Chic Sale in Craterian Hit

JACKIE COOPER and "CHIC" SALE in "WHEN A FELLER NEEDS A FRIEND"

For some reason or other, old fashioned horse cars bring lots of laughs these days. Not so many years back, they were taken for granted—and very seriously—but not today.

In that side-splitting comedy feature "When a Feller Needs a Friend," which is showing at the Fox Craterian theater today and tomorrow, clever Chic Sale portrays "Uncle Jonas," the horse car driver, and town character, while none other than little Jackie Cooper co-stars with him, enacting the role of the cripple boy.

This story is adapted from William Johnston's celebrated novel "Limpy." Chic and Jackie, despite their extreme difference in presumed ages, are inseparable companions and cronies. Thrill follows thrill, and poignant drama brings lumps to many a throat.

"When a Feller Needs a Friend" is not just "kid" entertainment. Adults get one of the biggest "kicks" of their lives from this happy story. All the folks from six to sixty thoroughly enjoy this picture.

And look at this—as an additional attraction, a brand new Laurel and Hardy comedy howl "The Chimp," is on the same program. It looks as if some folks might need "laugh" insurance this time.

POPPY SELLERS COVERING CITY

Poppies are blooming on the streets of Medford today. Sales began at an early hour under the leadership of the American Legion Auxiliary and Veterans of Foreign Wars, and will continue throughout tomorrow, each purchase meaning a step forward in the plan to bring comfort to the men who came out of the world war with afflictions which will be a constant and permanent reminder of the great combat.

In booths, on the streets, in the stores, the poppy sellers appear, and the poppies appear as boutonnieres on the coats of rich and poor.

KREUGER FRAUDS BARED IN REPORT

LONDON, May 20.—(AP)—Gigantic frauds laid to Ivar Kreuger, Swedish industrialist who committed suicide, were disclosed today in a report by an investigating committee, published in London by Durland (city) Limited.

STAGE ELK ROUNDUP TO PROTECT GARDENS

POMEROY, Wash., May 20.—(AP)—An intensive roundup of elk which have been encroaching on Garfield county foothill farms for feed, owing to the winter's deep snow in the Blue mountains, was begun today by 100 horsemen with dogs.

The county game commission and members of the Grange, sponsoring the drive, said two men will patrol gardens during the summer to keep elk away.

Thrilling Picture At Holly Tonight

Barbara Stanwyck's new Columbia starring drama, "Shopworn," the attraction opening a three day engagement at the Holly theatre tomorrow, presents the star in one of her most dramatic and glamorous roles. She is seen as "Kitty Lane," a courageous girl who has been warned by her father that it's a tough world and the best way to take the wallops it will hand her is to be tough herself. Zasu Pitts, Regis Toomey and Lucien Littlefield have important supporting roles.

The attraction at the Holly for tonight and tomorrow is one of the fastest, most exciting dramas ever seen on the Holly screen. It is the story of a man whose hobby was "Hot News" and would go to any lengths in order to have "Scandal For Sale," which is the title of the thrilling picture. Great performances are turned in by Chas. Bickford, Rose Hobart and Pat O'Brien.

A trans-Atlantic flight is one of the highlights of the picture and those who like excitement will find plenty in "Scandal For Sale." Also on the program for tonight and tomorrow is a Graham McNamee news reel, a clever Kartoon and another hilarious Bed Time Story featuring Eddie Buzzell entitled "Call of the North." Tomorrow afternoon only at 1:30, the final and concluding chapter of the thrilling serial "Battling With Buffalo Bill" will be shown.

Stage Show Sunday On Craterian Bill

One of the most elaborate theatrical events of the current year is scheduled for next Sunday at the Fox Craterian theater when the clever Ambassadors of Rhythm band, composed of nine splendid musicians, appear on the local stage in a dazzling presentation. This is not just an "orchestra" in the regularly accepted sense, but includes superb talent such as songsters, comedians, etc.

In addition, as part of this gigantic event, a whole retinue of other personalities will be offered as well. Among these are Mrs. Jack Retlaw, formerly Bernice Benton of vaudevill fame; Tommy Cadwell, marvelous tenor; Jerry Thompson, widely known local virtuoso; George Andrews, popular baritone, and Madge DeLasaux in piano novelties.

Jack Retlaw, who is staging this big attraction will act as master of ceremonies.

A particularly beautiful and unique stage setting has been constructed especially for this show.

In conjunction with this, the Fox Craterian will also present that sensational picture epic "Symphony of Six Million," starring Irene Dunn of "Cimarron" fame; Ricardo Cortez, and many others of note. This picture is listed among the foremost screen attractions of the current year.
