

DODGERS RECOVER BATTING EYES TO DEFEAT MACKMEN

Loss of Game Leaves Giants in Complete Possession of Cellar—'Dizzy' Dean Blanks Cincinnati, 9 to 0

By GAYLE TALBOT (Associated Press Sports Writer)

The Brooklyn Dodgers, who have had neither pitching nor hitting to speak of since they completed their course of caustic treatment at last show symptoms of recovering their batting eyes.

The latent power in the bats of the Flatbush fusiliers burst forth all of a sudden yesterday against the Giants. Trailing by five runs going into the ninth, they fell on three of McCraw's curvers for eight runs to win, 11 to 7, and leave the Giants in complete possession of the National league cellar.

The Boston Braves and Chicago Cubs maintained their fight for first place in the senior league, the Braves clinging to their one-game advantage by beating the Phillies, 9 to 4, while the Cubs were coming from behind to trim the Pirates, 8 to 6.

"Dizzy" Dean, the Cardinals' much publicized rookie, finally came through with a shut-out victory over the Cincinnati Reds, 9 to 0.

Although three Washington pitchers issued 16 passes, only two shy of the major league record, the Senators staged yesterday to a 5 to 4 win over the Yankees. It was the leaders' third straight over the Yanks and their sixth win in a row.

Cleveland's winning streak was snapped at nine straight when the St. Louis Browns outslugged the Indians, 11 to 8.

George Karsnow was in rare form, yielding only four hits as the Athletics won another from the Boston Red Sox, 6 to 1.

Detroit and Chicago were rained out.

CHINA BOY WINS NOD OVER HESS

PORTLAND, Ore., May 4.—(AP)—Ab Wind Lee, Portland's popular and clever Chinese lightweight, won a decision over Goldie Hess, Los Angeles, after six hard rounds of milling here last night.

The hair-raiser of the evening was the semi-windup which saw "Wildcat" Carter, Seattle, junior welterweight, technically knock out Eddie Volk, Portland, in the third round of a terrific battle.

In a hard six-round battle, Johnny Spender, 143 pounds, Seattle, took a decision over Teddy Fox, 142, Salem.

Handy Andy Bundy, Oakland colored flash featherweight, administered another one-round knockout when he added Billy Corbett, Vancouver, B. C., to his list.

Pete Sumaki, Portland middleweight, won an easy six-round decision over Chris Finnell, Klamath Falls.

WHITNEY HORSES GIVEN GOOD CHANCE IN DERBY

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 4.—(AP)—A Whitney horse may win the Kentucky derby after all, in the opinion of scores of railbirds who thronged Churchill Downs to watch the first gallops by Stepenficht and Overtime, Mrs. John Hay Whitney's eligibles for Saturday's $50,000 classic.

Withdrawal of C. V. Whitney's crack filly Top Flight and Mrs. Payne Whitney's Curacao from the derby field left Mrs. John Hay Whitney the only member of that prominent family to have representation in the historic race.

Stepenficht will be ridden in the derby by the veteran jockey, L. Enser. Earl Sande himself, who has had mounts on three derby winners, will ride Overtime in his attempt to make his recent turf comeback decisive.

Should Sande win on Overtime, he would be the first jockey in history to ride four derby winners. He and Isaac Murphy now share the record at three each. Sande has won on Zev, Flying Ebony and Gallant Fox.

Mrs. L. G. Kaufman's tick on is the pre-derby favorite and the leading candidate. Col. E. R. Bradley's entry of Brother Joe and Burgoon King bear the hopes of the west.

CAPONE ENROUTE FOR 11-YEAR STAY IN ATLANTA PEN

In the liquor-gambling syndicate that is reported to have built him a fortune.

"Anybody that says I'm for prohibition is all wet," asserted the gang czar. "It would be better if prohibition was out of the way and we could handle beer legitimately. There would be more profit, no payoffs, no loss of trucks and a cheaper price for the stuff."

Transfer Rushed

Capone's trip to prison was a rush affair, starting only a day after the United States supreme court had refused to review his case. The original papers called for incarceration at Leavenworth, Kans., but the plans were changed late yesterday in accordance with the government's policy of splitting up the Capone gang. Four Chicago gangsters are already in Leavenworth prison while Capone is the first to be sent to Atlanta.

The gang chief learned of the switch to Atlanta over the radio in his cell at the county jail, where he waited for six months while his case was appealed. He indicated it made no difference to him in which prison he served his term.

At Well Guarded

On the trip from the county jail to the train at Chicago the party was accompanied by four other automobiles filled with dry agents and Chicago police.

The police were armed and ready to prevent any disorder.

There were crowds outside the jail and some of the curious shouted: "You got a bum break, Al!"

"You'd think Mussolini was passing through," remarked Capone.

On the journey to the train Capone caught a glimpse of the federal building, scene of his greatest defeat—the place where Federal Judge James H. Wilkerson passed the 11 year sentence last October, after Capone was convicted following withdrawal of a plea of guilty.

Retains Vanity

Just before leaving the marshal's automobile at the station Capone's vanity asserted itself again. Noticing a small crowd gathered to see him off, he asked Marshal Laubenheimer to fix his hands so no handcuffs would show. His sleeve was pulled down, and the cuffs to which he was fastened to his fellow prisoner were not visible as the two prisoners were taken aboard the Pullman.

Capone made all his plans for his farewell early during the day. His mother, Mrs. Teresa Capone, his wife, Mae, his son, Alphonse, Jr., 13; his sister, Mrs. Mafalda Maritote and a younger brother, Mathew, bade him goodbye in his cell.

He was allowed to take but $10 with him, and a limited supply of clothing. Hampering baggage is not permitted for federal prisoners.

