

CALIFORNIA BOATS WIN MAIN HONORS AT EMIGRANT DAM

Wilbur, Harrison and Millot in Big Money—Local Pilots Suffer Hard Luck and Many Capsizes

California racing pilots captured a large measure of the prize money at the Southern Oregon Boat club's outboard motorboat regatta at Emigrant lake yesterday, before a large crowd of spectators. The speedy new "Miss Sacramento," driven by Everett Wilbur, swept into first place in both the C and D races. "Legionnaire," driven by Tom Harrison, won the B race. Ernie Millos of Stockton, Cal., in the powerful C-183, took first honors in the free-for-all, and the same pilot won the runabout event in "Miss Mahoney."

Thrilling bursts of speed, close battles for the tape and breath-taking spills marked the interesting regatta. The big thrill of the day for the spectators occurred in the first heat of the free-for-all when the Flying Dutchman, Heinie Fluhrer, crashed into the judges' boat and spilled Ted Baker into the brine. Heinie's "Bad News," the re-christened "Black Friday," was badly damaged and sank soon after the accident.

Grey Captures Mount. Harold Grey, who did some fine piloting of one of Medford's fastest boats, "Irish Luck," was thrown from his boat while cutting around the east buoy in the second heat of the D event. "Irish Luck," as if guided by an unseen hand, circled the buoy and Harold seized the little craft as it circled past him, clambered in and resumed the race. Everett Wilbur had a similar experience in the last Emigrant lake regatta.

In the first heat of the D race, Dutch Welch was plunged into the water on the west turn when his boat, "Madam Queen," turned over. In the second heat of the same race, Smith Wilbur, in "Miss O'Brien," also spilled. In the free-for-all, Stan Smith in "Holsum," turned over.

Harrison High Man. The winners of the races, determined by the judges on the point system, were as follows: Class B race—Tom Harrison in "Legionnaire," first with 800 points; John Pierstein in "Miss Albany," second with 722 points; Everett Wilbur in "Miss Sacramento," with 648 points.

Everett Wilbur in "Miss Sacramento," won the class C race with 800 points; Joe Meyer in "Irish Luck," was second, with 648 points; and John Pierstein in "Miss Albany," was third with 617 points.

In the class D race, Everett Wilbur in "Miss Sacramento," again won first place with 781 points. Heinie Fluhrer in "Bad News," was second with 660 points, and John Pierstein in "Legionnaire," secured third with 480 points.

The free-for-all was won by Ernie Millos of Stockton in "C-183," the only boat with a powerful 60-horsepower motor. Millos scored a perfect 900 points. "Miss Sacramento," again driven by Everett Wilbur, was second with 722 points, while Floyd House in "Honey Affre," was third with 512 points.

Boat Has Speed. E. Millos again won first place in the runabout race in "Miss Mahoney," scoring 400 points. This speedy boat placed in the national motorboat races in Oakland last year and is considered one of the coast's fastest runabouts. John Santos of Woodland, Cal., in "Miss Ruth," won second with 261 points, and Smith Wilbur of Sacramento won third in "Wilbro," with 224 points.

The judges for the regatta were Parker Bundy, Jerry Jerome, Clatous McCredie, W. S. Bolger, Tom Robinson and L. Pennington. Also serving as official starter and Ted Baker presided over the standard Oil company's public address system. Otto Howard and Cap Martin had charge of the east end of the course and Coby Osenbruge the west end. Roland Emerson supervised the dock and Clyde Scott had charge of the parking.

A banquet was held at the Hotel Medford last night, following the races, and Horace Bromley of the California Oregon Power company showed moving pictures of past outboard motorboat races.

TRAYNOR PLAYS IN 1500 GAMES

PITTSBURG, May 23.—(AP)—Captain Pie Traynor of the Pittsburgh Pirates, who carries a baseball in his pocket all the time and talks baseball in his sleep, has played his 1500th game in a Blue uniform.

Pie waded through a pile of congratulatory telegrams and pushed aside a group of well-wishers to teammates to take his post at third base against the world champion St. Louis Cardinals yesterday and thus round out his record.

