EX-CROWN PRINCE IN PLEA FOR U. S. AID TO GERMANY

Which day of progressive destruction which day of... The crown prince had talked himself into a pitch of excitement. He paused a moment to let his feelings subside.

"If I were to be successful," he went on, "in catching the ear of the people across the Atlantic with what I have told you, and if thereby I should be able, at least in a certain measure, to help my suffering people, I should regard this as my most beautiful birthday present."

"Have you proud and free Americans any inkling of what it means to make a proud people submit to special laws and regulations? Is it necessary to point out what it means to take the right of determining its national self-defense from a people with a history of centuries and with boundaries exposed on all sides?"

"This dictate of Versailles, from which the whole world is suffering, and the spirit from which it emanated, are in the last analysis, responsible for all the disasters of today. True enough, you Americans did not sign it, but — and you will pardon me for saying this—you have made it possible and you continue to tolerate the impossible conditions created by it."

"It is really necessary to emphasize that Europe's recovery can be brought about only if in the heat of this continent there is a German people at peace and at work? That only such a Germany will be able, through practical co-operative effort attacking the problems upon which depends the restitution of a sane order in this world, also to assist in lifting your American burden?"

The crown prince had talked himself into a pitch of excitement. He paused a moment to let his feelings subside.

"If I were to be successful," he went on, "in catching the ear of the people across the Atlantic with what I have told you, and if thereby I should be able, at least in a certain measure, to help my suffering people, I should regard this as my most beautiful birthday present."

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE WITHOUT CALOMEL

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning Rarin' to Go

If you feel sour and sunk and the world looks punk, don't swallow a lot of salts, mineral water, oil, laxative candy or chewing gum and expect them to make you suddenly rarin' and bright and full of sunshine.

For they can't do it. They only move the bowels and a mere movement doesn't get at the cause. The reason for your down-and-out feeling is your liver. It should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily.

If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just decays in the bowels. Gas builds up your stomach. You have a thick, bad taste and your breath is foul. Skin often breaks out in blotches. Your head aches and you feel down and out. Your whole system is blighted.

It takes three good, old CARTER'S LITTLE LIVER PILLS to get those two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up." They contain wonderful, harmless, gentle vegetable extracts, amazing when it comes to making the bile flow freely.

But don't ask for liver pills. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills on the red label. Same as the Little Liver Pills on the red label. Same as the Little Liver Pills on the red label.
