BUTTER OUTPUT SHRINKAGE PUTS CUBE TONE HIGH

PORTLAND, Ore., April 22.—(AP)—With the local market slightly decreased during the last few days and with a like condition reflected at country points offerings of cube butter appear smaller in general.

With this comes a rather good demand which has enabled the trade to keep cleaned up from day to day.

There was no change generally announced in the price of either prints or cubes for the day.

Butterfat also remains practically stationary.

Demand for heavy hens continues favorable in the local trade with prices held intact. Market remains active for light and medium weights but at the low prices recently quoted.

A few really worth while turkeys are arriving. Most of these consist of hens which are being sold to retailers around an extreme of 19 and 20 cents a pound. Most of the toms are around 14 cents a pound.

Market for onions continues to reflect a very firm tone for both old and new crop.

Asparagus reflects strength for offerings but an increase in the supply is again noted.

Generally better quality is noted in late arrivals of strawberries from California. Florin-Sacramento 20s are quoted $2.50 as are the better grade Fresno. The Los Angeles season is definitely closed here.

FRANCE PUTS BAN ON YANKEE PRUNE

PARIS, April 22.—(AP)—An increase of 100 per cent in the tariff on prunes, such as representatives of the American chamber of commerce warned would make importation of American prunes into France practically impossible, was incorporated into the French tariff law today.

The rate was increased from 80 to 160 francs per 100 kilograms on one category and from 60 to 120 francs on another.

Ninety-six per cent of all the prunes imported by France came from the United States heretofore.

took part in the bombing investigation that brought the pair to trial, expressed satisfaction at the decision. "Mooney has repeatedly failed to show that he was unjustly convicted," the police officer said.

Other comment:

Franklin A. Griffin, presiding judge at Mooney's trial: "My opinion in the Mooney case is, I believe, well known. It is unchanged." "He has in the past sought to have the judgment set aside."

Charles M. Fickert, district attorney who prosecuted the case and now attorney for the state board of medical examiners: "Under the circumstances, Governor Rolph could have done nothing else."

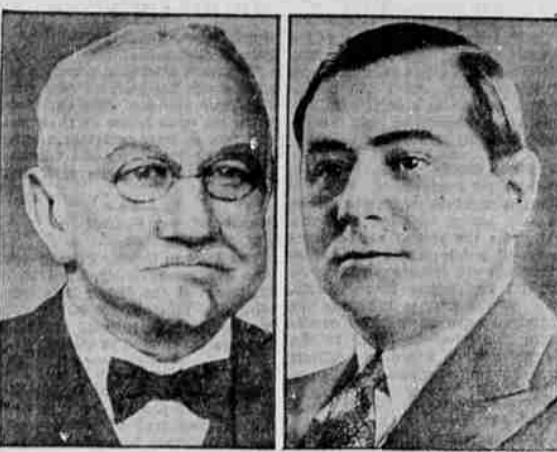

Duncan Matheson, captain of detectives at the time of the bombing and now San Francisco city treasurer: "I am disappointed at the decision."

Edward A. Cunha, assistant prosecuting attorney at the trial: "No one of any average intelligence could even suggest a pardon for Mooney."

PORTLAND WILL VOTE ON HUGE RELIEF FUND

PORTLAND, April 22.—(AP)—A $400,000 bond issue to finance the care of Portland's needy will be submitted to the voters of the city at the May 20 primary election. This was decided by the city council Thursday. Business men told the council that the city welfare bureau will have to close its doors and turn away 5000 families dependent upon it for food and fuel if funds are not provided.

FIGHT FOR HOUSE SEAT SETTLED

Sound "Public Ownership" The public utilities of the United States present an investment of more than $28,000,000,000. Of this, electric light and power companies account for $12,000,000,000 with the telephone and telegraph, street railways and gas companies standing at about $5,000,000,000 each. Such a sum, which is almost beyond the power of the human imagination to encompass, can be, and has been, raised in this country through the combined investments, large and small, of millions of American citizens who have bought utility securities, believing them to be safe, sound and profitable.

These Americans, found in all businesses, in all walks of life, are the "power trust." A very few of them, it is safe to say, are capitalists in the accepted sense of the term. Most of them undoubtedly have modest incomes, many of them are laborers.

They are the owners of the American electric industry, one of our greatest and most substantial employers and taxpayers.—Industrial Review, San Francisco.
