

Camera's Eye Catches Interesting Events and Personalities of Week

EASY FOR FREITAS—BUT TRY IT

It's no trick for Tony Freitas, pitcher for the Sacramento Senators, to hold eight regulation baseballs in one hand. Count them.

Sooner Girl In Films

Lynn Browning of Venita, Okla., went to Hollywood and made good. Soon she will appear in a new production.

SMALL TO BATTLE CHICAGOAN FOR GOVERNORSHIP

Another political fight between Chicago and downstate Illinois was forecast by results of the state's primary vote, in which Len Small (right), former governor, again was chosen to head the state's republican ticket in the November election. Opposing him will be Judge Henry Horner (center in group at left) of Chicago, democratic nominee whose campaign was sponsored by political forces led by Chicago's mayor, An ton J. Cermak (phone in hand).

'QUEEN HELEN' BOBS HER HAIR

This is one of the first pictures taken of Helen Willis Moody, the tennis queen, since she bobbed her hair. She calls it "just a conservative trim."

NEW RED SLUGGERS GET TOGETHER

Two of the most important acquisitions of the Cincinnati Reds' new "power outfield" are pictured together in Chicago, where Chick Hafey (right), ex-St. Louis Cardinal, joined the Redlegs. At the left is Babe Herman, who went to the Reds from Brooklyn in an early spring six-player deal.

MINNEAPOLIS GIRL IN MOVIE DEBUT

One glance is sufficient to learn why Muriel Evans of Minneapolis has crashed the gates of Hollywood. This is how she appears in her movie debut.

IN THIS CORNER—THE GRIFFITHSES

Gerald Ambrose "Tuffy" Griffiths, heavyweight boxer from Sioux City, Ia., is shown leaving a Chicago church with his bride, formerly Helen Hayes of Chicago. After a trip to Tuffy's home town a Florida honeymoon is scheduled.

Tumbles Favorites

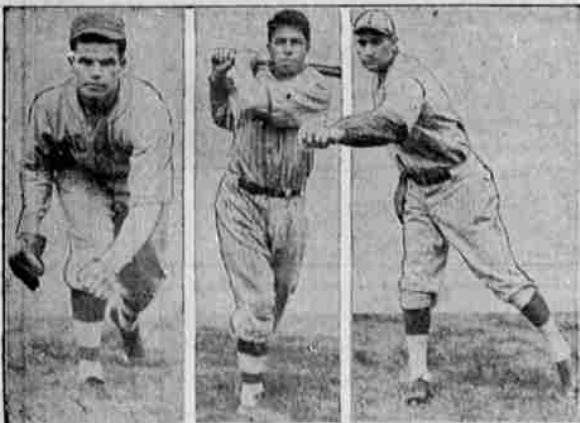

Gregory Mangin of Newark, N. J., rose sensationally to near the top of American tennis by his brilliant play in the national indoor singles, where he beat Christian Boustas, Sidney Wood, George Lott and Frank Shields to win the title.

Star's Outfielder

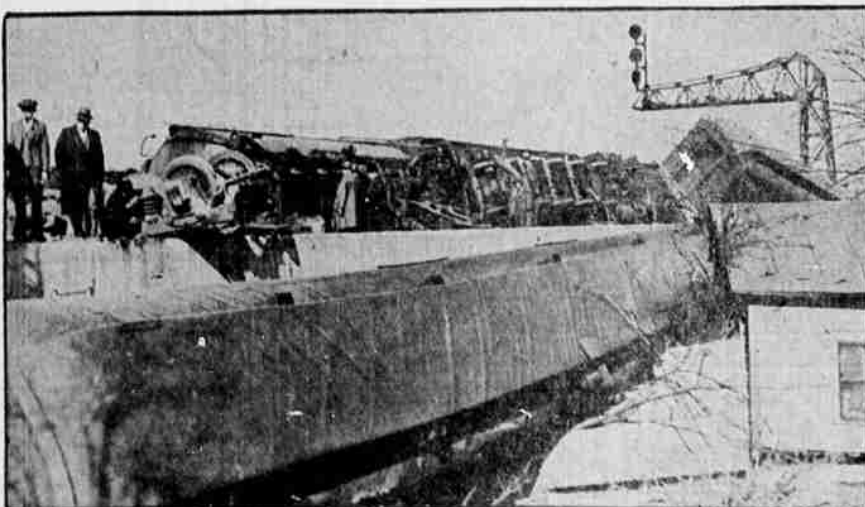

Cleo Carlyle will be called upon to take up his post in the outer garden when Hollywood appears against other Coast League clubs.

SEATTLE DEPENDS ON SOUTHPAWS

When the baseball season rolls around, the Seattle club is going to rely on two of its left handed pitchers, Dick Freitas and Phil Page to win a few games. Mel Almada is the most promising rookie. Left to right: Freitas, Almada, Page.

TWO DIE IN WRECK AS FAST TRAIN IS DERAILED

The engineer and fireman of the Grand Trunk railroad's Maple Leaf Flyer were killed as the train was derailed at South Bend, Ind., with one mail car crashing into a house next to the tracks, injuring a mother and three children asleep there. No passengers were hurt. This picture shows some of the upset coaches and the car that was hurled into the house.

Alabama Beauty

Hardee Martin, a student at Howard college, Birmingham, Ala., is one of six beauties whose photograph was chosen to grace the school's year book for 1932.

W. C. T. U. LEADERS IN MIDWEST MEET

Led by Mrs. Ella A. Boole (left) of Brooklyn, leaders of the Women's Christian Temperance Union held a midwest meeting in Chicago to rekindle the fires of prohibition preparatory to the presidential election. Mrs. Boole is president of the organization and Mrs. Ida B. Wise Smith (right) of Des Moines, Ia., is vice president.

GRETA NISSEN WITH HER HUSBAND

Greta Nissen, film actress who has become the wife of Weldon Heyburn, actor, is shown with him just before their departure from Hollywood via airplane to Tia Juana, Mexico, where they were married.

McADOO AIDS GARNER BOOM

William G. McAdoo (right), former secretary of the treasury, in conference with Speaker John N. Garner in Washington. Mr. McAdoo predicted that Mr. Garner had "an excellent chance" to be the democratic party's standard bearer and told the Texan he would win California's delegation of 44 in the May primaries.

Director Indicted

Edwin Carewe, once a leading motion picture director, was indicted in Los Angeles on charges of evading income tax payments amounting to $108,547.

Clips World Mark

Ben Eastman (above) of Stanford university clipped a full second from Ted Meredith's 18-year-old world 440-yard record, running it in 46.4 seconds at Palo Alto, Cal.

Hits Farm Loans

"Prize boob in the history of finance," was the stamp Secretary Arthur M. Hyde placed on his department in giving satisfaction over turning the agriculture department into a money lending agency for benefit of farmers.

Follows Father

Another Enrico Caruso may some day sing in opera. Enrico Caruso Jr., 28, son of the famous tenor, recently arrived in New York en route to Los Angeles to study singing under the tutelage of Adolph De La Huerta, once president of Mexico.