Traynor joined the Pirates late in the 1920 season. The following year he started at Birmingham, and returned to the "big show" to continue as an ace third-baseman.

Washington High Wins Field Meet. FOREST GROVE, Ore., May 23.—(AP) Washington high, Portland, holders of the Oregon state interscholastic championship, Saturday won collective honors in the tenth annual open tournament staged on the Pacific field. It was a strong group team, picking points here and there, and proved its ability to wear the state crown.

DEATH SUMMONS BULGER NOTED BASEBALL WRITER

NEW YORK, May 23.—(AP)—Boseman Bulger, 54, one of baseball's best known reporters, died suddenly at his home at Lynbrook, L. I., yesterday from a heart attack.

He was a baseball writer for the New York Evening World for 26 years and also wrote magazine articles and a baseball play in which Christy Mathewson was the central figure. He recently completed a book on the career of John J. McGraw, manager of the New York Giants, who was one of his closest friends.

Bulger served in the World War

as a major and later lieutenant-colonel, and also served in the Spanish-American war.

Born in Dadeville, Ala., Bulger was graduated from the University of Alabama with a law degree. He quit law work to become a reporter on the Birmingham Age-Herald where he finally became managing editor. In 1905 he joined the Evening World with which he remained until it was sold last year.

He leaves his widow and one married daughter.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow evening in the Masonic temple at Lynbrook.

BEAVER SLUGGERS TAKE BOTH ENDS OF DOUBLE BILL

Oaks Shut Out Twice in Sunday Engagements—Solons and Angels Also Capture Double Headers

(By the Associated Press.)

Sacramento, Portland and Los Angeles batted their way to double-header victories to close the week's activities in the Pacific Coast league. Portland took the measure of Oakland, 3-0, in the initial clash and returned to blank the Acorns, 1-0, in a return engagement. Errors by Oakland were largely responsible for the Oaks losing the second game as Ed Walsh pitched one-hit ball for the Josephs. A score in the sixth and four more in the seventh secured the first game for Portland.

Solons Win Twice. The Senators sharpened their batting eyes yesterday and aided by good pitching downed Seattle by scores of 14-3 in the opener and 7-1 in the second game.

In defeating San Francisco, 5-1 and 2-2, Los Angeles handed the former league leaders their third straight loss. Roy Herman held the Seal batters helpless in the first game and Ed Baugh tightened in the pinches to cap the second with the aid of some snappy fielding. A running, one-handed catch of Dittmar's line drive by Culk, San Francisco left-fielder, was a feature of the second game.

Reds, Stars Split Card. The Mission Reds, who have come up considerably in the past few games, had to be content with splitting yesterday's doubleheader, with Hollywood, but they took the series. Frank Shellenback, star hurler, limited the Reds to seven hits in the first game and banged a homer himself as Hollywood won, 3-2.

The Reds got an early start in the following encounter, to make the final score 3-2 in their favor.

The series ended: Los Angeles 5, San Francisco 1 (one game rained out); Oakland 4, Portland 3; Sacramento 4, Seattle 3; Missions 5, Hollywood 2.

Games this week, beginning Tuesday: Missions at San Francisco (afternoon); Oakland at Seattle; Hollywood at Los Angeles; Sacramento at Portland (night games).

In yesterday's baseball game between Talent and Grants Pass, the Cavemen were victorious on their home field, by an 8 to 2 score, with Cook pitching for Grants Pass. A large crowd attended the game which was replete with thrills.

At the fairgrounds Sunday, the Jacksonville nine took the game from the Medford Eagles 8 to 3 with Hughes striking out 13, and Coffman for Medford, 3. Coffman got a three-bagger and Robbie also of the Eagles, a two-base hit.

Louis Puhl, secretary of the Rogue Valley baseball league, today announced a double header for next Sunday at the Jackson county fair grounds, the proceeds to be presented to Mrs. John Logan.

Grants Pass is scheduled to meet Medford, and Jacksonville is to play Talent. The first game will start at one o'clock. Tickets for the benefit one o'clock. Tickets for the benefit and the Club, in Medford; Thompson's Playhouse in Grants Pass, and at the Nugget in Jacksonville.

