Captain Kidd, the pirate, was sent out from England to capture pirates and turned pirate himself.

One of the most pleasant events of the past week to numerous groups of southern Oregon people was the two-day music festival in Ashland, sponsored as an annual event by the Southern Oregon Normal school. With seven schools of southern Oregon and northern California participating, the program afforded splendid entertainment for admirers of chorus, band and orchestra work. Speakers on the program, introducing the festival of music, were Mayor Thornton of Ashland and A. C. Strang of the normal school. Participating were: High school choruses of Gold Hill and Rogue River, directed by D. Baughman; Ashland, by Helen Kilgore; Medford, by Harriet Baldwin; Boys' choruses of Ashland and Medford, directed by Kilgore and Baldwin, were also popular participants in the festival. Bands entering the program were: Medford, directed by F. Wilson Wait; Yreka, by Galgano, and Weed, by D. Colvig. Orchestras were entered by Medford and Ashland under direction of Wait and Croft.

CHAMBER FORUM MEETING MONDAY WITH KIWANIS

The first forum meeting of the Medford Chamber of Commerce under its new officers will be held in connection with the meeting of the Kiwanis club Monday with Charles H. Ingersoll, president of the Ingersoll Watch Co., and vice president of the Manhattan Single Tax club, as the principal speaker. A. P. Johnson, newly appointed forum chairman, will preside. The chamber feels that it is fortunate in securing an appearance of Mr. Ingersoll, who is making a tour of the Pacific coast, talking to various civic groups on the taxation question. For thirty years he has been head of the company which bears his name, the Ingersoll Watch Co., "the watch that made the dollar famous." He is a business man of fifty years of colorful experience, and has a fund of intimate knowledge of business and economic problems. Mr. Ingersoll likes to talk to, confer with, and be heckled by his audience, and his sense of humor has always been an outstanding feature of his many public appearances. For the past fifteen years he has been active in public work, both as an officer of the Manhattan Single Tax club, the Industrial Tax Relief commission of New Jersey, the Reform Club of New York, and numerous other organizations. Monday's forum meeting will convene promptly at 12:10 at the Hotel Medford and the Chamber of Commerce invites anyone interested to attend. Reservations should be made by calling the Chamber of Commerce.
