

WALBERG UNABLE RECOVER FORMER MOUND ARTISTRY

Mack Loses Hope Of Aid This Season From Big Left-hander Who Won 20 Games Last Year for A's.

By Gayle Talbot.
(Associated Press Sports Writer.)
Connie Mack, able leader of the Athletics, appears to have lost hope that Rube Walberg, the big left-hander who won 20 games for him last year, will recover his winning form and be of any material assistance in the current flag race.

Walberg, one of the big factors in the A's drive to a third straight American league pennant last season, has been a great disappointment. He has started five games, been knocked out of the box the same number of times and thus far is charged with four losses and no wins.

Now Decorates Bench.
Mack, as a result, has about quit starting his former star and has fallen back on Grove, Earnshaw and Mahafey to carry the burden. Only once in the last three weeks has Walberg been given a starting assignment, and that time he was crowned by Cleveland.

With all his pitching problems, however, Connie Mack still can summon a smile when he observes the stocky first baseman is having one of his greatest years.

He came up in the first inning yesterday with the bases loaded and cracked the pellet over the left field stands for his 11th homer and enough runs to beat the Boston Red Sox, 4-2.

Forty-nine thousand fans suffered at Yankee stadium as the Washington Senators captured both ends of a doubleheader, 8-6 and 12-7, and went into a virtual tie with the Yanks for the American league lead. The Senators led by half a game in games won and lost but trail by four points in percentage. In both games the slugging Senators came from behind with a murderous attack in the late innings. Helms Manush's double, which slipped past Earl Combs and pt. rolling, gave Washington the winning runs in the 10th inning of the first game. Babe Ruth hit his eighth homer in the nightcap.

Burleigh Grimes was hit hard but pitched Cincinnati's runs in the pinches as the Chicago Cubs went 12 innings to win, 4-3, and increase their lead in the National.

The Pittsburgh Pirates got to Joe Mauer and Jack Quinn for two runs in the last of the eighth to edge out Brooklyn in their final, 3-1.

Half of the clubs in each league spent the day traveling.

THYE AND KRUSE PINION MAT FOES
PORTLAND, Ore., May 20.—(P)—Ted Thye, Portland heavyweight wrestler, defeated Al Beveridge, 200-pound newcomer from Portland, Maine, two out of three falls here last night. Beveridge made things interesting for Thye for nearly 40 minutes, and took the first fall in 38 minutes, 49 seconds, with a flying mare and body press. Thye came back, caught Beveridge off his guard, administered a few shoulder butts, and won the second fall with wristlocks in 7:05. He ended the match in one minute and a half with more wristlocks.

In the five-round preliminary, Bob Kruse, Oswego, Ore., took the only fall in the fourth round from Tommy Thompson, San Francisco.

The preliminary between Bulldog Jackson of Klamath Falls and Pat Regan of Casper, Wyo., went three rounds to a draw.

Becker and Achui Grapple To Draw
PORTLAND, Ore., May 20.—(P)—In a wrestling card to help raise funds to send Ralph and Clarence Hill, former University of Oregon distance runners, to the Olympic trials, Pete Becker drew with Walter Achui, Chinese, in the main event last night. Roland Warren, Klamath Falls, defeated Cliff Regan, Casper, Wyo., and Bill Sandahl won over Joe Reynolds, Portland.

MAXIE KNEE-DEEP IN ADMIRERS

Max Schmeling, who has a "heavy" date with Jack Sharkey June 21 in the middle of the new 30,000-seat asphalt saucer on Long Island, waded through a crowd of kids to have a peep at his future trysing partner. The German champion answered the youngsters' demands: "What are you going to do to Sharkey?" with a pleasant, "Come over June 21 and see."

Neck-and-Neck Finish For Three in National League, Johnson's Idea

By EDWARD J. NEIL.
(Associated Press Sports Writer.)
NEW YORK, May 20.—(AP)—The visitors' locker room in the Yankee stadium was a full of steam from shower baths, and howling, exultant, naked savages. Only one man was in full, philosophical control of his senses as he sat naked as the rest, squatting like Mahatma Gandhi, on the top of a baggage trunk.

"You see," pointed out Walter Johnson, "that's how a ball club can look when the pitching goes very bad. That's the way our Senators looked losing four straight to the Browns. That's how the Athletics looked until Grove and Earnshaw started pitching."

He was talking about the New York Yankees, the current hysteria of the American league, who had just been made to look very bad indeed, losing both ends of a double header to Johnson's Senators, 8-6 and 12-7.

"The Yankees have been getting great pitching in that winning streak and so they looked immense. Then the pitching goes bad, like it did here today. And they look like any other ball club, only worse."

"But don't let it fool you. They'll look good again when they get the pitching, and just how much pitching they're going to get over a full season is what's going to determine how high they stay. They can't win unless some of their young pitchers come through. Brute strength won't get the Yankees by."

The great right hand pitcher of another decade paused just long enough to see if any of his gleeful athletes had overlooked a vacant shower. But no one had.

"Of course we can't win without pitching either," he continued, "and the Athletics are in the same boat. We all look good when the boys are turning the batters back for us. And we look terrible when they don't."

