

GEHRIG'S HOMER PROVES DANGER IN GROOVING 'EM

Blow Over Right Field Fence Is Disastrous for Senators — Braves Lose National League Pinnacle to Cubs

By Gayle Talbot (Associated Press Sports Writer)

One bad pitch a game, one ball that gets away from the pitcher and goes down the batters alley, can very easily cost a good team a pennant, said Walter Johnson recently in explaining his preference for moundmen with tight control.

As if to bear out his boss' contention, General Alvin Crowder of the Washington Senators tossed one up that exactly suited Lou Gehrig of the Yankees in the sixth inning of yesterday's tilt between the American league pace-setters.

How Clear Bases

Three Yanks were on base at the time and Gehrig, further bearing out Johnson's theory, spanked the ball over the right field fence. The Yanks gathered another run in the ninth for a final score of 5 to 0, but it was Gehrig's blow that knocked the wind out of the Senators. Charley Buffing didn't give them a hit the last six innings.

The victory perched the Yankees on top by four full games and left the Senators with only a two-game lead over the third place Detroit Tigers, who were beating Chicago, 11 to 2, in the first half of a scheduled doubleheader. The second game was rained out in the fifth with the count tied, 1 to 1.

Brooklyn got its batting order mixed up and lost a run that would have won in regulation time, but went on to beat the Giants anyway, 3 to 2, in twelve rounds.

Pittsburgh made it three straight from Cincinnati, 3 to 2, and went into fifth place, scoring all its runs off Red Lucas in the second inning.

BUFFALO BOXER IS FEATHER KING

DETROIT, May 27.—(AP)—Tommy Paul, game little warrior from Buffalo, N. Y., today wears the National Boxing association's belt, emblematic of the featherweight championship.

He won it handily last night by outfighting Johnny Pena, rugged New Yorker, throughout most of the 15-round final bout of a tournament to fill the vacancy left when Bat Belialino outgrew the division. Referee Slim McCallahan's score card gave Paul every round but the seventh.

Paddock was quoted to the effect that he previously had been refused a card because of his motion picture work, the A. A. U. believing that his work had removed him from amateur status.

YALE'S NEW SPORT PLAN SHAKES COLLEGE WORLD

NEW YORK, May 27.—(AP)—Yale's athletic right-about-face caught the college sports world unawares today and left it astonished and perhaps, mildly aghast as well.

Only scattering comment on Old Eli's plan of sharp curtailment of intercollegiate competition in favor of intra-mural sports, was available as most college heads preferred to take "time out" and study the report.

What comment there was, however, was distinctly favorable, although here and there a dissenting voice was heard.

MAUREEN CARDS 73 FOR OPENING OF BRITISH PLAY

SAULTON, Devonshire, England, May 27.—(AP)—Maureen Orcutt, Englewood, N. J., star, posted a fine 73 for the first 18 holes of the 36-hole qualifying round in the British women's golf championship today.

Playing steadily all the way, Miss Orcutt was out in 38 and home in 35 to finish her round only two over par of 71. Her putting was deadly most of the way. She holed a 30-footer at the 17th and a 10-footer at the 18th.

With a dozen players finished, here was the first score under 90.

Mrs. Rene Lacombe, wife of the famous French tennis player, posted a 75 for her first round.

Virginia Holzberger, of Richmond, Va., virtually shot herself out of the championship by taking 102 strokes.

Mrs. O. S. Hill took a shaky 88 for her first round and probably will have to do several strokes better than that in her last 18 tomorrow if she is to qualify with the low 64 and tie.

Virginia Van Wie, fourth American to finish, posted a 77. Anything under 90 tomorrow should qualify her for match play.

Mrs. Glenna Collett Vare took an 80, ispeing to a mediocre 42 coming home after a fine 38 going out. The score left her considerable margin, however, for the last 18.

Ninth Inning Rally Produces Eight Runs for Hollywood in 'Civil War' — Ducks Trim Sacramento 6-2

(By the Associated Press.)

Hollywood leads the Pacific Coast league today as the result of beating Los Angeles last night, 9 to 6. It was the third straight victory for the Stars in the southern "civil war."

A ninth inning rally which produced eight runs on seven hits turned the trick. Frank Shellenback pitched the full route for Hollywood, while it required three pitchers for the Angels to retire the side after the Stars started their victory march.

Wilbur Hubbell pitched two-hit ball up to the ninth inning for Portland yesterday, enabling the Ducks to beat Sacramento, 6 to 2.

The Missions scored four runs in the fifth inning to take the lead from the Seals, but in the seventh Hunt knocked a homer for the Seals, scoring one man ahead of him, and this gave his team its first victory over the Reds in the current series.

Koenig, normally a third baseman, pitched for the Missions and held the Seals to eight hits.

Hal Hald, who went to Seattle from the Boston Braves, shut out Oakland last night, 3 to 0, allowing only three hits. George Burns, first baseman, accounted for two of the Seattle runs, scoring in the second inning on a double steal after knocking a triple to the outfield, and enabling Welsh to score in the sixth by lining out a single when needed.

SEATTLE, May 27.—(AP)—The University of Washington baseball team, assured of at least a tie for the northern division title, clashes with the University of Oregon in the final of a two-game series here today.

Behind the pitching of Ed "Spec" Putnam, who closed his intercollegiate baseball career with not a single game lost in three years' play and 17 victories, the Huskies took a 7 to 6 victory yesterday.

Hunters' Funerals Keep Beagle Pack On Go In England

LONDON.—(AP)—The Holme Valley beagle pack was almost as busy at funerals this past season as at hunting. In addition to three meets a week the dogs had to participate in eight funerals.

The custom is that when members of the Yorkshire hunt die, Huntsman Ernest Green leads the beagles at the head of the funeral cortege. The dogs are left at the cemetery gate. After the service the huntsman stands at the graveside and sounds the "stole away" on his hunting horn.

The "stole away" is the huntsman's taps, the recall for the pack, and signifies that the fox has gone, crept into hiding.
