

Society and Club Events Reviewed for Week

Edited by
Eva Nealon

Much Entertaining Welcomes Return Of Mrs. M. Feasley

The return from Chicago last week of Mrs. Milton Feasley has brought a revival of interest in entertaining and the month she will spend in Medford promises to be filled with gay affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred S. V. Carpenter entertained in her honor at dinner last evening at their country home on the Old Stage road. Guests were Mrs. Feasley, Mrs. Louis Salade, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. H. Chandler Egan, Mr. and Mrs. Corbin Edgell, T. Slater Johnston and C. S. Newhall.

Friday afternoon Mrs. Louis Salade Sr. was hostess at luncheon complimenting Mrs. Feasley. Covers were placed for Mesdames Alfred S. V. Carpenter, Leonard Carpenter, Corbin Edgell, Sprague Hiegel, Louis Salade, Jr., George Roberts, J. J. Emmens, Alice H. Lowry, Gail Robinson, F. Corning Kenly, the honor guest, Mrs. Feasley, and the hostess. Mrs. Corbin Edgell entertained for Mrs. Feasley's pleasure Friday evening, and Mrs. Roberts at tea Thursday afternoon.

Miss Carlton to View Conference With Dr. Warner

Miss Mildred Carlton, president of the Jackson County Public Health association, left yesterday for South Dakota, where she will join her friend, Dr. Estella Ford Warner, in attending the White House conference, then continue with her westward, stopping along the way to visit friends and attend various welfare meetings.

In Seattle, Wash., the two will attend the national convention of Federated clubs. Miss Carlton expects to return to her home on the Old Stage Road about June 20.

Medford Misses Chosen to Lead In Campus Life

Medford misses continue to play a prominent part in events on northern campuses. The past week brought news from Oregon State college, carrying the names of several members of the local younger set. Misses Flora McMath and Jean Woodford were pledged by Spure, national service honorary for sophomore women, at the annual convocation of the honorary, recently held on the campus.

Misses Winifred Warner, Doris Bundy, Louise Brommer, Flora McMath and Jean Woodford were named Big Sisters to guide members of the freshman class next year.

Musical Program To Be Presented Christian Church

A splendid program of vocal and instrumental music by local musicians will be presented this evening at 8:00 o'clock at the First Christian church, under the direction of Mrs. Effie Herbert Yeoman, leader of the church choir.

- Chorus, "I Know That I Shall Live Again".....Wilson
- Male Quartette, "Selected".....Rule
- "Crossing the Bar".....Chorus
- Soprano solo, "Glory to Thee, My God, This Night".....Gounod
- Katherine Wendt
- Chorus, "Round the Throne Eternal".....Donzetti
- Soprano and tenor duet, "Still, Still With Thee".....Gounod
- Effie Yeoman, M. E. Olson
- Ladies sextette, "The Silent Voice".....Carr
- First soprano, Genevieve Brown
- Eleanor Curry, second soprano
- Ennioe Smith, Leneve Stinkins
- altos, Oetha Olson, Virginia Gregory
- Chorus, "Now the Day is Over".....Adams
- Soprano, tenor and alto trio, "Lead Kindly Light".....Gounod
- (Arrangement of Berceuse from "Jocelyn").....Gadman
- Chorus, "Even Song".....Gadman
- Sop. obligato, Miss Curry.

Warner Home Scene Of Tuesday Party

The Mail Carriers Auxiliary gave a bridge party at the home of Mrs. W. J. Warner on South Oakdale Tuesday afternoon. There was a good attendance, twelve tables being in play. Mrs. E. C. Oadde carried off first prize, her score being 2689. Mrs. Knackstead won second with a score of 2535.

Mrs. R. A. Newland and Mrs. Lester Lawrence served delightful refreshments. Mrs. R. E. Swan had charge of the cards.

The next auxiliary business meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. D. Scripser, 715 Cedar street, Thursday, June 2. A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon. The auxiliary husbands and families are invited.

