Lowly Bean Eaters Larrup Grove for 10 to 2 Win—Support Cracks in Sixth—Yanks in Second Place

By GAYLE TALBOT.
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Boston in six of their last seven starts, the Philadelphia Athletics smarted today from the "unkindest" blow of all.

The Boston Red Sox, who in recent years have been just a warm-up for the American League champions, put on the finishing touches yesterday when they larruped Lefty Grove, 10 to 2, and sent the Mackmen into sixth place.

Such a thing is almost unprecedented since the Athletics started hitting the big spofs three years ago. They trimmed the Sox 15 times last season in 20 engagements, Grove doing the honors three times, twice by the shutout route.

Crack in Sixth.

For five innings the glamorous Grove looked like his old self, allowing not a hit, but in the last four frames the Boston boys rattled the Shibe park fences with 10 solid blows, including a homerun by Earl Webb, and won, going away, behind the steady five-hit pitching of young Ed Durham.

But if the big southpaw was ineffective, his support was far from sufficient. Joe Boley, shoved back into his old job at shortstop committed two errors. Dribble Williams, the steady one of the last world series touched off a six-run rally in the sixth when he juggled a roller.

Eddie Rommel hurled the last two innings for the Macks, allowing four runs.

Yankee Move Up.

While the A's were suffering, the New York Yankees were busy moving into second place in the league standing with a 6 to 5 victory over the Washington Senators, the first meeting of the year between these rivals.

The Senators made an uphill battle to tie the count in the eighth after the Yanks had scored five runs off Alvin Crowder in the first two innings, but it was to no avail. Only two games escaped another day of rain and cold.

PORTLAND TAKES OPENING BATTLE FROM STARS, 4-3

(By the Associated Press.)
Results of Pacific Coast League baseball games yesterday, in the opening clashes of this week's series, were: Hollywood 3, Portland 4. Missions 14, Seattle 3. Oakland-Los Angeles postponed—rain. Sacramento 1, San Francisco 2. Fewer but more potent hits, including Higgins' homer, gave Portland a win by a nose over Hollywood.

The Missions yielded wicked bludgeons to slaughter Seattle, turning 16 hits into 14 runs, with the aid of 12 walks and two Indian errors. Walsh homed to give Seattle a bit of consolation.

Sacramento outdid the Seals 9 to 4, but got only one run and lost, in spite of two errors by the home team. Wera's single in the ninth, scoring Cava, who had walked, won the game.

Today's schedule calls for afternoon games with Hollywood at Portland and Missions at Seattle, and night games with Sacramento at San Francisco and Oakland at Los Angeles.

MAX BAER STOPS POLISH BATTLER SEVENTH FRAME

LOS ANGELES, Cal., April 27.—Max Baer stopped blonde Paul Swiderski here last night in the seventh round to the disappointment of most of the 7,000 persons who wended their way to the Olympic auditorium in hopes of seeing the Livermore, Cal., playboy's tall form sent prostrate to the canvas.

It was a much different picture, painted in the claret of the Syracuse, N. Y., Pole, for Swiderski was lashed with Baer's long, stinging blows for three nine-counts before Referee Abe Roth stepped in and halted the proceedings with the seventh round one minute 20 seconds old.

Swiderski started out well enough, keeping up a fairly even pace with the bronzed, beaming California, through the slow moving first four rounds.

Max caught his opponent on the chin with a rugged right early in the fifth and then dropped Swiderski with a left hook a few seconds later as the easterner attempted to move in and clinch. Max floored him with a telling right to the head shortly after the seventh opened.

Swiderski got up uncertainly at nine and Baer moved in, swinging. Then Roth stopped the bout.

Baer held a 10-pound edge, entering the ring at 205 pounds.

Capturing the members of the audience on their first peep through the curtains, which opened to reveal a studio, a maid, a man and the voice of a babe—the three-act farce, presented last night at St. Mark's Guild hall under direction of Tom Swem, held the large gathering under the intoxication of good, old sparkling mirth, through the grand finale, when Mrs. James Stevens (Aunt Maria) exclaimed, "Bless His Little Heart," title of the rollicking comedy, to be presented under auspices of the Altar Guild again tonight.

Each member of the cast added a necessary something to the spontaneous flashes of laugh-provoking wit, which sprung from the mouths of Mrs. Stevens and her son captain sweetheart, Caleb Clayton, none other than Medford's old favorite of amateur theatricals—Fletcher Fish.

