

RECRUITS PROVE SENSATIONAL ON BOSTON'S MOUND

Brown and Betts Win 5 Each for McKechnie Without Defeat—Unheralded Pair Tied for League Lead

By GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer
Bobby Brown and Huck Betts of the bounding Boston Braves, a youngster of 20 and a veteran of 33, are putting on one of the greatest pitching acts seen in the National or any other league in recent years.

A club that can pick up one winning rookie in this day of keen competition is doing pretty well, but here Manager Bill McKechnie has found a pair who look like world beaters. Each has contributed five victories to the Braves' pennant fight, neither has met defeat, and they are tied for the pitching leadership of the National league.

Pair Unheralded
What makes their work even more impressive is the fact they have burst on the scene with little or no fanfare. Pre-season dope scarcely mentioned either Brown, the husky kid from Birmingham, or Betts, who years before had been a failure previously with the Phillies.

Brown has been particularly poisonous to Brooklyn, beating the Dodgers four times. Twice he has limited Mark Carey's pupils to four hits and again to five. His second four-hitter was achieved yesterday, when he clipped the Dodgers, 5 to 1, in the second game of a double header after Brooklyn had beaten Socks Seibold, 6 to 1, in the first.

Wilson Spills Shutout
Hack Wilson's seventh home run after two were out in the ninth deprived him of a shutout.

The Braves, however, lost ground to the leading Chicago Cubs, who beat Pittsburgh, 9 to 5. The only other game scheduled, the Phillies at New York, was rained out.

Lefty Gomez rang up his ninth victory against one defeat as the Yankees trimmed the Athletics 5 to 1. Washington strengthened its hold on second place in the American with a double win over the floundering Red Sox, 6 to 4 and 8 to 1.

The St. Louis Browns bunched two doubles and three singles with a base on balls in the third inning to score four runs off Al Thomas and beat the White Sox, 4 to 2. Cleveland's scheduled double header at Detroit was rained out.

DUCKS NOSE OUT 3 TO 2 WIN OVER OAKLAND ACORNS

(By the Associated Press)
The climbing Portland Beavers edged out Oakland, 3 to 2, to score their eleventh victory in the last 14 games. The Oaks collected eight hits to the Braves' six, but Pitcher Roy Joiner had a wobbly eighth inning, issuing three walks, two of which came home on Johnson's long double.

Stung by memory of a 18-to-1 defeat the night before, the Angels turned on the Seals last night and administered a 15-to-3 drubbing. With batting eyes improved by a morning practice session, the Angels routed Pitcher Ken Douglas in the first inning under a deluge of six runs. Lee Stine took the box and was hit freely, the southerners getting a total of 21 hits.

The league-leading Hollywood Stars beat the tail-end Missions at San Francisco in a night encounter, Tom Sheehan pitching his seventh straight victory. The score was 6 to 5. Each pitcher was touched for 12 hits.

Sacramento Solons, kicked around quite a bit recently, slipped into high gear and handed Seattle a 19-to-2 pasting.

FREE OLYMPIC TRIP CONTEST ADVOCATED TO FINANCE TEAMS

NEW YORK, June 3.—(AP)—Dan Ferris, secretary of the Amateur Athletic union, has suggested a plan designed to enlist the help of the nation's newspapers in raising the $300,000 necessary to support America's athletes at the international games in Los Angeles this summer. So far, only about $35,000 of the total sum has been subscribed.

Ferris suggests the newspapers of every large city promote contests to determine the most popular school-boy between the ages of 13 and 17, awarding to each winner as a prize a free trip to the Olympic games. Coupons published in the papers would give readers the opportunity to vote for their candidates, at the same time accompanying each ballot, counting 10 votes, with 10 cents in cash. These contributions would be turned over to the Olympic committee.

Williams Creek

WILLIAMS CREEK, June 3.—(Sp.)—Williams Union Sunday school enjoyed having Rev. Wood, pastor of the Medford South Methodist church, twenty-one of their Sunday school pupils and Rev. McKee, conference Sunday school secretary for the Methodist church at the meeting May 29.

After Sunday school all went up to the Little Methodist chapel, where Rev. Wood preached. A bountiful basket dinner was enjoyed. The inclement weather, together with several cases of measles in the immediate neighborhood caused a small crowd.

Mrs. Bert Harris and two small children are visiting relatives in Ashland this week.

John Lovel and son, Jack, of Little Applegate, were on Williams creek Decoration day.

An epidemic of measles is sweeping the neighborhood. Corporal Victor Wood of the U. S. marines, who has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. C. W. Roberts the last three weeks, returned to his station on Mare Island Monday. He went via Arcata, Calif., where he will visit his cousins.

Mrs. Frank Fairweather and Grace Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson of Portland, Hugh Robinson and Charles Weeks of Marshfield called Sunday at the C. W. Roberts home. Mr. Robinson and Mr. Roberts were neighbors in Kansas more than 25 years ago.

Mrs. Addie Pierce of Grants Pass was on Williams creek Decoration day.

Maurice Spitts and Jack Sparlin of Medford spent the week-end until Tuesday with their home folks on Williams creek.

Mr. and Mrs. Lathrop and family of near Central Point visited Mr. and Mrs. Taylor Hartley Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Roberts spent Monday with relatives and friends in Phoenix. Everet Taylor, Paul Smith and Bob Moore left Monday for Bullion Mountain in northern California, where they have a mine. Mr. Smith and Mr. Moore came to Williams from Kelso May 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Furrister of Grants Pass were Sunday visitors at the H. A. Cogle home. Mrs. Cogle and Mrs. Furrister are sisters.

Alfred Larimore is hauling logs from the C. O. Rigelow place to the Amos Smith saw mill, using his team.

Victor Coltrin and L. L. Gray visited on Williams creek Sunday.

Bill Baldwin from the soldiers' home in Roseburg, is visiting at the Alva Davidson home.

W. C. Fixley has had another room built onto their house to keep the electric refrigerator. Mr. Alfred Hilton did the work.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lofland and daughter, Laura, spent Tuesday evening at the C. W. Roberts home.