Tollefson, Chairman Beaux Art Ball

Merland Tollefson, son of Mr. and Mrs. T. Tollefson of Central Point and a former student of the Medford high school, is chairman of this year's Beaux arts ball on the University of Oregon campus, according to news from Eugene. The costume ball will be an event of May 27 and will be staged in the traditional Parisian setting.

Mr. Booth Visits Medford Friends

An interesting guest in Medford last week was Otis Booth, former resident of the Rogue River valley, now making his home at Pasadena. While here he was entertained by Paul Scherer and other friends among members of the ranch colony.

ROOSEVELTS AT WHITE HOUSE

In front of what they hope will be their future residence, Gov. and Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt are shown leaving the White House, after attending a dinner given 22 state executives by the president.

Hoagland-Hawkins Wedding in South Of Interest Here

Miss Venita Neomi Hoagland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Hoagland, of this city, became the bride of Olen Thomas Hawkins, son of Mrs. O. Odell of Long Beach, California, at 4 o'clock on May 11, at the home of the bride's brother, D. M. Hoagland in Long Beach, California, with Rev. Dr. Taubman of the First Christian church of Long Beach officiating.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a long white satin and lace wedding gown with a wreath of orange blossoms holding a long trailing veil. She carried a shower bouquet of lilacs-of-the-valley, pink rose buds and gardenias.

The two bridesmaids were Mrs. D. M. Hoagland and Miss Mildred Duden, both wore long flowered chiffon gowns and carried bouquets of pink sweetpeas and white anemones. The groom was attended by Don Miller of Long Beach.

Immediate relatives and friends were guests for the ceremony. The rooms of the Hoagland home were beautifully decorated in pink and white flowers for the occasion and an informal reception followed the wedding. The bride and groom left the same afternoon for the Big Pines, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will be at home to their friends after June 1 at 545 West Fifth street, Long Beach.

Church Luncheon To Fete Speakers

Three interesting guests will be in Medford Monday, May 23, for the meeting at the Methodist Episcopal church. They are: Mrs. W. R. Coffman of Tacoma, Wash., branch president of the Woman's Foreign Missionary society; Mrs. Paul Edwards of Portland, conference secretary of the W. P. M. S.; and Mrs. Lillian B. Davis, Roseburg, Cascade district corresponding secretary of the W. P. M. S.

Luncheon will be served at 1 o'clock for officers and visitors and will be followed by addresses by the visiting speakers, which members and their friends are invited to hear.

Mesdames McCaskey and Van Hovenberg Return

Mrs. H. D. McCaskey and Mrs. H. Van Hovenberg Jr., returned yesterday by motor from Eugene, having accompanied Mrs. John Cook upon her return to southern California following a week's visit here as guest of the McCaskeys.

Sanders Entertains Guests From Portland

Interesting guests in Medford last week were Miss Mildred Hendrickson and Harry Crawford of Portland, who spent several days visiting Miss Hendrickson's brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Sanders. While here they were the inspiration for several delightfully informal events and left Saturday for Prineville to be guests of Miss Hendrickson's parents.

W. R. C. To Attend Memorial Rites

Members of the Women's Relief corps will meet at the Baptist church at 10:45 a. m., Sunday to attend the memorial services in a body.

Mrs. Yarbrough Entertains Tuesday

Tuesday evening Mrs. J. B. Yarbrough will entertain the Pythian Sisters club in her home at 40 Quince street. All members are expected to attend.

Miss Johnston To Vacation Here

Miss Vivian Johnston, one of the instructors in the North Powder high school will be home Sunday to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnston of this city.

Lovely Shower and Tea Among Affairs Feting Miss Janes

Miss Mary Elizabeth Janes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Janes, whose wedding will be an event of Thursday afternoon, has been honor guest at several pleasant social affairs of the past week. Miss Gertrude Hawkins entertained with a miscellaneous shower for the bride-elect Friday evening, and Mrs. A. W. Aya and Mrs. O. B. Morrow will be joint hostesses at a tea for her pleasure Monday afternoon at the Aya home on East Main street.

