

Camera's Eye Catches Interesting Events and Personalities of Week

MAKING NEW FLAG FOR MANCHURIA

This scene in a Tokyo flagmaker's shop shows two workmen holding samples of the banner adopted as the national emblem of the new "state" of Manchuria. The body of the flag is yellow, and stripes in its upper left hand corner are, from top to bottom, red, blue, white and black.

THREE CHICAGO POLICE SHOT IN COMMUNIST RIOT

Police clubbed leaders of a communistic demonstration in front of offices of the Japanese consulate in Chicago after three patrolmen were shot and wounded by members of the crowd. This picture shows police quelling the outbreak, using clubs on some of the more militant demonstrators.

BRIAN BELL GREETS FRIEND JOHN

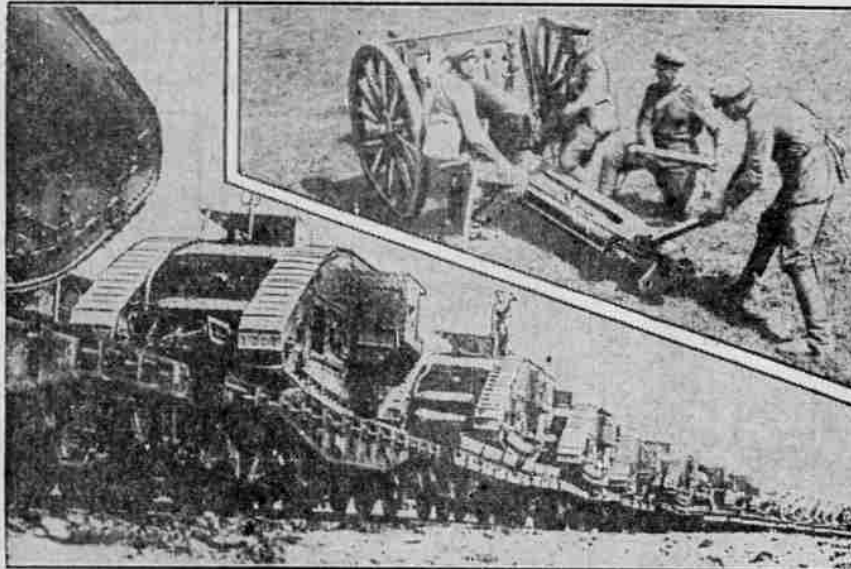

"How about it, John, where are the Giants going to wind up this season?" Brian Bell (left), Associated Press staff writer, was on hand when spring training opened to interview his old friend, John McGraw, at Los Angeles. The white-thatched manager of the New York Giants predicted a better club than last year. "We'll be pretty well fortified in all positions, providing Hughie Critz's arm is all right," McGraw said.

Satin And Sable

Tallulah Bankhead, film actress, wears a novel combination of ivory satin and sable for a formal spring ensemble. The gown and wrap of brocaded satin are draped into the new flowing lines.

SOVIET STRENGTHENS MANCHURIAN BORDER

Reports reaching Tokyo from Vladivostok say Soviet Russia, alarmed by the situation in northern Manchuria, is concentrating troops and military supplies along the Manchurian border. One hundred thousand Russian soldiers were said to be in the Soviet maritime provinces. Above is a typical Soviet field gun crew in action and below a train of army tanks.

Popular Freshman

Students at James Millikin college at Decatur, Ill., passed up the upper classmen when they selected the most popular co-ed on the campus. Pauline Reqrath (above), a freshman, was their choice.

Virginia Beauties

Here is the 1932 May queen of Sweetbriar college in Virginia photographed with her attendants. They are, reading up: Virginia Hall of Cedar town, Ga., the queen; Edith Bailey, Versailles, Ky.; Virginia Bellamy, Wilmington, N. C.; and Jane White, Mexico, Mo.

Roosevelt Backer

James A. Farley, chairman of the New York state boxing commission, is director of Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt's campaign for the democratic presidential nomination.

Rule Court And Tank

Two aces of sport met when Ellsworth Vines (right), 20-year-old national tennis champion, played at Seattle, Wash., home town of Heine Madison (left), 18, owner of almost all women's swimming records.

Secretary Of Navy

Recent portrait of Charles Francis Adams, secretary of the navy.

New Akron Commander

Alger H. Dresel (above), former commanding officer of the dirigible Los Angeles, has been assigned to command the huge Akron. He will relieve Lieutenant Commander Charles E. Rosendahl who is slated for promotion.

Taft Kin Mat Star

Henry Taft Snowden of Yale, nephew of the late William Howard Taft, won the wrestling championship in the unlimited division at the eastern intercollegiate matches at Syracuse.

Prize Coiffure

Edna Robertson won first prize for the best coiffure exhibited at a hair-dressers' convention in Detroit.

In Long 'Chute Float

Lieut. Walter K. Burgess of the army air corps at Chanute field, Rantoul, Ill., leaped from a plane at 23,000 feet and floated more than 27 miles in 33 minutes, with the aid of a fast wind, to set what was called a new drift record for army parachute jumpers.

"WHEN TO BE DEBONAIR"

Mayor James J. Walker of New York city doesn't appear exactly at home on these skis at Lake Placid, N. Y., where he attended the winter Olympics, but at least he isn't letting his situation embarrass him.

Taxi Dance Romance

The wedding of Romaine Fleming, 20, hostess in a Broadway dime-a-dance hall, to Allan P. Carlisle, Harvard student and son of a wealthy New York broker, has just been revealed. Her home is in Greensburg, Pa.

HOOVERS AT COUSIN'S FUNERAL

The President and Mrs. Hoover photographed after attending funeral services in the little Quaker church in Washington for the chief executive's second cousin, George C. Hoover, former attorney of the interstate commerce commission. Burial will be at West Branch Iowa, his birthplace.

In Poison Case

Mrs. Arnold Kegel (above), estranged wife of Chicago's former city health commissioner (below), was indicted on charges of poisoning Mrs. Mary Ryan, a witness in a divorce suit in which Dr. Kegel charged his wife tried to poison him.