

DRILL, FUN, FOOD WELL BLENDED IN O.N.G. BOYS CAMP

Downpour Dampens General Inspection—Medford Lads Envy of Camp in Excellence of Mess, Is Report

By Capt. C. Y. Tengwald. CAMP CLATSOP, Ore., June 19.—(Sp.)—Today, Sunday, is the sixteenth day of our two weeks' camp here and as Sunday is a day of recreation most of the boys are away from camp, down on the beaches or at Seaside or Astoria.

Yesterday morning the entire brigade was inspected by Major General George A. White and his staff. It was the intention to hold the inspection in the field with a full display of each man's equipment, but a downpour of rain broke early in the morning and continued throughout the day, so the inspection was held in the company area and in tents.

After the inspection Major General White commended the two regiments on the fine showing they made and their ability to take the field in event of an emergency.

At church call this morning company A carried off the honors for having the most men in attendance, 38 men from this organization being present at church call. The balance of the men had left camp yesterday afternoon after the inspection on week-end leaves.

Company A has always had a reputation for its excellent mess, but this year the eats are better than ever before and as a result the boys are all losing weight.

Private Donald J. Welch spent two days in the camp base hospital the past week, having contracted a peculiar rash, but the medicine soon corrected it and he is back on duty again.

Outbreaks of a few toothaches, colds and headaches has been an extremely low percentage of the boys reporting at sick call—and as this letter is written every member of the company is in excellent physical condition, and "fit as a fiddle."

Company A was highly complimented at the inspection yesterday for the high type of its personnel, and when activities start off again tomorrow the boys are going to dig in and hit the ball and go after more honors.

Owing to the great distance from Medford it is very seldom that we see anyone here from Medford, but we are expecting a few visitors from home next Saturday, when the annual demonstration and brigade renewal demonstration will be held.

There is considerable rivalry between the two platoons of the company, commanded by Lieutenants McBee and Moffatt. A contest is under way to determine which and the best squad of eight men and the winning squad will be tendered a dinner at Portland on the return trip to Medford.

The boys all enjoy receiving the Mail Tribune and eagerly scan every line for news from home.

The program for the coming week calls for much activity in the park. The first two of the troops will go on an intensive drill days on Wednesday and on Wednesday all instruction and on Wednesday all instruction and on Wednesday all instruction.

After that, most of the heavy work will be over and the boys will all look forward to "pay day," but all look forward to a return home, as the consensus here is that the two weeks' stay is all too short and passes too rapidly, for just as things are beginning to get real interesting it is time to break camp and return home again.

A large delegation of Royal Neighbors from the Medford and Ashland camps attended the pep rally at Grants Pass Saturday.

An invitation is extended to all other Royal Neighbors camps of southern Oregon to join the Medford group at picnic lunch at 1 o'clock.

Exodus to Cabin Homes Marks Summer's Arrival Proof that Medford society folk grow vacation minded with the first coakings of the summer sun was evidenced last week-end when a large portion of the local population moved to mountain and river cabins for the short holiday.

Among those who have opened their summer places in mountain regions neighboring Medford, are: Mrs. George Gager, who spent Sunday at Lake of the Woods; and Mrs. I. F. Andrea, who last week-end vacationed at Union Creek; and Mrs. A. W. Pipes, whose cottage is located at Edgewood park.

The Pipes have as their guests for the summer, Mrs. Pipes' sister, Mrs. M. S. Humphreys and sons, Marston and Stanley, of Galt, Mo., who plan to enjoy with them many days on Rogue river.

Dr. and Mrs. B. R. Elliott have kept their home at Shady Cove open throughout the year but are now spending much more time there. The Thos. J. Pason's have taken a cottage at the resort for a portion of the summer and were there Sunday.

M. B. Jarmin motored with his family to Union Creek Sunday to open their summer cottage, where Mrs. Jarmin, her young son, and Mr. Jarmin's mother, are spending the week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Butler plan to spend much of the summer at their cabin at Peter Pan camp, further up the river, and will be joined there by their daughter, Miss Trilene Butler, who recently returned from Longview, Wash., for the vacation.

The Roland Hubbards opened their mountain home at Diamond Lake when the first snows began to melt and each week-end throughout the season will probably find them enjoying boating, swimming and fishing there.

Ulrichs to Entertain Dinner Club Tonight Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich will entertain members of their dinner club this evening. Dinner will be followed by the usual number of card games with the following persons playing: Dr. and Mrs. Wm. W. P. Holt, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Lemmon, Mr. and Mrs. D. G. Tyree, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Day, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Sleeter and Mr. and Mrs. Ulrich.

PROHIBITION MAIN CAMPAIGN ISSUE ASSERTS RASKOB

Other New Yorkers arriving here were Ray O'Sullivan, secretary of Tammany Hall, and Eugene Comlisky, a member of the Tammany board of strategy. They said 1000 Tammany men would be in Chicago by Sunday night.

John N. Curry, the Tammany chief, and John H. McCooney, a Brooklyn Democratic leader, will arrive tomorrow and a conference of New York Democrats will be held before the New York state caucus Sunday night to decide who New York will support for the presidency.

Two old war lords of the Democratic party, and ancient enemies—Alfred E. Smith of New York and William G. McAdoo of California—are about to converge on the convention scene to combat the threat of a new and common foe, Governor Roosevelt of New York.

The Rooseveltians are putting every energy into a last-minute drive to nominate the New York governor on the first ballot. They are counting on 90 of New York's 94 votes and about 20 or 25 from Illinois to turn the trick.

Tomorrow comes the master of the 1928 campaign, former Governor Smith, and his strategy even the confident Roosevelt forces are wary. Late today or early in the morning comes Mr. McAdoo, whose battle of more than 100 ballots with Smith in 1924 established him, too, as one to be reckoned with in convention contests. He is for Speaker Garner whom he helped to defeat Roosevelt in California.

