

BOURBONS GIRL FOR BATTLE IN PARTY CONFAB

tion toward that wing of the party which was opposing him. On Sunday last, without the slightest publicity, a conference of leaders assembled at the governor's home at Hyde Park. Five senators and nine members of the house had been summoned from Washington to meet with the local Roosevelt men. On the spacious lawn they gathered in a group about the governor, and the withdrawal from Shouse was only one of the results. Several things yet to be disclosed were decided. A floor manager was picked, but his identity is kept in confidence.

Militant Decisions
The decisions were militant decisions, presumably based on the assumption that the Roosevelt strength now had risen past a controlling majority of the convention and that the time had come, therefore, to take complete possession of the party machinery. It is doubtful how far any specific consideration, such as the possible routing of the convention chairman on the two-thirds rule, entered into the calculations. The big idea seems to have been to be sure there was a friend at every sentry post.

Shouse's retort, asking the country to make up its own mind whether the governor had been guilty of bad faith, apparently has had no retarding effect, so far as the Roosevelt people are concerned. Smith and those who conferred with him later in the week unhesitatingly gave their support to Shouse. It is not yet apparent what the favorite son states will do, although James M. Cox of Ohio, and Mayor Anton J. Cermack of Chicago, yesterday denounced the fight on Shouse, Cermack saying he would propose Senator Lewis for the permanent chairmanship if the Rooseveltians persist.

Roosevelt Claims 700
The claims of the Roosevelt managers, some of them disputed, now forecast a first-ballot vote of nearly 700 out of the 1154 in the convention, counting Florida and Mississippi, which chose their delegates this week, and Idaho, North Carolina and Indiana, yet to come. It takes 770 to nominate. With Virginia's ringing endorsement of former Governor Harry P. Byrd yesterday, the field of favorite sons and runners-up appears complete. Most calculations sum to the non-Roosevelt strength like this:

MEANS' METHODS IN KIDNAP HOAX SHOWN IN TRIAL

WASHINGTON, June 10.—(AP)—The prosecution completed its case today in the trial of Gaston B. Means on charges of embezzling $104,000 from Mrs. Edward B. McLean in an alleged Lindbergh ransom fraud.

Government witnesses testified Means approached Colonel M. Robert Guggenheim with proposals to recover the baby before Mrs. McLean, estranged wife of the Washington Post publisher, employed him for the same purpose.

Robert F. Fleming, Edgemoor, Maryland, real estate man, corroborated Guggenheim's testimony of how Means assured them he could recover the baby because of a bizarre connection with the kidnapers. Fleming quoted Means as telling him that not long before the baby was spirited away, Means met a former fellow prisoner in a New York speakeasy, his man, Fleming said Means told him, informed Means of plans for a kidnaping which would either cause "world-wide notoriety or receive no publicity at all."

The man said the job would mean "fifty grand or maybe one hundred grand," Fleming quoted Means, and proposed that Means join in it. Means declined, but when he later read about the Lindbergh kidnaping, he realized at once his friend was connected with it. Fleming said, adding that Means told him he then went back to New York, contacted his friend, and found that his theory was correct.

It was because of this, Fleming said Means assured him he knew he could return the Lindbergh baby.

Storm Cellar Fails To Save

BENTON, Ark., June 10.—(AP)—An effort to save himself from a storm has cost George Sparks, 27-year-old farmer of the Salem community, his life. With other members of his family, he fled to a storm cellar, but a bolt of lightning struck into the refuge and killed him.

Follows—J. P. Gillespie resumed butcher business here.

Answer of Robert W. Frame to the breach of promise suit for $25,000 filed several months ago by Marguerite Kirkamith was filed in circuit court this afternoon. Frame makes a general denial of all the basic allegations of the complaint, and asks that the suit be dismissed and costs assessed to plaintiff.

Frame denies the allegations that he promised marriage, treated plaintiff as a fiancée, told members of her family of the engagement, agreed upon a wedding date, or gave instructions as to dress. Admission is made that he knew the plaintiff, escorted her to dances and clubs, and that he married his present wife, after departure last September from Seattle. Attorney Don R. Newbury appears as counsel for Frame.

PAIR WITH GUNS DRAW $25 FINES

With bail set at $500, Bill Hanscom was bound over to the grand jury on a non-support charge. His hearing was also yesterday afternoon.

PORTLAND MAY DROP ACCIDENT INSURANCE

PORTLAND, Ore., June 10.—(AP)—Dissatisfied with its experiences with the state industrial accident commission, the city of Portland is considering a proposal to discontinue its insurance with the commission.

The proposal was submitted to the city council yesterday by City Commissioner Riley, but action was deferred until Tuesday.

"ALL-BRAN LIVES UP TO REPUTATION"

Her Constipation Overcome by This Delicious Cereal

If you are troubled with constipation, read Miss Bundy's enthusiastic letter:

"I would like to congratulate the one who discovered ALL-BRAN. It really does live up to its reputation when it is said to 'relieve constipation.'"

"I used to feel poor all the time—just down and out—and after reading an advertisement in a magazine about ALL-BRAN I got a box. It has evermore helped me, and it is not hard at all to eat."—Miss Mary Bundy, Bennettsville, S. C.

Laboratory tests show ALL-BRAN brings two things needed to correct common constipation: "Bulk" to exercise the intestines; Vitamin B to help tone the intestinal tract. ALL-BRAN also furnishes iron for the blood.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is much like that of lettuce. Within the body, it forms a soft mass. Gently it clears the intestines of wastes.

How much safer than taking pills and drugs—so often harmful. ALL-BRAN is not habit-forming. Two tablespoons daily will overcome most types of constipation. If your intestinal trouble is not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Use as a cereal, or in cooking. Recipes on the red-and-green package. At all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

MILLIONS OF POUNDS USED BY OUR GOVERNMENT

Save 2 1/2c PER GLASS

on your Strawberry Jam

... The cheapest, most delicious strawberries of the year are crowding the local markets. Read how you can make jam quicker than ever.

By Mr. F. W. Bateman
ILLINOIS STATE JELLY CHAMPION

"I just hate to think of women still making jam and jelly the old-fashioned long-boil method. It's so costly. And so terribly tedious!"

"I make all my prize-winning jellies and jams with Certo. And I would never think of doing it any other way. In the first place, Certo reduces boiling time for crushed strawberry jam, for instance, to one minute. And, of course, that is how it saves me so much money. For, with so little boiling needed, not one bit of the fruit juice has time to boil away. And as a result I get almost double the number of glasses from the same amount of fruit... and save as much as 2 1/2c on every glass."

"Of course, this 1 minute's hard boiling saves lots of time, too. Indeed I can make a complete batch in only 12 minutes."

"And with Certo you get much better tasting jam or jelly. Certainly the 37 prizes the State Fair Judges awarded my jams and jellies in the last two years testify to that!"

Why not do as Mrs. Bateman suggests and order a supply of Certo today? You will be delighted at the money and time it will save you! And the extra flavor it will give your jams and jellies, too... if you will simply follow exactly the Certo recipes that come in the booklet attached to every Certo bottle.

Don't delay. In a week this marvelous berry crop may be on the wane. Get your bottle of Certo from your grocer's today. Certo, a pure fruit pectin, is a product of General Foods Corporation.