Guild to Entertain With Bridge Party Friday Afternoon

A lovely party is predicted for Friday afternoon, May 27th, when members of St. Mark's Guild entertain at dinner bridge. Refreshments will be served at 1:15 and playing will begin at 2 o'clock.

The party will be the last one of the season under the auspices of the Guild women and extra festive plans are being made in view of that fact. Contract, progressive and pivot bridge will be played with prizes offered the winners in each.

Hostesses for the afternoon will be members of Mrs. M. W. Wagner's committee: Mesdames F. C. Reimer, Katherine Smith, Chas. Clay, Howard Scheffel and Gwendolyn Woodcock.

Royal Neighbors Enjoy Social Hour

The Royal Neighbors of America met Thursday evening for their regular business session. Considerable business was transacted and Mrs. W. Offutt was initiated into the mysteries of the degree.

After the meeting closed a short social hour was enjoyed with Mrs. E. D. Scripser, Mrs. Georgia Tedrick and Mrs. Susanne Braun in charge. Refreshments were served late in the banquet room by Mrs. Margaret Garrett, Nora Glascock, Mrs. Gebhart, Mrs. Chandler, Fredrick Glascock. The captain of the degree staff, Mrs. Margery Pearson, will take her staff to the Klamath Falls convention next Tuesday, May 24 to put on the initiatory work.

Sanders Entertains Guests From Portland

Interesting guests in Medford last week were Miss Mildred Hendrickson and Harry Crawford of Portland, who spent several days visiting Miss Hendrickson's brother-in-law and sister, Dr. and Mrs. L. L. Sanders. While here they were the inspiration for several delightfully informal events and left Saturday for Prineville to be guests of Miss Hendrickson's parents.

River Lodge Scene Of Pretty Wedding Saturday Evening

Before the rustic fireplace in the spacious living room of Big Rock lodge, country place of William F. Isaacs on Rogue river, the double ring ceremony was read last evening by Rev. Alexander G. Bennett of the Methodist Episcopal church, uniting in marriage Miss Gladys Gregory, daughter of Dr. Mrs. Egate of Los Angeles and Keith Pennell of this city, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Pennell of Eugene.

The bride, charming in a gown of white satin, created on princess lines with cow neck and train, carried a shower bouquet of roses and lilies of the valley. Bridesmaids, Miss Vera Snow of San Jose, and Miss Claire Martin of Eugene, both students at the University of Oregon, were attired in yellow and pink.

The groom was attended by Walter Lewasadder of Portland. Preceding the ceremony, LaVerne Sutherland sang "At Dawning." He was accompanied at the piano by Miss Jeannette Butler, who also played Lohengrin's wedding march for the entry of the bridal party and Mendelssohn's march at the close of the service.

Among the 25 guests in attendance were several from out of town: Dr. Nora Egate of Los Angeles, mother of the bride; Mrs. H. H. Pennell of Eugene, mother of the groom; Miss Virginia Groth of Eugene and Mrs. Lewasadder of Portland.

The wedding was followed by a small reception for relatives and friends. Japanese lanterns, swaying from the trees on the banks of the river, added color and beauty to the view from the veranda and spring flowers were arranged about the rooms.

Following a brief wedding trip, Mrs. Pennell will return to the University of Oregon, where she will graduate in June 12. She is affiliated with Alpha Xi Delta sorority on the northern campus and is well known among members of the university set here.

Mr. Pennell, a graduate of the University of Oregon, and former student of Oregon State college, plays a prominent part in club and business activities in Medford, where he is now associated with the Gardner Drug company.

