COAST LEAGUERS BOOST AVERAGES IN BAT FESTIVAL

(By the Associated Press) Several Coast league players had bigger batting averages today as the result of yesterday's scoring spree, which extended to three of the four games played.

San Francisco ran wild against Los Angeles, making 16 runs and 23 hits, while the Angels got only one run from three safeties.

Fay Thomas, pitching for Oakland, allowed Portland 11 hits, but he struck out 11 Beaver batters. The Oaks won, 12 to 5.

The third heavy hitting game was in San Francisco, where the Hollywood Stars pounded two Mission pitchers for 17 hits to win, 12 to 3.

The batting was more conservative in Seattle, where the Sacramento Senators again just missed winning a ball game. The Indians took the contest, 4 to 3.

COURT HOUSE IN FINISHING STAGE

The new Jackson county courthouse is now more than 80 per cent completed, according to Superintendent Harry Turner.

Fourteen plasterers are now on the job. The acoustical plaster is being applied in the courtroom. Work of placing the Indiana limestone on the exterior is about completed.

ATHLETICS GAIN OLD TIME FORM TO TRIM YANKS

(By the Associated Press) Rival American league managers can sit back now and cease worrying about the Philadelphia Athletics.

They greatly feared it was all a mistake that they would awaken some fine morning to find they had been dreaming. It was tough on their nervous systems.

Therefore, their probable relief today to learn that everything was all right again, that the Athletics were coming right along, a perpetual of the standing, in fact, revealed the Athletics practically had arrived.

By knocking off the leading Yankees twice yesterday, 8 to 7, in 12 innings, and 7 to 6 in a regulation nine-inning, the Mackmen pushed into the big middle of the flag fight and wrapped the first division up tighter than a new drum.

Washington eased into second place by virtue of a hard-won 2-to-1 verdict over Boston, while Detroit was being rained out at St. Louis.

The Chicago Cubs, facing a long road trip, saw their lead over the idle Boston Braves reduced to two games in the National league when they were whitewashed by Dizzy Dean of the Cardinals, 1 to 0.

The Phillies rallied against Bill Walker to score three runs in the eighth, beat the Giants, 4 to 2, and sent John McGraw's troupe tumbling into last place. Other clubs had an off day.
