ATTEMPT TO LIFT CANADIAN BAN ON FRUIT, VEGETABLES

CORVALLIS, Ore., May 5.—(AP)—An attempt by the trade to obtain modification of the action of Canadian authorities in declaring an unconditional embargo on all vegetables and fruits originating in California, Oregon, Nevada and Arizona, as the result of an outbreak of hoof and mouth disease in California, is being made throughout the west, according to advices reaching the U. S. C. extension service here and the government department of agricultural economics.

Canada declared the embargo, effective until further notice, last week, the result of the outbreak of the disease in Orange county, California. The ban is effective against California and all states which border on California.

The entire coast has been affected by the outbreak. Canadian-bound produce has thus been thrown on Oregon and Washington markets, necessitating immediate distribution at sacrifice values.

ELABORATE FESTIVAL PLANNED FOR PUPILS ON FRIDAY AFTERNOON

Elaborate plans are being completed for the festival of music, art and physical education to be staged at the senior high school on South Oakdale Friday afternoon, beginning at 1:30 o'clock.

Miss Harriet Baldwin, supervisor of music in the schools; Miss Carin Degermark, supervisor of physical education, and Miss Louise Hollenbeck, art supervisor, are directing and arranging the presentation. The music and physical education demonstration will be accompanied by a display of art work.

Children of the third, fourth, fifth and sixth grades in all schools of the city will be dismissed tomorrow morning for rehearsal of the pageant, planned at this time in observance of National Music week.

DR. DURNO TALKS ON HEALTH WEEK

Observing health week, a special program was conducted at the Medford Junior high school Wednesday afternoon with Dr. Edwin Durno giving the main address. The school program was announced as 6:55, with $20 on the health honor roll.

Dr. Durno told the students of the health advantages available now, and informed the group that Medford's health program is five years further advanced than that of any other school in the state.

Much credit is due to the Jackson County Health association, which aided in furthering the school program.

MIRIAM HOPKINS ADOPTS AN HEIR

CHICAGO, May 5.—(AP)—Displeased by discovery of her plan, Miriam Hopkins adopted a baby boy today and fairly ran out of court without giving much information.

The blonde actress of stage and screen told the court she was divorced from her playwright husband, Austin Parker. She received permission of County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki to adopt a child from the Evanston Cradle society, a home which keeps secret the names of parents who leave their children there.

Miss Hopkins told the court she was unmarried, would rear the child as her own, and had set aside a trust fund for it.

DEMOCRATS GAIN VOTING STRENGTH

SALEM, May 5.—(P)—Total registration of voters in Oregon for the May primaries showed an increase of 5,035 over the registration for the general election of November, 1930, figures received from the 39 counties by the secretary of state revealed. The final check not yet made by the department was expected to show little change. The last of the counties to report were received today.

The greatest change noted was the increased registration on the Democratic side, with 121,893, an increase of 13,191 over the number two years ago. The Republican decrease was 6,247, or a total party registration of 292,774. The registration for the primaries in all parties is 425,162.

HILLSBORO MILKMEN IN WAR OVER PRICE

HILLSBORO, Ore., May 5.—(AP)—A milk price war flared here today when two dairies announced they would sell for 5 cents a quart. The two, the Roth dairy and the Morning Dew dairy, protested they had been losing cash customers because competitors had been selling under the established 8-cent price. This was denied by other dairymen.

Sniders Deliver Milk Twice Daily

Beginning this week, Snider's Dairy and Produce company will deliver milk to their customers twice daily, morning and evening, in order to accommodate those who prefer their milk left at the door before breakfast.

The new delivery arrangement will be continued during the summer months, Mrs. Maude Snider announced.

EAGLE POINT GRANGE MEET CHARACTERIZED BY GOOD ATTENDANCE

Good attendance and interest characterized Tuesday's Grange meeting. The program was as follows: "The Why of the Grange," by Louis J. Taber, National Grange master, read by Mrs. Zora Humphrey; The Origin of Mother's Day by Flora, Lucile Coy; solo, Mrs. Mittelsteadt, with Miss Yetta Olsen at the piano; reading by Miss Yetta Olsen; vocal trio, Mrs. Flora Barrett, soprano, Mrs. Jessie Mittelsteadt, contralto, Dr. D. A. Forbes, bass; recitation, Little Miss Mary Hamish; solo, Rudy Weidman, with Miss Olsen at the piano; Living Picture, Mrs. Wm. Young, Billie Young, Dorothy Young and her dolly, accompanied by duet, Mrs. Lottie VanSoy and Mrs. Nick Young, with Mrs. Mittelsteadt at the piano.

It was brought out during the meeting that, in spite of the depression and the very different record of nearly every other organization in the country, the Grange has had one of the most prosperous years in its history. More new members, more new Granges organized and perhaps greater accomplishments than in any previous year. The Grange is an organization that does not depend on large dues to carry on its work, but on the force and convictions of its members. Every day in every way the Grange grows stronger and stronger.

The hall was beautifully decorated with lilies and white iris. Refreshments were served and a pleasant social hour enjoyed.

The next regular meeting will be May 17. All Grangers cordially welcome, always.

BLAST IN KITCHEN MAY PROVE FATAL

SAN FRANCISCO, May 5.—(AP)—A stove explosion in the kitchen of her apartment inflicted probably fatal burns today on Mrs. Eva Marshall, 35, former Oregon school teacher.

Policeman Jack Floyd, who was passing the building where Mrs. Marshall resided, heard the explosion and broke into the apartment where he found the woman unconscious on the floor, her clothing aflame.

KERBY GRANGE WILL ENJOY COPCO FILMS

Medford-made motion pictures will provide the main entertainment at Friday night's meeting of the Bridgeview Grange at Kerby. The pictures which will be exhibited by the advertising department of the California-Oregon Power company will feature some interesting "Copco Current Events," including the Kerby celebration last summer. Several short comedy reels for the children also will be shown on the Copco screen. A large attendance from all parts of the Illinois valley is anticipated.

PLANT FLOWERS NOW FOR HIGHWAY BEAUTY

Now is the time to plant flowers along the Pacific Highway, according to the local committee on highway beautification. Many attractive effects can be achieved with but little effort and expense and the results are more than justified.

Some beautiful beds of petunias, sinias and other flowers have been maintained each year by several residents on the Pacific highway between Medford and Ashland and it is hoped that this custom will extend to all parts of Jackson county. Such a move should result in much favorable comment and interest among the thousands of tourists who will visit southern Oregon this year.

SNAKE RIVER HYDRO PLANT TO BE BUILT

TWIN FALLS, Idaho, May 5.—(AP)—Engineers representing W. S. Bartow and Co., Reading, Pa., engineering contractors, have arrived here today to begin construction of a 17,000 horse power hydro-electric power plant at Augur Falls, on the Snake river, northwest of here.

A. F. Campbell, vice-president, said work will begin about June 1. The contract calls for completion of the project by December 1.
