

Camera's Eye Catches Interesting Events and Personalities of Week

SOUTHERN TORNADO CAUSES VAST DAMAGE

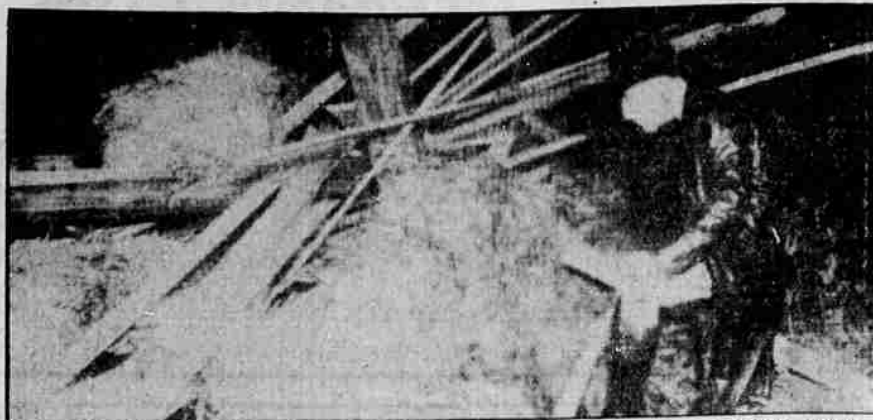

This Associated Press telephoto shows the wreckage of a house in Cartersville, Ga., in which seven persons narrowly escaped death. This was typical of destruction caused by tornadoes in several southern states.

BURLESQUE? NO, NEW SHAW PLAY

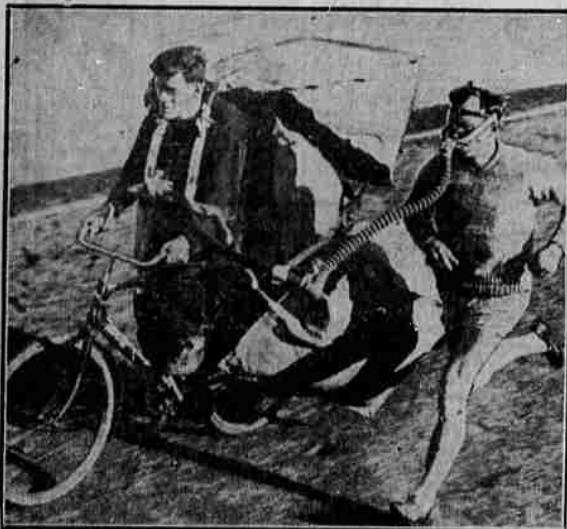

Bernard Shaw goes almost burlesque in his newest play, "Too True To Be Good," which has just had its world premiere in America. This scene shows Ernest Cossart, Beatrice Lillie, musical comedy star who is playing her first dramatic role; Hope Williams, social register actress, and Leo Carroll.

FOUR DIE AS TORNADO WRECKS LIVERY STABLE

In this Associated Press telephoto is shown the wreckage of a livery stable at Northport, Ala., in which four persons were killed by the tornadoes which caused huge loss of life and property in the south.

SCIENCE STUDIES HUMAN MACHINE

In Germany they are learning how the human machine stokes and burns its fuel. The fuel is food and air which is converted into living energy, consumed and its immediate ashes cast off through breath and pores. This athlete is running around a 1,500 meter course while the bicycle carries containers to catch the products of his "fueling" for scientific measurement.

Eastman Claimant

George Eastman, a night watchman in the Bronx jail in New York, hopes to share in the $20,000,000 estate of George Eastman, camera manufacturer. He says his father was a younger brother of the film man.

GOLFER GOES IN FOR POLO

Maureen Orcutt, queen of the American links, thinks golf and polo are somewhat alike. "They are both the same in principle," she said. She is shown at Augusta, Ga., with her pony all ready for a chukker.

Military Queen

Ruth Pollack of University City, St. Louis suburb, was chosen queen of the annual military ball at the University of Missouri.

UNDER FIRE FOR GIFT RECEIVING

Superior Judges Caryl M. Sheldon, Walter Guerin and Dailly S. Stafford (left to right) were alleged to have accepted gifts and favors from receivers of the American Mortgage company in Los Angeles.

Engineers' Queen

Engineering students at the University of Iowa chose Ruth Burnsted (above) of Webster City, Ia., as queen of their "Mecca" celebration.

VICTIMS OF AIRPLANE TRAGEDY

Three of the seven killed in the crash of an air liner near San Bernardino, Cal., were (left to right) Co-pilot H. H. Campbell, H. A. McKellar of Los Angeles and Pilot H. J. Kelsey.

Senate Candidate

Louis J. Taber, master of the national grange, will seek the United States senatorial nomination in the Ohio May primary. He is a republican.

Star Student

Constance Morrow, sister of Mrs. Charles A. Lindbergh, was announced as the second in scholastic standing of the freshman class at Smith college, Northampton, Mass. She also is vice president of her class.

Film Star To Wed

Betty Bronson, the original "Peter Pan" of the movies, will be married soon in Santa Barbara, Cal., to Ludwig Lauerhaus of Asheville, N. C.

BETTERS OWN SWIM MARK

Clarence "Buster" Crabbe, Los Angeles athletic club star, broke his own American record in the 1,500 meter special event of the national A. A. U. championships at New Haven, Conn. He was timed at 19 minutes 45.35 seconds, bettering his old mark by more than 20 seconds.

Halted By Illness

Doctors suggested a several weeks' rest for Rep. Albert H. Vestal of Indiana, republican whip in the house, who was stricken with heart attack.

Peck's Bad Boy, Now!

It's hard to believe, but this dignified man is George Washington Peck, whose purported pranks as a boy were made famous by his father in "Peck's Bad Boy." Mr. Peck, now retired, lives in Lake Forest, Chicago suburb.

She's A Princess

This little lady is Princess Yori, youngest daughter of the emperor and empress of Japan. She's just a few days over a year old, and her full name is Atsuko Yori-no-Mi.

DAVIS CUP STAR IN ACTION

Frank Shields, U. S. Davis cup player, is shown in an unusual action shot taken during the national indoor championships in New York. Shields is expected to assume a large share of the singles load in the international matches this week.

Ouster Sought

A formal attempt to unseat Senator Josiah W. Bailey of North Carolina on charges of fraud in the 1930 North Carolina elections was laid before the senate elections committee. The committee will decide whether the charges warrant further investigation.

UNEXPECTED SHIP COMPANIONS

Pierre Vanlaer, wealthy amateur French aviator, leaped out of the cockpit of his airplane while waving an enthusiastic farewell to friends sailing for America and fell into the sea. He was picked up by a boat from the liner and brought to New York. Who the friends were the Frenchman never said, but it was noticed that he was much in the company of Gibson Paine, wealthy New Yorker, Mrs. Paine, and their daughter, Dorothy, who is shown here with Pierre.

CHINESE REFUGEES ON THE MARCH

When inhabitants of a Chinese village north of Shanghai heard the cry, "The Japanese are coming," they packed up bag and baggage and fled for safer territory. This picture shows them on the march to new and unknown homes.

Expects Child

Reports from Bucharest say Queen Marie is buying clothes for a grandchild expected by the former Princess Ileana (above), her daughter. The princess was married last year to Archduke Antoine of Hapsburg.