Sleeps in Irons

Capone spent the night in the upper berth of a drawing room shackled hand and foot to the other prisoner, Vito Morlet, a young Chicagoan who is being taken to Jacksonville, Fla. to stand trial on charges of transporting a stolen automobile from Tampa, Fla. to Chicago.

The gang chief objected to the leg irons which were clamped onto him as he prepared for bed. He said he would rather sit up all night than have "those things on my legs."

But Marshal Laubenheimer said, "I'm sorry, good night," and turned out the light.

DIETRICH'S SMOKE WINS FOR DUCKS IN HURLER'S DUEL

(By the Associated Press)

The baseball series of the north Pacific coast, featuring Seattle's Indians and the Portland Ducks, was swinging in favor of the Oregon team today.

Portland took the series opener yesterday, 3-2 in a pitching duel between William Dietrich, speed ball king, and Junk Walters, slow ball specialist. The Indians tied the score at two all with a ninth inning rally, but the Ducks slipped over the winning run in their turn at bat in the last half.

Oakland took the series opener from Sacramento, 5-3, in the first night game of the 1932 season at Sacramento.

San Francisco's Seals went right ahead with their winning streak and downed Hollywood, 7-5. Hunt for the Seals and Brannan of Hollywood, got homers.

The Mission Reds, strengthened by two new players, ended a long losing streak and pounded out 11 hits to defeat Los Angeles, 4-1, last night. The new additions to the Mission team are Mark Koenig, formerly of Detroit, playing third, and Roy Frazier, purchased from the Seals, playing in the outfield.

This Game of GOLF

Dr. Alastair MacKenzie, still deeply engrossed with the great course he has designed and is building for the Augusta National Golf Club, Augusta, Ga. in his lighter moments will narrate remarkable stories of prowess.

One of his best deals with Judge W. O. Henderson, a distinguished jurist who spends much of the winter in Augusta and plays golf, which, as Dr. MacKenzie points out, is amazing and may indeed lead him to one of the oddest records in golf, and yet unattained.

Judge Henderson, to whom I was duly introduced during a visit to Augusta, is 82 years of age.

"He has twice played the Hill course at the Augusta Country club in 85, this season," declared Dr. MacKenzie.

Par for the Hill course is a stiff 72, and the course record is 69. It is regarded as one of the best layouts in America.

Judge Henderson is close to the oddest of records on that tough test—for a golfer to "shoot his age," a stroke for a year, on a standard golf course.

Other Candidates

Out in southern California a year ago they were telling me of some chap who had done a 67 at the age of 64; it seems he also has a chance.

"I've one closer than that," Dr. MacKenzie said. "When I was in Australia some years ago there was a chap named Rose, of the Royal Melbourne, a very stiff layout. He was then 71 years of age and had done a 72 once and a 73 twice, over this course. It's quite possible he's shot his age by this time, though I do not know it. He seemed to be getting better, and could play 36 holes in a day very handily, with a lot of bridge in the evening."

The trick in this proposed record, of course, is that no man possibly has the ghost of a show to set it until he has passed 60. Scores we have heard of like Braid's 58 and Duncan's 55, were made on short courses—at least George's was. But the compilers were a score of years short of the cards, at that.

Up the Scale

The most spectacular tale Dr. MacKenzie permitted himself, on the occasion of this last visit, was of a three-day battle at the excellent Doctors' own pet course, Cypress Point, on the Monterey peninsula.

It seems Tommy Armour, Joe Kirkwood, Jack Neville and Roger Lapham played a series of matches there, the pros giving the amateurs a liberal allotment of strokes. On the last day, Armour was excessively hot; he was giving Mr. Lapham a stroke a hole, and beat the famous sportsman by coming home in 31.

"On the short 15th," said Dr. MacKenzie, "the miracle occurred. It is a pitch of about 130 yards. Mr. Lapham's son was playing in the group, which thus was a fiveome. The scores at the 15th were as follows: Armour 1, Kirkwood 2, Neville 3, Roger Lapham 4 and his son 5. It do not recall ever having heard of any such set of scores being made anywhere else, on a single hole by the same match."

Neither do I.

D'VOE COURTS READY FOR HORSESHOE ACES

DeVoe's horseshoe courts on West Main street are being made ready for Guy Zimmerman and C. E. Jackson, who will stage an exceptional exhibition tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Hadley Arthur and Roy Pruitt of the local contingent will play the visitors.

Word has been sent to L. Jenkins, state champion, requesting that he come to Medford tomorrow to keep the Iowa boys from walking away with all the honors.

When You're Drumming Up Business

With Classified Or Display Advertising

Depend Upon A. B. C. CIRCULATION

—You KNOW Just How Many People Will Read Your Message

It is often a waste of money to advertise blindly . . . because of the importance of selecting the BEST media, national advertisers are depending upon AUDIT BUREAU of CIRCULATION to eliminate the guesswork from newspaper figures. H. C. Ogden, publisher of The Wheeling News and Wheeling Intelligencer of Wheeling, W. Va., in speaking of A. B. C., says: "It is undoubtedly a protection, a defense for the honest newspaper that is trying to sell honest circulation" . . . The Mail Tribune spends considerable money each year to give southern Oregon advertisers an ACCURATE, AUDITED CIRCULATION report . . . to eliminate the uncertainty of "claimed" circulation.

In Buying Potatoes or Lawn Seed—

In fact anything you buy—it is natural to demand MEASURED WEIGHT—You do not wish to depend upon the judgment or guesswork of a clerk. Isn't it equally wise, in buying a display or classified ad, to insist upon FULL MEASURE for your dollar? The AUDIT BUREAU of CIRCULATION is the scale upon which newspaper circulation is measured . . . You're playing safe when you depend upon A. B. C.
