

LOCAL BOATMEN WIN LAURELS IN BRIDGE REGATTA

The $250 gold cup offered by Count Hay Dullary for the boat club winning the most places in the Gold Beach outboard motorboat regatta over the week-end, was captured by the Medford "navy," and will be displayed at the local chamber of commerce. All of the gold contained in the cup was taken from the Rogue river.

In the class B races, John Pierstein of Albany, well-known here, took first place, with Floyd House of Medford in "House Affie" coming in second. Tom Harrison, Klamath Falls took first in class C. Second and third honors, respectively, were made by Joe Meyers and Floyd House in that group.

First place in class D was taken over by Harold Grey of this city, with another local, "Dutch" Welch, second. George Hurley of Albany took third.

The free-for-all event was won by Grey, with Pierstein second and Welch third. Sunday's races were eliminated, because of the rough weather, and damage to several boats.

The boat driven by Welch in the races, belonging to him and Gene Wright, was damaged enroute to Medford when a wheel came off the trailer.

The Medford delegation participating in the racing events, Floyd House, Harold Grey, Joe Meyer, Dutch Welch, Jack Terrett, Jim Daily and Fred McPherson were today voicing their appreciation of the wonderful entertainment they received through the courtesy of the Gold Beach committee.

Sunday evening a banquet was conducted at the Breakers hotel, with Sheriff Paul Turner as toastmaster. He presented the cup to the Medford delegation, and stated that the gold in the cup, all taken from the Rogue river, "had probably all washed down to the coast from Medford."

The Gold Beach chamber of commerce committee in charge of the races was Dr. A. C. Jewell, Earl C. Williams of the state police, game division, Sheriff Turner, R. H. Smith and Loren Hauber.

The racers stated today that through the co-operation of the commercial fishermen, the portion of the river was cleared, in order that they might use that particular section for the races.

Participating in the motor regatta were four boats sent from the Klamath county chamber of commerce and four from the Eureka chamber of commerce.

UNION STATES LIFE OREGON LICENSE IS GRANTED RENEWAL

The Union Life Insurance company, Oregon's second fully-qualified legal reserve life insurance company, received its renewal license from A. H. Averill, insurance commissioner of Oregon, and completed its capitalization May 21, 1932.

The company began business on November 12, 1931, as successor to the Pioneer Assurance association, which originally commenced business as an Oregon fraternal society in 1901.

The Union States Life Insurance company, which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Capitol Underwriters corporation, has issued a statement of financial condition as of May 6, 1932, which shows assets of $215,474.02, all of which the company has on deposit with the treasurer of the state of Oregon. The company has no liabilities other than the reserves on insurance in force, and has in addition to reserves a combined capital and surplus of $185,000.04.

"The Union States Life Insurance company has actually broken world records for the production of business by new companies," stated Wayne E. Hibbard, president, today.

"Since November 12, 1931, the company has issued policies to more than 1543 citizens of Oregon and now has more than six million dollars of life insurance in force. Up to this date our company has received applications for more than nine and a half million dollars of life insurance, which is a record never before achieved by any new company."

In addition to Hibbard, who is well-known in insurance circles in Oregon by reason of his heading the Capitol Underwriters corporation since its organization in 1920, other officers of the company are widely known. P. F. McGinnis is vice-president and superintendent of agencies, F. W. Kaiser is vice-president, H. W. Bertulett, secretary, and R. E. Hollowell, treasurer.

AGED PROSPECTOR SOUGHT IN ATTACK ON MEDFORD MAN

Siakiyou county, California, authorities were due here today to return T. L. Filler, aged prospector of the Middle fork of the Applegate district to Yreka, Calif., to answer to a charge of assault upon Elmer Leslie, 30, plumber of this city, Monday.

Leslie was scheduled to swear out a complaint against Filler.

The alleged assault took place on a trail along the Middle Fork, just across the Oregon-California state line. Filler is said to be at his lonely cabin.

According to the story told by young Leslie to the sheriff's office, he was walking along the forest service trail high above the Middle Fork waters and that was the last thing he remembers until two hours later when he regained consciousness on the banks of the stream. His gun and hat were gone and his pockets turned inside out.

Leslie says that he was walking alone and has no idea what hit him. The side of his head was badly bruised, as if he had been hit by some flat, heavy object.

Leslie says that he had a dispute with Filler over some mining matters and that Filler demanded the return of legal papers exchanged in the transaction.

Filler, according to the sheriff's office is a miner and prospector of the Middle Fork district for several years, and his holdings are in California. He was brought to this city several months ago for investigation.

HUBBARDS HIKE IN TO DIAMOND LAKE CABIN TO ENJOY HOLIDAYS

Making the trip into the resort by hiking four miles through the snow, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Hubbard and children visited Diamond lake last week-end and spent the holiday at their cabin.

They left their auto where the highway ends and walked over snow, ranging in depths from three and four to two feet, but encountered no difficulties in making the trip. The lake side was free from snow and their cabin was in fine condition. It snowed all day Saturday, but they and the other guests, several parties from Klamath Falls, and Wallace Wood and son, Harold, of this city, enjoyed the storm, they reported today.

It took them about two hours to hike the four miles, Mr. Hubbard stated this morning, and the children showed themselves to be the best mountaineers in the crowd.

PRESSURE-COOKING MAKES NEW SHREDDED BISCUIT TASTIER

Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit Great Improvement

One of the first things to be noticed about the new, improved Kellogg's WHOLE WHEAT Biscuit is the unusually delightful flavor and crispness. The Kellogg Company uses a special process of "pressure-cooking." This bakes in the rich flavor. Every shred is thoroughly cooked and therefore easier to digest.

The biscuits are then toasted a light golden brown on both top and bottom—not just one side. This makes them much crisper and crunchier.

Economy has not been overlooked either. Instead of the usual dozen, you get 15 biscuits to the package. Incidentally, the biscuits are a new, convenient size—two just fit the cereal bowl.

There is also news in the fact that the Kellogg biscuit is so rich in food value that the Medical Arts Laboratory of Philadelphia certifies every package. Mothers are welcoming this improved and healthful cereal. They find it equally delightful for breakfast, lunch, or children's suppers—serving it with milk or cream, and sometimes adding fruits or honey.

Local grocers have this new shredded biscuit. It may be identified by the familiar red-and-green package. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

DO YOU INHALE?

Is this question too revealing for other cigarettes?

WE do not criticize others. We merely call your attention to the fact that the vital subject of inhaling has been generally avoided in cigarette advertising.

Why? What's there to be afraid of? Everybody inhales! Seven out of ten smokers inhale knowingly—the other three do so without realizing it. From your side—you want to be sure that the smoke you breathe in is pure and clean—free from certain impurities.

But from the manufacturer's side—he should be sure of giving you this protection. And if he is sure—he need not worry about the question: "Do you inhale?"

Lucky Strike has dared to raise this vital question... because certain impurities concealed in even the finest, mildest tobacco leaves are removed by Luckies' famous purifying process. Luckies created that process. Only Luckies have it!