REV. BENNETT TO STATE CONCLAVE The Rev. Dr. Alexander G. Bennett, pastor of the First Methodist church, left for Portland today to attend the annual conference of the Oregon Methodist preachers. Bishop Titus Lowe preside. After the pastors of Oregon make their reports of the year's work in their various appointments, Bishop Lowe will make the appointments for next year, probably next Sunday night.

It is expected by the Medford church that Dr. Bennett will be returned for his fourth year here. Also the Ashland Methodists expect the return of their pastor, Rev. Sidney Hall, and the Grants Pass church the return of Rev. C. C. Rarick.

Rev. Joseph Pope of Talent has just finished his first year there, and doubtless be reappointed.

According to custom in the Methodist churches on conference Sunday, there will be no services next Sunday in Medford except the Sunday school in the morning and the Epworth League young folks' hour in the evening.

ROTARY PANELS CAUSE INTEREST

Tarney Steward, chairman of the Rotary club highway marker committee returned last week from several days in northern California in the interests of the Rotary advertising project. Mr. Steward reported much interest being taken in the Rotary scenic panels and a fine spirit of cooperation from property owners along the highway.

Several of the panels advertising southern Oregon have already been installed and others will be placed in the next few days in order to take advantage of the flood of tourist travel which will soon be under way. The panels which are in the form of beautiful oil paintings will be located at strategic points north and south of Medford for a distance of over a hundred miles in an endeavor to stop the tourist in southern Oregon for several days rather than a pause of a few minutes. The success of this Rotary project should result in greatly increased patronage for Medford's progressive business houses which will provide a real benefit in bringing outside money into this community and bettering local business conditions generally.

PIKE'S LICENSE IS SUSPENDED YEAR

In justice court yesterday several cases were brought before Judge Glenn O. Taylor, resulting in conviction for some. Bail for G. W. Thompson was set at $500 when he waived examination on a charge of obtaining money under false pretense. The charge was made against Thompson by T. M. Reed, through the state police office.

On a reckless driving charge, H. V. Pike plead guilty, and Judge Taylor recommended that his driver's license be suspended for one year. The thirty-day jail sentence was suspended, as he turned his license over to the city police.

Pike, who is 71, said that he was blind in one eye, and visibility with the other was poor. Officers charged that he was unable to see well enough to drive. Pike was arrested.

Boatload of Paint Arrives in Medford

A boatload of paint, making the journey from San Francisco to Crescent City by water and from there by truck to Medford, is ready for distribution by the Porter Lumber Co. According to Bruce Bauer, inside, outside paint, varnishes, shellac, enamel, kalsomine, linseed oil, turpentine and brushes are included in the allotment.

The allotment is offered in the eight-day sale, which started Saturday. As a special inducement brushes and four-foot stepladders have been added to the offering free of charge.

MANY SECURING TEMPORARY TAGS

There was a temporary spurt yesterday in the purchases of temporary auto licenses, the sheriff's office reported. Fifty-six temporary stickers were issued here and 30 in Ashland, where a sub-license office is maintained. The total number of temporary licenses issued since May 1 is 435. The final week of the month is expected to see a rush for temporary licenses as car owners will be able to take the usual Fourth of July holiday trip.

Governor Meier has announced that no motor moratorium will be declared and that no respite will be granted over the Fourth of July. State police and state traffic officers have been instructed to see that the motor license law is observed and improperly licensed cars on the highways and byways after June 30 are subject to investigation.

Records of the sheriff's office also show that in the past six weeks temporary licenses have been issued for 51 new automobiles purchased by residents of this county.

Strikingly, Radically New Phantom* Kotex

SANITARY NAPKIN (U. S. Pat. No. 1,857,854)

Most important improvement in sanitary protection since the invention of Kotex itself in 1920.

AT LAST! A radically new design in sanitary protection. You are scarcely aware that you have it on. Made, of course, by Kotex—originators of the modern sanitary napkin. It is called PHANTOM* KOTEX. Why? Because the ends are so flattened and tapered that it leaves no outlines even under the closest-fitting of gowns. Not the slightest bulk suggested even under the filmiest of summer silks. And—for those who require extra protection—Super-Phantom Kotex is ideal. There's extra protective surface but the ends are so skillfully flattened as to be completely inconspicuous.

Kotex features retained The special Kotex features you have always appreciated are retained, of course. It is soft after hours of use; wonderfully absorbent; treated to deodorize; can be worn, with equal protection, on either side; disposable, easily. More than 24 million pads were used in hospitals alone last year. Insist upon getting genuine Kotex, when you buy it already wrapped. Each tapered end of the new pad is stamped "Kotex" now—so you can't get inferior substitutes. Kotex prices are today the lowest in Kotex history. This new improvement comes to you at no increase in price. All dealers have the new PHANTOM KOTEX.

HOW SHALL I TELL MY DAUGHTER? Many a mother wonders. Now you simply hand your daughter the little booklet entitled, "Marjorie May's Twelfth Birthday." For free copy, address Mary Pauline Callender, Room 2140, 180 North Michigan Ave., Chicago, Ill.

NOTE: Kotex—now at your dealer's—marked "Form-Fitting" is the new Phantom Kotex

THE DANGEROUS AGE EVERY day the mail brings us a flood of letters... many from middle-aged women. They prove that Change of Life need not always be dreaded. They tell how the headaches, back-aches, can be overcome or avoided. Please read the end of a typical letter. It's from Mrs. MacCraig. "I took three bottles. It made me strong and healthy. I will always praise your medicine and tell other women about it."