Mrs. Grant Invites P. T. A. Workers to Dine at Her Home

Mrs. Carl Grant has invited the chairman of committees serving with her during the past year in P. T. A. work to meet for 1 o'clock luncheon at her home, 822 Minnesota street, Wednesday afternoon.

The program for the coming year will be planned and a social time enjoyed. Those present will be Mrs. E. C. Koppen, treasurer; Mrs. H. E. Himsberger, social chairman and Mesdames Arthur Short, J. C. Pederson, C. B. Trowbridge, Burton Lowry, Carl Fichtner, H. D. Powell, J. P. Gillings, G. W. Neilson, W. L. Jones, O. D. Frazer, Eugene Thorndike, George Bigler and Vernon Brophy.

W. R. C. To Attend Memorial Rites

Members of the Women's Relief corps will meet at the Baptist church at 10:45 a. m., Sunday to attend the memorial services in a body.

Mrs. Yarbrough Entertains Tuesday

Tuesday evening Mrs. J. B. Yarbrough will entertain the Pythian Sisters club in her home at 40 Quince street. All members are expected to attend.

Miss Johnston To Vacation Here

Miss Vivian Johnston, one of the instructors in the North Powder high school will be home Sunday to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Johnston of this city.

Wedding Date of Miss Janes Told

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Janes of Capitol Hill have announced Thursday, May 26, as date for the wedding of their daughter, Mary Elizabeth, to Clyde Edward Gilbert, son of Mrs. J. B. Gilbert of Columbia, Mo. The service will be read at 3 o'clock by Rev. Wm. B. Hamilton of the St. Mark's church, Episcopal, at the Janes home.

New Officers For Women of Rotary

Newly elected officers, who will head activities of Women of Rotary next year are Mrs. S. Ralph Dippel, president; Mrs. Raymond Mikache, vice president; Mrs. Edwin L. Knapp, secretary; Mrs. C. J. Semon, treasurer; and Mrs. Clinton Spencer and Mrs. D. A. Chambers, members of the board.

Election was held at the home of Mrs. Emil Mohr Wednesday, May 19, following desert bridge. Assisting the hostess were Mrs. A. Orin Schenck and Mrs. W. A. Whitehair.

Miss Severance At Eugene Convention

Miss Ruth Severance is spending the week-end in Eugene, where she is presiding over the national convention of Tenemidus, Eastern Star organization, of which she is national president. Miss Severance left Medford on Friday evening by train.

Last evening she attended the Phi Beta Kappa banquet, and while in the north will visit her sister, Miss Florence May Severance, a student at Oregon State college, Corvallis.

Standard Bearers Entertain Mothers

The Standard Bearers of the First M. E. church entertained the Missionary Foreign Mothers of the Woman's Foreign Mission society at the church Friday evening. The following lovely program was presented by the girls, with Miss Mayne Durke in charge: Greetings (the white carnation) Miss Dorothy Vandermark. Prayer by Mrs. A. G. Bennett. Vocal solo, "God's Greatest Gift" - Margaret Bateman, Zella Mae Grant accompanist.

Memory verses--To the mothers. Response by the mothers. Vocal solo, "Home" Miss La Vern Stephenson, Miss Grant accompanist. Reading of Standard Bearer's projects--Miss Durke. Piano solo, "Polouise" (by Chopet) - Miss Zella Mae Grant. Presentation of corsages by girls to the mothers.

Games were enjoyed followed by refreshments. Mrs. Carl C. Grant is leader of these girls and received much praise for her faithful work. Garrets Entertained At Many Events.

Much feted guests in Medford last week were Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Garrett of Santa Rosa, Cal., who visited Mr. and Mrs. George Garrett and Mr. and Mrs. Geary Garrett. Among those entertaining in their honor were Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Deuel, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Bardwell, Mr. and Mrs. Geary Garrett, Mrs. Fern Hutchison and Mrs. Frank Farrell.

