Mothers Honored at Large Tea Yesterday

The home of Mrs. E. E. Sweeney was the scene yesterday of a large tea, one of the loveliest events in local society, given in compliment to mothers. Bouquets of spring flowers were arranged in profusion about the room, adding beauty to the occasion, and a corsage was presented each guest by the hostesses, members of the Sunny Sisters circle.

Forty-five guests called during the afternoon and were entertained with a radio program, broadcast from station KMED, including appropriate numbers by local artists, Elsie Carlton Strang and R. E. Waldron, well known local soloists, entertained with two vocal duets, accompanied at the piano by Miss Dorothy Reynolds.

Following the program, the entertainers continued to the Sweeney home for tea and were thanked for the program through the enthusiastic applause of the guests.

Roll call was answered by expressions of sentiment honoring mothers, and Misses Dorothy Terrett and Dorothy Jenkins entertained with a clever tap dance. Women of Rotary were also guests of the Sunny Sisters for the afternoon. Mesdames Luke and Cochran presided at the tea table and Miss Katherine Sweeney, Mrs. Chester Hubbard and Mrs. Frank Peri served.

The splendid program for the afternoon was arranged by Mrs. John Peri and Mrs. W. W. Howard.

RATTLERS ABOUND IN EASTERN HILLS

LA GRANDE, Ore., May 11.—(AP)—If one likes to kill snakes, there is a place near Promise, a little town in Wallawa county, where accommodation can be provided.

Some boys killed 40 rattlesnakes in a den in the hills near there a few days ago, it was learned here today. They brought home 18 sets of rattles to prove their story. The snakes measured from six inches to nearly four feet in length.

Screen Stars keep youthful Charm

"I'm over 40" says Florence Reed

"With a woman it's how old she looks, not how old she is that counts!" says Florence Reed, famous stage star.

"Stage and screen stars know how to stay young—how to keep youthful freshness year after year. And practically every prominent star shares one secret.

"Youthful charm depends on complexion beauty! We consider our complexion priceless. For years I have used Lux Toilet Soap regularly to keep my skin youthful."

In Hollywood actually 686 of the 694 important screen actresses use this fragrant white soap.

It is so white that no other soap can rival it—its safe, gentle care will keep your skin, too, youthfully charming. Only 10¢ a cake!
