

MEDFORD TENNIS SQUAD TROUNCES G. P. COURT MEN

In a match that was a surprise from every angle except the final result the Medford Tennis club yesterday trounced Grants Pass, 8-4, on the "Climate City" courts.

The surprises weren't long in starting as Lyle Sams, Grants Pass ace, led off by chalking up the first defeat ever recorded against Jimmie Edmiston by the Cavemen.

Tollefson made the surprises all square, however, with an easy 6-2, 6-4 win over De Genault and further surprising wins of Patton over Dr. Ogle and Garfield over Cook.

Medford won six singles engagements and broke even in the four doubles matches. The first and second doubles provided most of the day's fireworks.

Edmiston and Patton pulled up to capture a marathon affair when they took Sams and Ryan, 2-6, 7-5, 13-11. Tollefson and Boggs won an astonishingly easy battle from De Genault and Cook by a 6-2, 6-4 margin.

Next week the locals journey to Klamath to attempt a repeat of their earlier 12-1 defeat of the Klamathites. Yesterday's match saw the Medford club at full strength in scoring their 38th win out of 40 matches.

Edmiston, Medford, lost to Sams, Grants Pass, 6-3, 2-6, 6-3. Tollefson, Medford, beat De Genault, Grants Pass, 6-2, 6-4. Patton, Medford, beat Dr. Ogle, Grants Pass, 6-3, 2-6, 6-2.

Garfield, Medford, beat Cook, Grants Pass, 6-6, 2-6, 6-3. Boggs, Medford, lost to Ryan, Grants Pass, 6-1, 6-2. Wilson, Medford, beat Bennett, Grants Pass, 6-4, 4-6, 6-2.

Butler, Medford, beat Garrett, Grants Pass, 6-3, 6-1. Reddy, Medford, beat Hamilton, Grants Pass, 8-6, 6-0. Doubles matches: Edmiston-Patton, Medford, beat Sams-Ryan, Grants Pass, 2-6, 7-5, 13-11.

Butler-Garfield, Medford, lost to Cook-Garrett, 6-4, 6-8, 6-3. Tollefson-Boggs, Medford, beat De Genault Ogle, Grants Pass, 6-2, 6-4.

Wilson-Reddy, Medford, lost to Bennett-Hamilton, Grants Pass, 6-8, 6-4, 6-4.

PARK VISITATION GROWING RAPIDLY

Registrations at Crater National park have reached a total of 21,429 people, according to a report issued today by Ernest A. Rostel, publicity manager of the park.

Richard Price, manager of the park company, has announced a full crew will be working in the cafeteria and store by June 20. Both are open at the present time, as well as the gasoline station.

Saturday afternoon 22 girls representing chamber of commerce and motor association offices in southern Oregon and northern California were guests at a luncheon, to which Mr. Price was host. D. S. Libbey, park naturalist, gave a lecture for their benefit at the Sisseton memorial.

Following lunch, a meeting was held in the lodge before the fireplace, and additional information concerning the park was given the young ladies in order that they might inform the traveling public about the park. The trip was sponsored by the Klamath county chamber of commerce.

ELKS FLAG DAY WELL ATTENDED

One of the most successful programs conducted at the annual flag day exercises was given yesterday afternoon in the city park, when Attorney O. S. Blanchard of Grants Pass gave the main address. A large crowd of local people gathered for the program.

Under the direction of F. Wilson Wait, the Elks band furnished music for the program, which follows: Music, "Star Spangled Banner" — Elks band. Introductory Exercises — Exalted Ruler and Officers. History of the Flag — Ralph Kooser. Altar Service — Esquire and Officers. Patriotic Address — O. S. Blanchard. Music — Elks band; F. Wilson Wait, director. Song, "America" — Audience.

Miss Heard Bride at Lovedly Wedding Sunday.

At one of the prettiest weddings of the season at the First Presbyterian church yesterday afternoon, Miss Itha Heard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Heard, and Frederick Johnson, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick H. Johnson, were married at 2:30 o'clock.

The bride, charming in a gown of white lace with lace cap and long tulle veil caught with orange blossoms, carried a muff of sweet peas and Cecil Brunner roses. She entered the church with her father, who gave her in marriage. They were preceded by her maid of honor, her sister, Miss Thelma Heard, and Miss Ernestine Pedernberg of San Francisco, bridesmaid.

The two wore very summery frocks of mousseline de sole in old-fashioned design with bouffant skirts, fitted basques and large puff sleeves, accented by ruffles. Miss Heard's was of pink with lace mitre and other accessories in pale blue. Miss Pedernberg's in blue with pink accessories. Each carried a corsage of rosebuds.

John Waage of Oakland, Cal., was best man for the groom and Tom Ginn of this city, usher for the wedding.

Following the service Mrs. Royal Bebb, local soloist, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Oh, Promise Me." Attired in a gown of powder blue with rose hat and corsage, her ensemble announced the color scheme, favored by the bride's attendants.

Miss Genevieve Brown, who accompanied her at the organ, also played Lohengrin's Wedding March for entry of the bridal party, which met before the altar, decorated in baskets of roses.

Following the service Miss Brown played Mendelssohn's Wedding March for departure of the bridal party and guests from the church.

A reception for relatives and immediate friends of the bride and groom was held at the Heard home on the Pacific highway, south, immediately after the wedding. Guests were received by Mrs. Heard and Mrs. Johnson, mothers of the bride and groom. The former wore a gown of deep blue and old lace, and Mrs. Johnson a flowered chiffon.

Society Reads News of Neah-Kah-Nie Quartet An interesting note, recently received by local society folk, who are followers of events in the world of music, tells of the summer plans of the Neah-Kah-Nie string quartet, the group of players remembered for their splendid concerts by many people here.

The string quartet will open concert season at Carmel, Cal., July 30. Four concerts will be played, the fourth to be on August 23. Dates for the other two are August 9 and August 16.

Speaking of their playing in anticipation of the coming season, a Carmel critic writes: "They are sound in technique and ensemble, but ensemble, but they possess a quality that transcends finish and professionalism."

"The Neah-Kah-Nie would make live again the musical clubs and chamber music societies of an older Europe," another writes. "The 'arm chair,' the pipe" and a quartet playing are here in Carmel for you to enjoy."

Society Welcomes Visit of Leland's Popular guests in Medford are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Leland of Hollywood, Cal., who were greeted by many friends during the past week and who may spend a large portion of the season here. FRANCE, ENGLAND AGREE ON BASIS FOR CONFERENCE

PARIS, France, June 13.—(AP)—France and England faced the coming Lausanne conference on war debts and reparations today agreed on "the basis of a common viewpoint" looking toward a solution of the international problems.

This announcement was made following conferences yesterday between Prime Minister Ramsay MacDonald of Great Britain and Premier Edouard Herriot of France.

As a first step toward re-establishment of world confidence, it was expected, all nations represented at the conference, which opens Thursday, would be asked to promise to keep the peace.

The two premiers left here at 11:15 o'clock last night for Geneva. Pertinax, political writer of L'Echo de Paris, said MacDonald abandoned the notion of asking Germany for a declaration of peaceful intentions regarding Poland, believing it would be refused, and that the general peaceful declaration of all the powers was probably what would be asked instead. In this, he said, the Kellogg-Briand pact to outlaw war would be recalled.