GADDOCK FLIRTS WITH COMEBACK

WALNUT, Ia.—(AP)—After a 12-year retirement, Earl Gaddock is considering a comeback campaign in the professional wrestling arena.

This one-time heavyweight champion, who won his title by throwing Joe Stecher in 1918, says he has been offered substantial sums for appearances in comeback matches.

BRITISH CHAMPION IS ELIMINATED BY AMERICAN GOLFER

Muirfield, Scotland, May 23.—(AP)—Leonard Martin of the Apawamick club, Rye, N. Y., eliminated the defending champion, Eric Martin Smith, in the first round of the British amateur golf championship here today.

Martin played fine golf to defeat the British titleholder, approaching and putting beautifully. He sank several long ones in tight places to keep ahead of Smith.

The young Englishman, son of a London banker, was the first to reach the American and congratulate him, affectionately putting his arm around Martin's shoulders.

Douglas Grant, a former California champion and a resident of England for several years, defeated W. S. Peacock two and one at the advance to the second round.

Paul Ashill, formerly of New Jersey, but for some years resident in England, was defeated by Andrew Jamieson of Scotland, 6 and 5, also in the first round match. Jamieson was the young Scot who eliminated Bobby Jones in the 1926 championship which also was played at Muirfield. Ashill was entered from the Sunningdale club.

WILL TALK FISH LADDER FOR DAM

Installation of a fish ladder on the south side of Savage Rapids dam will be discussed at the Hotel Medford tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock, it was announced today by members of the Jackson County Game Protective association.

Ways and means of installing and financing the plan will be presented. Commissioner Irving Vining and the new game supervisor, Frank Wire of Portland, and Engineer Ralph Cowgill will be present to provide a plan and estimates on costs.

The fish and game committee of the chamber of commerce will make a report of the investigation recently made at the dam, where fish are finding it impossible to continue their journey up the river. Recommendations will be included in the report.

All fishermen and other interested persons are invited to attend the meeting.

GROVE AND FOX MIGHTY FACTORS IN CLIMB OF A'S

Seventh Successive Victory Carries Team to Third Rung in Ladder—Sixth Win in Row for Grove

By Herbert W. Barker, (Associated Press Sports Writer.)

The good left arm of Robert (Lefty) Grove and the mighty bat of Jimmy Fox are leading the Philadelphia Athletics out of the darkness of the American League standings.

Behind Grove's six-hit pitching and with the aid of home-runs by Fox, Al Simmons and Mickey Cochrane, the A's bowled over the New York Yankees, 4-2, yesterday for their seventh successive victory. As a result, the A's moved into third place, three points behind the second place Washington Senators and four and a half games behind the Yankees.

Grove's Sixth in Row. Grove, in winning his sixth game in a row, outpitched Henry Johnson by the narrowest of margins. Johnson allowed only five hits in the eight innings he worked and struck out seven, but could not keep the home-run ball away from the A's "big three."

Washington got four-hit pitching from young Monte Weaver and whipped the Boston Red Sox, 7-1. Cleveland dropped into fifth place as a result of a 4-2 beating at the hands of the St. Louis Browns.

Ninth inning rallies won two games for the Chicago White Sox from the Detroit Tigers. Johnny Hodapp's homer won the first, 3-2, and Lou Blue's triple was the high spot of a five-run rally that won the second, 3-2.

Braves Near Leaders. The Boston Braves drew to within two percentage points of the National league lead by splitting a double bill with the Phillies while the league-leading Chicago Cubs were taking another beating from the Cincinnati Reds.

Ed Brandt pitched five-hit ball to give the Braves the opener, 4-2, but singles by Klein, Hutz and George Davis in the tenth inning gave the Phillies the nightcap, 5-3.

Ray Kolp had the better of a pitchers' duel with Charley Root as the Reds won their third in a row from the Cubs. The two Brooklyn castoffs, Babe Herman and Ernie Lombardi, drove in all four Red runs.

Bill Clark held the New York Giants to five hits as the Dodgers won a 2-1 victory. Pittsburgh won the first game from the St. Louis Cardinals, 6-1, but dropped the second, 5-3.
