Poppy Sale Opens Friday

Tomorrow the women of Medford American Legion Auxiliary will go out on the streets of the city offering the memorial poppies for sale to be worn in honor of the men who lost their lives in the world war. By evening the red flowers will go on the coats of thousands of citizens and the coin boxes of the auxiliary sellers will clink with Medford's annual offering to the families of the disabled veterans of the community.

CLUB SHOW WINS HEARTY APPLAUSE OF LARGE CROWD

(By Eva Nealon)

Wise choice of cast, intelligent direction, and a spontaneous bit of acting by each character, gave added life and spirit to "A Dollar Down, a Dollar a Week," domestic comedy in three acts, when it was presented by the Lions' club at the Holly theater last night to a capacity crowd, which expressed hearty appreciation of the show in generous applause, loudly punctuating lines at frequent intervals.

The appropriateness of the comedy's plot to present day conditions was enhanced by the naturalness with which the cast handled the situations, common to many modern families.

The players won the sympathy of the crowd one moment as exit. Chesterfield and chairs made exit at the demand of the owners, and threw the group into a state of bliss the next as assurance of payment of the missing installments returned to precede the final curtain.

Directed and staged by George Olsen, whose theatrical experience of the past is well known to Medford folk, the comedy displayed that certain polish and snap, usually classed "professional."

Playing opposite Mrs. Olsen, who also knew the flare of footlights during the days when the old legitimate was not overshadowed by "talkies," Mr. Olsen portrayed in a very natural manner the traits of the American father. As Mr. Watts he tied with Mrs. Watts for first honors.

Their son, Elmer, played by Jerry Barr, was the authentic jazz-minded youth, fitting into the home scene with just the right jar and racket to annoy his sister, Betty, Mrs. Ernest Scott, and furnish additional laugh provoking complications.

Mrs. Jerry Barr as Harriett (Elmer's girl friend) supplied the charming gentleness needed to balance the sharp remarks of the quick-witted Betty, flung toward "Elmer."

Don Collier, the oil salesman, threatened to draw money from the audience as well as Mr. Watts' pockets with his superior sales talk.

Waldo (Betty's boy friend) played by Verne Shangle, was the very dapper young soda squirt, sans camera, and acquired a sufficiently winning voice to carry away girl and audience. Ernest Scott, as Johnson (the landlord), showed much ability in mixing satire and physical handicaps and Leland Brophy appeared a real mouser as the "boss mover."

DAIRYMEN ENDORSE CARL'S CANDIDACY

The following resolution was adopted May 11, by the Rogue River Valley Dairy association:

She Reduced 38 Pounds the Safe Way

"I have been taking Kruschen Salts for 4 months and I think they are wonderful. I am 32 years old and 5 ft. 2 in. tall. I was very fat. I weighed 163 lbs. and now I weigh 125 lbs. and feel fine. If I let up taking the Salts one morning I feel lazy and heavy."—Mrs. Florence Loftis, Boston.

This is just one of hundreds of letters we get every month—Kruschen not only causes you to lose fat but while you are losing it you gain in health—in vivaciousness—you lose fat where fat is most prominent and at the same time keep stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels functioning normally.

Jarmil & Woods, Health's Drug Store or any drug store in the world will sell you a jar of Kruschen for a trifling sum—take one-half teaspoonful in a glass of hot water every morning—go light on fatty meats, potatoes and sweets. But for your health's sake demand and get Kruschen Salts—imitations are numerous. It's the little daily dose that does it.

It's a Long Time Since John Had RHEUMATISM

He Found the Right, Inexpensive Way to Drive the Cause of This Crippling Disease from His System.

Happy Now—No More Idle Days—His Wife joyfully asserts.

As long as you have an excess of uric acid in the joints, blood and tissues you are going to have rheumatic pains, aches, twinges and joint swellings—you can't help but have them.

So start today with a swift, safe, popular prescription to get rid of all your annoying rheumatic troubles—Just ask Health's Drug Store, or Jarmil & Woods Drug Store, or any druggist for one 86-cent bottle of Allenru—a sensible formula free from opiates or nerve deadening drugs—it drives out all pain and agony in 48 hours—or money back.

Uric acid poison starts to leave body in 24 hours—the same guarantee holds good for Sciatica, Neuritis and Lumbago—why not start to get well today.

FEHL FIRES FINAL SHOT AT 'GANG' IN ARMORY ADDRESS

Earl H. Fehl, perennial candidate for mayor of Medford, now seeking the Republican nomination for county judge in the primary tomorrow, closed his speaking campaign at the armory last night before an audience of 400. It was a typical Fehl address, but lacking some of the fire and fury of other days.

Fehl, in his remarks, disappointed many of his audience with a veiled attack on Circuit Judge H. D. Norton. This step was taken at the wishes of his advisors, and was characterized by many of his supporters as "unwarranted."

The "perpetual candidate" addressed most of his bitterness against County Commissioner Victor Bursell and former Mayor A. W. Pipes, and The Mail Tribune. He named Bursell and Pipes, Miss Regina Johnson and C. M. Green of the Ashland Tidings as the mythical "gang," which he has been combatting. Miss Johnson and Green Thursday denounced Fehl as a "menace" to county government.

The local "Crusader" failed to explain his printed sentiments relative to the murder of Sam Prescott by James Kingsley, skipping this portion of the Tidings article, when he read it.

The address was a mixture of indefinite hints against alleged mis-handling of county and city business.

On the platform with Fehl, and introduced by him, after which they made short speeches, were Phil Lowd, candidate for sheriff; Fred L. Colvig, candidate for justice of the peace; Medford district; Hugo Daley, candidate for constable; T. J. Enright, candidate for district attorney; and E. R. King, Ashland Democratic candidate for assessor, who asked that the voters "write in" his name. All left for a "candidate's ball" at Ashland as soon as possible, not remaining to hear the Fehl talk.

Reorganization of Yeomen Announced

Due to change in organization work of the Yeomen, and discontinuance of the local lodge work, the Rhadamanthus club meeting Friday night of this week at Ashland will be in the form of a reorganization of the Yeomen of southern Oregon into a club of some sort that will include all members of the order, with possibilities of taking in others. An invitation is extended to all members to be present to help in the plans for this club.

Election returns will be received during the evening, and progressive cards will be played, with refreshments at the close of the evening.

TO THE VOTERS OF JACKSON COUNTY

On the 20th you nominate by your ballots a man to fill the position of County Judge, the most important office in the county, and one that deserves your most careful thought. I do not believe the good people of Jackson County want a professional politician and office seeker to fill this important post but want a man of wide business experience and clear vision, one who goes in unpledged to any man or set of men, who will honestly and sincerely work for the good and well being of all who reside in the county, and who is capable of handling the delinquency cases, one of the vital problems confronting the County Court.

If elected I will give you the best that is in me, gained from years of business experience; am not a politician and am not pledged to any man. My only pledge is to the voters of Jackson County and that is a business administration.

Two Good Candidates

E. B. Day, capable and efficient as a legislator, with a record of constructive legislation to his credit for the one term he served in the state legislature, will again seek the Republican nomination for the position.

Victor Bursell, with a record of 12 years of faithful, efficient and loyal service in the interest of Jackson county as a member of the county court, will likewise seek the Republican nomination for a seat in the House in the state legislature.

Two are to be elected from Jackson county. Tried and found not wanting in ability and loyalty to their trust, Jackson county is fortunate in having two such candidates file for the Republican nomination.

If neither has opposition for the Republican nominations, it will be a justly-earned tribute to their proven value as public servants.
