

MAIL TRIBUNE'S TRAP SHOOT IS SUNDAY FEATURE

Elaborate Plans Made by Gun Club for Annual Tourney—Firing Opens at 10:30—Lunch on Grounds

The Third Annual Medford Mail Tribune Trapshooting tournament will be held at the grounds of the Medford Gun club north of the airport on Biddle road Sunday morning, commencing at 10:30 o'clock. The event will be registered under the Pacific International Trapshooting association.

Elaborate plans are being made by the local club to entertain visiting shooters, a large number of whom are expected from all over southwestern Oregon, as well as visiting professional shooters from Oregon and California.

The Mail Tribune trophy now held by a member of the Klamath Falls Gun club will be returned to the local club Sunday to be shot for by all amateur marksmen. The local club will make a strong bid to keep the trophy at home this year.

Lunch will be served on the grounds by a local caterer and the public is invited to attend the shoot either as trapshooters or onlookers.

The club grounds have been put in fine shape and the local club is noted all over the Pacific coast for grounds that are second to none in the country.

The program will be as follows: Mail Tribune Hundred. The Medford Mail Tribune trophy will be shot for in events 1, 2, 3, 4 and 5. This trophy was placed in competition in 1930 and is to be shot for each year over the Medford Gun club traps at 100-150 yd. targets. Any amateur trapshooter is eligible to compete for this fine trophy, and anyone winning it three times becomes its permanent owner. The holder must agree to return it to the Medford Mail Tribune or to the Medford Gun club 30 days prior to the date of its being placed in competition.

SPORT SLANTS

ALAN GOULD
ASSOCIATED PRESS SPORTS EDITOR

Add to the alarming symptoms of baseball's auld spring: The batting slumps of A. H. Simmons and G. H. Ruth.

There are plenty of experts handy to yell "I predicted it," when athletes like Hack Wilson and Jim Bottomley fail to come through, or a younger player like Sammy Lynd folds up abruptly, but it's a shock to most everybody to find Al and the Babe trailing the hitting pack.

On any given day, of course, either Simmons or Ruth is liable to bust right out with a rash of base hits. Their ankles or legs may weaken, but it's inconceivable that they can fail to batter their way up around the top before the season is much older.

Simmons has a lifetime batting average of .363, Ruth .349. With the lively ball both should be adding to these figures for every year they stay in the big show.

FERRELL GARNERS BELATED REVENGE AGAINST MACKMEN

Cleveland Ace Holds Athletics to Three Runs While Wielding Bludgeon to Good Advantage

By GAYLE TALBOT (Associated Press Sports Writer)

It took Wesley Ferrell the better part of two seasons to catch up with the Philadelphia Athletics, but Cleveland's ace could feel today that he had gone a long way toward squaring accounts with the Mackmen.

They looked him five times last season and knocked him out of the box the first time they faced him in the current campaign, that might have convinced a pitcher less obstinate than Ferrell, but it only made him more determined to crack the flint, and he finally turned the trick yesterday.

Facing the Athletics in their first appearance in the west, he personally pitched and batted them into submission, 4 to 3. With the score tied in the seventh, he doubled and then scored the winning run on Porter's two-bagger off the screen.

Tenth Triumph for Wes.

The victory moved the Indians into fourth place. It was Ferrell's tenth triumph of the year. But for Al Simmons, who belted two home runs, it would have been a breeze for the Indian right-hander.

The New York Yankees continued to howl merrily along as they opened their western tour with a 9 to 2 decision over Detroit. The Tigers made six errors.

Washington scored four runs off Vic Frazier in the eleventh frame to down the Chicago White Sox, 8 to 5, and the St. Louis Browns gave the west an even break for the day by defeating the unfortunate Boston Red Sox, 6 to 1. Home runs by Goose Goslin and Irving Burns featured the Browns' easy victory behind Walter Stewart.

EIGHT GRADUATE AT ACADEMY IN IMPRESSIVE RITE

To the impressive tones of Lemmen's "Triumphal March" as the professional, the eight members of the St. Mary's academy graduating class marched down the aisle of the Sacred Heart church, Catholic, last evening, in the sixtieth annual commencement exercises of the school.

The professional was followed by "Venie Creator," Ravanello.

"Christian Education" was the topic of the address to the graduates, given by Reverend Francis W. Black, and in his talk pointed out that "all we are, or ever hope to be," is centered about Christian education.

The numerous advantages of a Christian education, emphasizing religion, culture and development of human character were told by the Reverend Black to the members of the class as well as their parents, and many friends who attended as guests.

Diplomas, presented the members of the class, were spoken of by the speaker as "passports to life."

Closing his talk, the Reverend Black requested the students to remember the debt of gratitude they owed their parents and teachers.

Honors were conferred upon Margaret Louise Humphreys of Dunsmuir, Calif., Mary Agnes Reddy, Joseph Deegan and Arnold James Young, all of Medford in the classical course, and upon Marie Catherine Brown, George Francis Smith and Robert Paul Lewis of Medford and Ardene Zumburn of Brookings, in the general course. The young ladies were attired in white, and each was accompanied by a flower girl.

The remainder of the program was as follows: Solemn benediction of the most blessed sacrament. Celebrant—Rev. Francis W. Black. Deacon—Rev. Wm. J. Dwyer, S.M. Sub-deacon—Rev. Wm. J. Meagher, O. S. A. Sacrament—Remond. Tantum Ergo. Ignote. Adoremus and Laudate. First Tone. Recessional—Hymn to the Holy Names. S. H. N. At the close of the services the Mother's club of Sacred Heart parish entertained the graduates at the parish hall.

CHINESE LIGHTWEIGHT WINS NOD OVER MACK

PORTLAND, Ore., June 8.—(AP)—Ah Wing Lee, Portland Chinese lightweight, won a six-round decision over Eddie Mack, Denver, here last night. Paul Delaney, Seattle middleweight, took a six-round decision over Herman Ratslaff, Minot, S. D.

Roy Shockley, Portland lightweight, won a close six-round decision over Eddie Edleman, Pete Sunski and Big Olsen, of Los Angeles, went four rounds to a draw, and Whitney Neal, Vancouver, B. C., knocked out Dan Brady in the second round.

Seattle beat the Beavers behind the pitching of "Junk" Walters, who was sold by Portland to the Indians for $1,000 as "old Junk" in winning 5 to 2. Walters had to pitch himself out of several holes, and was successful in each case except when Lefty Grulliv hit a homer with one man on base.

Sacramento fans, watching Pitcher Jimmy De Shong work for the first time last night, saw him shut out the San Francisco Seals in a 5 to 0 game, allowing but four hits. De Shong came to the Senators from the Philadelphia Athletics recently.
