

BOATMEN PROMISE THRILLING DAY IN EMIGRANT RACES

Boating enthusiasts from all parts of southern Oregon and northern California will assemble today at Emigrant dam for the championship speed boat races beginning promptly at 2:00 p. m. This is the final race meet of the season at Emigrant and extensive arrangements have been made to make today's meet the largest and best show of its kind ever held in this area.

Champion speed boat drivers from all sections of California, Oregon and Washington began arriving here last night and many more were expected early today. Over $500 in prize money and trophies will be awarded. Competition for the Bradford trophy among the local drivers, promises to be one of the highlights of the meet. Three local pilots, Dutch Welch, Joe Meyers and Heine Fisher, have each won the trophy once and any of them will be able to retain the beautiful loving cup permanently by winning the free for all today.

This is the feature event of the meet and is run in two heats, ten miles each. In the last meet at the dam, there were three tipovers during the race and one contestant lost his motor off his boat while going down the straightaway wide open. The program will consist of ten races and over 25 drivers have signed up to battle for the honors. Local drivers to compete are Dutch Welch, Floyd House, Harold Grey, Joe Meyers, Jackie Terrell, Fred McPherson, Stanley Smith and Heine Fisher. Local fans are backing them to the limit and expect them to hold their own. At the last contest, four involuntary baths and other bad breaks eliminated the Medfordites one by one.

A loud speaker system has been brought up from San Francisco by the Standard Oil company to announce the details from the judges' float.

State police and the highway department are co-operating in an effort to handle the hundreds of cars that will be parked along the highway to take care of the crowd of 5000 people expected to attend.
