VALLEY SCHOOL CLASS DAY SETS DOUBLE RECORD

The Valley school believes in "bigger and better" class days. Last year many thought the high mark had been reached, but on Friday all records both from the standpoint of numbers participating, and quality of performance were surpassed. As an added touch the Weather Man decided to be good, and for the first time in many days cleared the skies and turned on the sunshine, with the result that the school patio where luncheon was served, after the exercises, was a riot of warmth and color.

Over thirty pupils, big and little, took part in the program which opened with a children's operetta, "A Happy Holiday." Alberta Ruhl energetically headed the cast as Betty, assisted by Barbara Sheldon as Peggy, Wheldon Blidde as Paul, and David Sheldon as Bob. Miss Allen got the operetta off to a good start by singing a solo, her "playmate," Chatty Hart, Emily Tyree, Polly Dean, Deborah Tunny and Spencer Wells, joining with gusto, in the chorus.

With this as a prologue the Mother Goose feature of the Happy Holiday was put on, a perfect swarm of children in attractive and clever costumes coming in from the wings. Nancy Day took the leading role as Mother Goose and gracefully rendered a solo. She was assisted capably by Nancy Clark as the "Old Woman in the Shoe," who gathered about her Julie Carpenter as Bo-Peep, Nanette Blossberg as Contrary Mary, Barbara Jean Schuler as Miss Muffet, Patricia Farrell as Mary Quite Contrary, Polly Scherer as Queen of Hearts, Byron Shelby as Jack Horner, Richard Stuart as Son John, Billy Patton as Boy Blue, Charles Braley as Jack Be Nimble, Calista Farrell and Billy Virgin as the "Tiniest children," Paul Johnson and Patsy Gollauer as Jack and Jill, David Rosenberger, Bob Tuttle, Abbott Sheldon, David Williams as Pixies; and Peggy Scherer, Nina Tuttle, Susan Vilas and Harriet Hart as Daisies; and very exquisite daisies too by the way, fit candidates for the 1942 "Follies." A delightful feature of this program was a song by Nanette Blossberg, the sweetness and "business" of her voice arousing a great deal of favorable comment.

The big hit of the day was a French skit, in which Barbara Sheldon not only took the leading part, but gave the prologue, and in fluent and emphatic French, boomed her husband and children, through a Parisian railroad station scene, and a word of English was spoken, nor did anyone need to be prompted—this display of facility in a foreign language, on the part of such young-

Ruth Chatterton Holly's Star

If you ask Ruth Chatterton, star of "The Rich Are Always With Us" showing at the Holly today, Monday and Tuesday, who she considers her best friend, she will reply without a moment's hesitation "Emil Jennings." But for Jennings, the screen might still be without its "First Lady" and Ruth Chatterton still producing and starring in her own plays on the stage.

Against her will almost, Ruth had been persuaded to take a test for Josef Von Sternberg's picture, "The Docks of New York." She was wholly apathetic about pictures at that time, but in her characteristic fashion, put everything she had into the test. It failed to appeal to Von Sternberg, however, and the test was relegated to the vaults, there to lie gathering dust for weeks.

Then Jennings began seeking his leading woman for the "Sins of the Fathers." The vaults were ransacked for any test that might interest him. Ruth Chatterton, among others, was run for him and at its conclusion the delighted Jennings rushed forward and kissed the screen.

He did not know who she was, but he knew he had found his leading lady.

The Holly will offer also Eddie Buzzell in another best time story for the groupings in "Lover, Honor, and He Pays," latest news events from all over the world, and a cartoon entitled "Soldier Old Man."

Barbara Sheldon and Nancy Clark, the latter giving a concise and interesting sketch of the school from the time it was founded with only three pupils, under the direction of Miss Louise Burke, over a decade ago. Mr. Carpenter paid a high tribute to the hard work done by the ladies of the faculty and the school board, and declared that thanks largely to them the Valley school was certain to go on to even higher and better things.

The exercises closed with the song "Memories," by the entire school, after which parents, children and assembled guests sat down to an open air luncheon.

Clark Gable Stars In Rialto Picture

Fox Rialto theater patrons have been waiting for some time past to see popular Clark Gable together with beautiful Marion Davies in their latest co-starring sensation "Polly of the Circus," which is showing at that theater today and tomorrow.

Gable plays a wonderful role in this screen feature of the circus "big top" while Miss Davies is the high-flying trapeze star of the show.

There are but few pictures that have emanated from Hollywood within the past year that contain more spine-chilling thrills than "Polly of the Circus." To see the famous trapeze performers in high mid-air whirling through their daredevil tricks makes one gasp with amazement.

A Mack Sennett comedy, "The All-American Kick-back," and also that nifty sport review "Whipped Racine," provide plenty of additional entertainment.

Continuous performances prevail at the Fox Rialto each Sunday from 2 till 11 o'clock p. m.

Grand Jury To Resume Monday

The grand jury which has been in session the past week, recessed Friday evening until Monday morning, when it will convene again. It is not known how much longer the body will be in session nor when they will report. Josiah Hibbard of Butte Falls is foreman of the grand jury.

Prof. C. Englehardt, of the Eagle Point district, convicted of assault at the last term of the circuit court and sentenced to pay a fine of $250, was among the witnesses called Friday. Englehardt was accused by John Domagallo, a neighbor, with assault. Carl Steider, Englehardt's nephew, involved in the same affair was given a suspended sentence, following conviction by jury. Englehardt filed a plea for a new trial, through his attorney, F. J. Newman, which was denied.

The calling of the petit jury for the May term of court, will not be made until sufficient jury trial matter has accumulated to warrant. No criminal matters are pending at the present time.
