EAGLES' PROGRAM CRATERIAN TODAY HONORS MOTHERS Mother—"who asks for nothing and deserves so much"—will today have the thrill of being remembered by her children and friends. For this Sunday has been set aside by the U. S. Congress as the day of remembering those who have glimpsed the divineness of life. The history of the observance dates back to 1904, when Past Grand Worthy President Frank E. Herlinger of the Fraternal Order of Eagles designated the second Friday in May as the day to "renew the faith of our childhood." Not long after the inauguration of the day in the United States, the custom has spread throughout the world, bringing joy to thousands of mothers, who would otherwise be neglected unintentionally. In Medford churches, as well as those throughout the nation, mothers will be honored in special programs. Flordite and greenhouses of the city have reported large orders of bouquets and plants to be delivered to the "wonderful mothers" of Medford. The keynote program for the observance is being conducted this morning by the Eagles Aerie No. 2093. Through the courtesy of Jack Retlaw, manager of the Fox Craterian and Riado theaters, the use of the Craterian has been donated for the services today from 10 to 11 a. m. The public is invited to attend the program, which has been arranged as follows: Overture, Miss Madge DeLaesus; invocation, Rev. W. R. Baird of the First Christian church; "My Mother's Eyes," solo by Mrs. Lulu Thurston; Katherine Wendt, piano; "That Wonderful Mother of Mine," solo by Arthur Hardesty; address of welcome by Ray Schumaker, W. P. "Ave Maria," Mascagni, Rudiciana, Mrs. J. E. Thompson soprano; Miss Geraldine Thompson, violin; and Miss DeLaesus, organ. Mr. Hardesty will also sing "Silver Threads Among the Gold," preceding the address by D. D. Hill, state president, F. O. E. "A Flower for Mother" is the recitation to be given by Miss June Parker, and "Somebody's Mother," a musical reading will be given by Miss Irma Fowell, accompanied at the piano by Lewis Parker. This number will be followed by the benediction. Immediately following the program the Eagles will have initiation of candidates, to be followed by a banquet at their hall upstairs in the Medford National Bank building.