"But I look at the situation like this right now. This Washington club is a better team than last year. The Yankees have improved, particularly in their youngsters and the pitching. The A's are coming back right now but they're not quite what they were last season. So you can see it's going to be a dog fight among these three, right down through the season."

"I don't figure much on what's happening right now, because it'll be pretty far behind by the time August comes around. I think we've got a better team than the A's. I know we're a better all-around team than the Yankees—better balanced, better defensively and equipped with better pitching for a season grind."

"But I've got this hunch. We'll be just heads apart, all three of us, by the time September rolls around."

BOY SCOUTS SET FOR FIELD MEET HERE TOMORROW

With representatives of each scout troop stationed in their respective reservations at Van Scoyoc field tomorrow afternoon, the annual field meet for all Boy Scouts of Ashland, Grants Pass, Kerby, Jacksonville, Phenix, Beagle, Medford, and Hill, Cal., will start at 1 o'clock.

Each scout master is responsible for the proper registration of all entries from his troop at the scout headquarters on East Main street not later than 11 a. m. Saturday, according to Oscar E. Hoover, executive, who will be in charge of the affair.

Events listed include troop inspection, patrol camping efficiency contest, semaphore signaling, first aid, knot tying, fire by friction, fire by flint and steel, measuring distances across country by pacing, water boiling and model aeroplanes (home-models), dressing race, pony express race, all-scout O'Grady game.

Demonstrations will include a semaphore signal tower, bugling and pine tree patrol camping.

Judges for the day will be members of the Active Club, Jack Butler, Bill McAllister, Frank Van Dyke, Hilding Bengtson, Elmo Russell and Ralph Bailey.

DON FABER WILL COACH ASHLAND

Announcement from Ashland, received today, states that Don Faber of Central Point, who will graduate from Willamette university this spring, has been named Ashland high school coach for the school year of 1932-33.

The appointment was made yesterday afternoon at a special meeting of the school board.

Young Faber has been outstanding in scholastic as well as athletic activities of the university, and has been highly recommended by that institution.

Pottstown Flash Slower Outdoors

NEW YORK, May 20.—(P)—Gene Venzke, invincible during the winter season, already has found a conqueror outdoors.

The Pottstown, Pa., school boy, who ran the mile in 4:10 this winter, finished third in a special 1,000-yard run at the New York Curb Exchange track and field meet last night.

WOMEN TO RENEW OLD GOLF RIVALRY ON BRITISH LINKS

VIRGINIA WATER, Surrey, Eng., May 20.—(P)—Mrs. Glenna Collett Vare, former American women's golf champion, today was selected to carry the American standard against Joyce Wethered, captain of the English team, in the first singles match of the England-United States series tomorrow at Wentworth.

It will be the renewal of an old rivalry between the two women. Joyce always has won before.

Helen Hicks, current American champion, was named to play Enid Wilson, British titleholder; Virginia VanWie was drawn against Wanda Morgan; Maureen O'Connell against Diana Fishwick; Mrs. Opal Hill against Molly Gourlay, and Mrs. Leona Cheney against Eisle Corlett.

Mrs. Vare and Miss Wethered also will meet in the foursomes, the American leader pairing with Mrs. Opal Hill against Miss Wethered and Wanda Morgan.

Misses VanWie and Hicks will play Miss Wilson and Mrs. Watson, and Mrs. Cheney and Miss O'Connell will match strokes with Miss Gourlay and Doris Park.

The foursomes are played as the Scotch play them, that is each pair playing only one ball, alternating on each stroke.

The foursomes will be played in the morning and the six singles in the afternoon.

OAKLAND HURLER EQUALS RECORD BY WHIFFING SIX

(By the Associated Press.)
A record of fanning 11 batters, six of them in a row, rested in the hands of Fay Thomas, Oakland hurler, today.

Thomas equalled a Coast league record set by Puggy Gould, May 25, 1927, in fanning six men in a row as Oakland defeated Portland, 4-0, last night for the third straight victory.

Another Coast league pitcher—Tony Freitas of Sacramento—fanned 11 men last night as the Senators took their first win of the present series over Seattle, 6-4. In their last 10 games the Senators have won two and both times Freitas was in the box.

Hollywood stopped the Missions' winning streak by taking last night's encounter, 4-0, while Sheehan, Star pitcher, retired 10 batters. The victory boosted Hollywood back into first place in league standings.

San Francisco's Seals gathered two runs and three hits in the first inning of last night's game with Los Angeles and worked up a lead which the Angels never overcame, the Seals taking the game, 6-3.

BRAY AND GUEST LAND 4 SALMON

Yesterday Dr. J. J. Bray had as his guest on a fishing trip to Savage Rapids dam, Dr. Cedric P. Wallace of Los Angeles, a son-in-law of Dr. Jud Rickert. Fishing was good for Dr. Bray's boat, though he only caught one while Dr. Wallace was lucky, having 11 strikes, hooking seven fish and landing three, the limit catch for a day. The four fish averaged a little better than twenty pounds each.

Dr. Bray says that salmon fishing must be done with the aid and favor of Lady Luck, with boat in the right place and plenty of patience. He sat in the boat all day with only one strike while his guest had the limit catch before 2:00 o'clock.

Fishing at the dam was fairly good all day in spite of the cloudy weather and strong wind blowing.