Crowds Attend Lions Show Wednesday Evening

One of the most delightful events of the past week was the play presented Wednesday evening at the Holly theater by members of the local Lions club. Enjoyed by a capacity crowd, the play was much applauded and won enthusiastic praise for each member of the cast, composed of the following players: George Olson, director and actor; Mrs. George Olson, Jerry Barr, Mrs. Ernest Scott, Mrs. Jerry Barr, Don Collier, J. Verne Shangle, Ernest Scott and Leland Brophy.

Mrs. Huntress, Guest Here For Week-end Mrs. D. D. Huntress of Portland is in this city for the week-end, visiting relatives. She was guest last evening of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sanford Richardson at their home on Beall Lane.

Garden Show Holds Top Place on Club Calendar This Week

Flower lovers of southern Oregon are eagerly awaiting the annual show of the Medford Garden club, which will be held at the senior high school auditorium Thursday and Friday, May 26 and 27. Indication is made to a show which will surpass all predecessors in beauty of flower arrangement, variety of blossoms, and added features.

Committees named by Mrs. A. E. Reames, president of the club, for this year's event, are as follows: Executive chairman: Miss May Carlton, Mrs. A. E. Reames. Organizing committee: Mrs. A. S. V. Carpenter, Miss Anne Livingston, Mrs. Carl Swigart, Miss Carlton, Mrs. H. D. McCaskey, Mrs. Lewis Ulrich. Publicity: Mrs. Fred Cummings, Miss Carlton.

Entries and Classification: Mrs. Leland Menter, Mrs. C. C. Furnas, Mrs. Paul Janney, Mrs. Don Newbury, Mrs. C. C. Darby, Mrs. J. C. Wing. Diamonding: Miss Carlton, Mrs. R. E. Flowering shrubs: Mrs. E. H. Porter, Mrs. J. R. Woodford. Children's displays: Mrs. E. E. Wilson, Mrs. C. C. Darby, Mrs. Henry Pringle.

Occasional tables: Mrs. Louis A. Salade, Jr., Mrs. M. Feasley. Economy tables: Mrs. Lewis Ulrich. Decorative features: Miss Jane Steedlor.

Mrs. Davis is Hostess to Class Alpha Delta class of the First Christian church was entertained Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. T. Davis on East Main street. Mrs. R. L. Ray presided during the business meeting, and the remainder of the afternoon was spent at games, after which refreshments were served.

The group in charge of the affair, assisting the hostess, were Mrs. A. H. Gregory, Mrs. Mabel Marsh, Mrs. Allen D. Curry, Mrs. Jewett, Mrs. E. O. Walden, Mrs. E. R. White and Mrs. Gottfried.

Attend Convention In Klamath Falls

The Medford Business and Professional Women's club was well represented this week-end at the club convention in Klamath Falls. Among those attending the various meetings and social events were Mrs. Edwina Weishaar, club president; Miss Winifred Walker, Mrs. Belva Aiken, Mrs. Alice Coppin, Mrs. Maude Chapman, Mrs. Leola Thompson and Miss Eleanor Curry.

Shriners, Hosts At Gala Dancing Party

The dance pavilion at the Jackson county fair grounds was the gathering place of many society folk, who attended the gala party, at which members of the Shrine entertained. Several dinner parties preceded the dance.

Social Night, Plan of Reames Chapter

Wednesday, May 25, Mrs. Hal Platt and members of her committee will be hostesses at the social evening planned by Reames chapter, O. E. S. Bridge will be played following the chapter meeting, which will open at 8 o'clock.

Class Day Planned At Valley School

Invitations will soon be out for class day at the Valley school, arranged this year for June 3. A program will be presented, beginning at 11 o'clock, and will be followed by luncheon.

Catholic Women Plan Card Party

The women of the Sacred Heart Catholic church will entertain Wednesday afternoon with another one of their much enjoyed card parties at Parish hall. Playing will begin at 2 o'clock with attractive prizes offered the winners at cards. Refreshments will follow the usual number of games.