Although aged by a very realistic goatee, graying locks and a full-grown nephew, the two appeared the perfect lovers, slaves to an unsurmountable streak of jealousy.

The babe's mother, Muriel, also a successful interior decorator, was pleasantly feminine and sufficiently business-like, as portrayed by Elbow Mae Wilson, local soloist, who surprised the Medford audience with her handling of the theatrical role Jack Danbury, the husband and father of the babe, at infrequent intervals, was quite the dapper young bond salesman in the person of Frank Vanddyke, who also showed the local audience that in the new blood, there is also talent.

Harold Gebauer, the junior member of the cast, heaped additional proof upon this contention, in the role of Billy Melrose, whose demands for a Roman senator were only surmounted by his needs for a wife to satisfy the extra allowance granted by his loving Aunt Maria.

Mrs. Harold Pearson, as the charming and irresistible actress, Betty Smith, lived up to the fine reputation, which preceded her arrival in Medford from the Community theater of Santa Barbara where she participated in numerous theatrical affairs.

The stage settings and direction of the farce brought much praise to Tom Swem from the capacity crowd. Costumes from Ethelwyn B. Hoffman's were also the subject of approving chatter.

Between acts music from the Victor combination, donated by Palmer's Music House was enjoyed.

The committee on arrangements, which also added greatly to the success of the evening, was composed of Mrs. Porter J. Neff and Mrs. Royal E. Bebb.

SPRING PROGRAM AT ST. MARY'S GIVEN BY PUPILS

In the regal robes of a queen in spring, Miss Jeanne Hancock was crowned festival ruler of the St. Mary's academy annual spring fete in the school auditorium last evening, amidst lovely blossoms, and attendants in spring attire.

The imperial honor was bestowed upon Miss Hancock by Miss Marie Brown. Little Donna Moulton acted as crown bearer, Virginia Hayes and Marie Logan, flower girls; Leo Mikache and Robert Baker, pages; Frederick Bay and Dale Vincent, train bearers; Mary Dallaire and Genevieve Devaney, attendants.

The coronation was the climax of an interesting program presented by students of the academy, including two plays and several musical selections. Carnival spirit prevailed following the fete, and the large crowd enjoyed the attractions and games prepared by the group.

In "The Step-sisters," a three-act play, the pupils showed excellent acting ability, and received much applause from the audience. The cast included Mrs. Temple, Edna Burghardt; Mable, Madelyn Schinde; Eva, Jones Jensen; Miss Reid, Geraldine Wilkinson; Betty, Mary Elizabeth Reddy; Nora, Josephine Hunter; Mary Ann, Helen Cooley; Fred, McDonald Devaney; Edith, Verna Leifer; Gertrude, Betty Grace Robbins; Fanny, Anna Widmer; Alice, Mildred Duggan.

St. Mary's rhythm band, which has pleased St. Mary's crowds previously, appeared in costume last night, playing "Musette" by Bach, and "Yankee Doodle" and "Polk Song." Margaret Dugan accompanied at the piano.

The second play of the evening, "Camouflage," proved equally as entertaining, with a well selected cast. The part of Mrs. McGehee was played by Louise Humphreys, Mildred, Jeanne Hancock; Dolly, Helen McDonnell; Paul, Carol Gritsch; Bob, Walter Young; Mrs. Important, Anna Cross; Sally, Louise Pankey; Mabel,

MANY TRAVEL TO CRATER LURED BY WINTER SCENERY

Travel into Crater Lake national park so far this season has reached a total of 8,826 visitors arriving in 3,052 automobiles, including motorists from distant states. The travel of the past two weeks has been through the south or Klamath entrance, where roads were cleared earlier due to a lesser snow depth. Efforts are steadily going ahead to open the Medford or west entrance as early as possible, but are being somewhat delayed by storms of the past two weeks.

In motoring to Crater Lake, motorists are assured one of the rarest trips of the year in view of deep snow still on the ground, reaching a depth of 17 feet in the rim area and from 40 to 60 feet in drifts. The park service has arranged adequate parking space at the rim. Steps have been carved out of high banks to permit visitors to easily climb to the top to view the lake in its superb winter covering.

Quite a number of winter recreationists have been making use of hills near the rim for skiing and tobogganing, the snow being in an excellent condition to encourage fast time.
