Delphians Enjoy Fine Program at Thursday Session

The final program of the Delphian study club was given at the home of Mrs. E. A. Moore last Thursday forenoon with a gratifying number of members and guests in attendance.

Mrs. Glen Fabrick, president, outlined briefly the program for the coming year, which will follow the plan indicated in "Reading with a Purpose."

It promises to be quite as interesting and more varied in its topics than the work of the past year. On her recent visit north Mrs. Fabrick consulted with state librarians of Washington and Oregon, both of whom were enthusiastic in their approval of the new course. Both librarians offered many valuable suggestions and proffered their assistance in helping to carry out the program.

Mrs. Honeyman, an authority in Oriental art, most kindly offered to be present and personally conduct the study of this subject, should it come in the proposed new study course.

Mrs. Burr Lowry, study supervisor, then presented the following splendid program:

1. Fantasia, movement from F minor Sonata (Mendelssohn), Andante from A major Sonata, (Beethoven). Both numbers played by Mrs. Rawles Moore.
2. Current events from the following magazines: American Mercury, American City, Theatre, Times, Frontier and Travel Magazines were given by Mrs. John Grew. These magazines, she stated, are all on the library shelves and should be more generally read.
3. "Der Frelchutz," by Carl M. von Webber. Mrs. J. R. Thompson, accompanied by Margaret Children.
4. "Walter's Prize Song," Wagner, Violin solo by Gertrude Thompson, accompanied by Miss Children.
5. "One Fine Day," from Madam Butterfly, Sung by Mrs. A. R. Edwin, accompanied by Miss Dorothy Reynolds.
6. "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," from Samson and Delilah, Sung by Mrs. R. C. Mulholland, accompanied by Mrs. Purucker with violin obligato by Miss Thompson.
7. Duets, "Waters of Lake Minnetonka," "Thought of Lorraine," "Verdi, "Home to Our Mountains," by Duett, Mrs. Edwin and Mrs. Mulholland.

Each number on this program was of exceptional interest to club members, as all composers in this group had been studied during the year. The Delphians expressed appreciation of the many Medford artists who have so graciously assisted throughout the year and have by their talents, added so large a measure of enjoyment to the work.

Too much credit can not be given the Delphian officers for the successful year's work just past, was the sentiment voiced by the membership. Mrs. Fabrick, with a real capacity for leadership, has earned the admiration of all members by her efficient work and enthusiastic support.

Mrs. Lowry as supervisor, has endeavored herself to all who come in contact with her and experienced her tact and great personal charm. Her fine, scholarly mind has been a real inspiration to all who have had the privilege of working with her, and has been a large factor in making the year such a profitable and happy one.