Mesdames A. Duff, Rose Schefflein and J. C. Murray and their assistants will be hostesses for the afternoon. Wenonah Club Has Happy Evening at Cards There were 17 tables in play and 17 prizes awarded at the meeting of the Wenonah club Friday evening at Redmen hall. Games enjoyed were bridge, 500 and pinochle. The tables were beautifully decorated for the occasion and refreshments served at a late hour.

Miss Heard to Wed Frederick Johnson at Church Service

Miss Itha L. Heard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Heard, has decided upon June 12 as date for her marriage to Frederick Johnson, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Johnson. The wedding will be an event of the afternoon in the First Presbyterian church.

Greater Oregon Women to Name Officers Tuesday

The next regular meeting of the Medford Branch of the Women's Greater Oregon association will be held Tuesday afternoon, May 24 at 2:30 at the Medford Hotel. There will be election of officers for the coming year and report of this association's part in the banquet held May 10.

A speaker will be present to tell of another Oregon product. All women of the valley are cordially invited to be present. Standard Bearers to Hold Last Meeting The Standard Bearers class of the First Methodist Episcopal church, a branch of the Women's Foreign Missionary society, will meet Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock for the last session of the season. The last chapter of the book, "Christ Comes to the Village," will be completed and officers for the new year elected.

Members of the class are: Dorothy Buchter, Gale Berry, LaVern Stephenson, Dorothy Van Der Mark, Eleanor Oulm, Margaret Bateman, Glennia Miner, Mamie Durcke and Zella Mae Grant.

Methodist Ladies Aid Meets Tuesday The Ladies Aid society of the First M. E. church will meet in regular "Home Coming" in the church parlor Tuesday afternoon. The Priscilla Circle will arrange the entertainment.

She deserves a GRUEN

You want to reward her Graduation so choose a watch that is as fine as this task she's completed. Don't be satisfied with less than a GRUEN. We'll gladly explain its greater worth and finer quality.

Green... a stylish design, with link bracelet to match, 15 jewels, $25

Mayflower... a narrow Graven link bracelet, with fine 17 jewel precision movement $48.75

Other Watches $12.75

Dental Prices Reduced

Special Low Prices to Close June 10th

To delay means to lose. Free extractions with double-suction plates guaranteed to fit.

Special Reductions in bridge-work and fillings FREE EXAMINATIONS

Dr. Thompson

Over Woolworth's Phone 70. 123 E. Main

Ore and Bullion Purchased

Licensed by State of California Established 1907

WILDBERG BROS.

SMELTING & REFINING CO.

Office: 74 Market St., San Francisco Plant: South San Francisco

Have Money For OLD AGE

WHILE you still have your strength and health you should prepare for later life. You can not go on working FOREVER. In old age have enough money to take care of your needs. No one wants to be dependent upon others... increase your bank balance NOW.

START SAVING REGULARLY NOW We Welcome YOUR Banking Business

Farmers and Fruitgrowers Bank

Medford, Oregon

Partners in Community Development

THINK! HAVE MONEY!

NEW LOW PRICES

Effective immediately we will serve a complete lunch including soup, meat order, vegetable, dessert and drink for as low as—

20c

You will find the same high quality food at the same excellent service we have always offered

PAY US A VISIT

DIAMOND CAFE

127 E. 6th St.

A Treasured Possession

To own a diamond is thrill enough, but to be the first to ever own a Virgin gem is a joy that increases with the years. The knowledge that your diamond was never before worn, that your finger was the first it ever adorned, truly commemorates this Big Occasion in your life. Genuine Virgin Diamonds, of guaranteed quality and at standard prices, are sold exclusively through

AUTHORIZED VIRGIN DIAMOND DEALERS

Lawrence's

Featuring Longtues, Waltham, Hamilton, Elgin Watches

In a Wide Range of 14K, 18K, 22K, 24K