

DECISION DISPUTE WANES AS CZARS REFUSE TO PROBE

Neither Referee Nor Judges in Sharkey-Schmeling Bout Will Be Called Before Commission, Is Word

NEW YORK, June 24.—(AP)—The uproar over the decision that gave Jack Sharkey the heavyweight championship in his 16-round bout with Max Schmeling last Tuesday night, had died away to a faint whisper today. There was every indication the parties most concerned were prepared to regard the widely disputed verdict as a closed incident.

Brig. Gen. John J. Phelan reiterated that the New York State Athletic commission will make no investigation into the decision. He declared that neither the referee, Gunboat Smith, nor the two judges, George Kelly and Charles Mathison, had been summoned to attend the commission's regular Friday meeting today. Nor was Joe Jacobs, Schmeling's manager, or Johnny Buckley, Sharkey's pilot, asked to sit in.

Denies Jacobs' Charge. Jacobs, immediately after the decision was announced, declared that Schmeling had been "robbed" and charged that officials for the fight were chosen two weeks before it was held. Gen. Phelan denied this, however. He said the commission had ordered three referees and four judges to be on hand in the Madison Square Garden bowl the night of the fight and that not one of them knew who was going to work until just before the big bout went on.

The referees ordered to report to the bowl, he said, were Smith, Arthur Donovan, and Jed Gahan; the judges, Kelly, Mathison, Ed Farrell and Tom McGowan.

No Radio Interference. Asked whether radio regulations in connection with boxing contests might be tightened, with the commission reserving the right to name the announcers, Gen. Phelan replied: "We won't interfere at all. All we intend to do is to give every co-operation possible to make the broadcasts successful."

Although Schmeling has booked passage to sail for home tomorrow, the German may delay his departure while Jacobs considers several bouts offered him. The motion pictures of the fight did nothing to settle the controversy over the merits of the decision. Some viewed them and thought Sharkey clearly won; others were equally certain the German had piled up a big lead.

SHARKEY THINKS HE WON MATCH

LONG BEACH, Calif., June 24.—(AP)—Regardless of what the sports writers and fans may think, Jack Sharkey says the fight in which he won the world's heavyweight boxing championship was the toughest "in all my career."

The statement was made in a telegram to a friend here. It read: "Cancel option on house at Long Beach as I am undergoing an operation on my left eye. Toughest fight I ever had in all my career, but thought I won. Will not get to California until August, as have signed movie contract Long Island studios." Sharkey was expected here on July 5.

Favored As Director. WASHINGTON, June 24.—(AP)—A favorable report on the nomination of Gardner Cowles, Sr., Des Moines publisher, for appointment as a director of the reconstruction corporation was voted unanimously today by the senate banking committee.

DUCKS CONTINUE ON STARS' HEELS FOR COAST LEAD

Bowman Has Edge in Pitching Battle With Davis of Seals to Win 3-1—Reds Lose Again in Ninth

(By the Associated Press) Portland was still running a good second in the Coast league race today after trimming the San Francisco Seals last night to make it two games out of three in the series to date. Bowman of the Ducks had the edge in his pitchers' battle with Curt Davis, Seal righthander, winning 3 to 1.

Bowman allowed the Seals eight hits, while the Beavers got six. Hollywood came from behind to beat Oakland, 5 to 4, and retain its narrow margin of league leadership. The Oaks bunched five hits off Vance Page and took a 3 to 0 lead in the third inning, but the Stars won out with the aid of home runs by Ole Brannan and Cleo Carlyle.

Los Angeles took the lead in the seventh inning in its game with Seattle, winning 5 to 2. Once again the ninth inning proved the undoing of the Mission Reds, as Sacramento beat them, 5 to 3. Last week the Reds lost five games in Los Angeles by their ninth-inning jinx. Last night the ninth inning opened with the score Missions 3, Sacs 2. Then the Senators made three runs, one of them forced in when Lieber walked a man with the bases full.

LOCALS TO PLAY TENNIS, ASHLAND

The elaborate Fourth of July plans being made in Ashland will include a tennis match between the Medford and Ashland teams. A. C. Joy of that city announced yesterday through the Ashland Daily Tidings.

Medford's team, which has been winning the majority of all matches, is expected to meet its equal in the Ashland group. The Granite City will be represented by Dick Joy, Allan Prescott, Bill Allen, Ted Norby, Earl Rogers, Claude Hines, Howard Woodson and Joe Hartley. The women's squad will be composed of Mary Beatty, Eleanor and Grace Coombs, Hazel Duncan, Mrs. Earl Rogers and Helen Detrick. Some of the games will be played during the evening.

WANT COURT HALL TO MANAGE TEAM

A movement is reported on foot among Medford baseball fans and members of the orphaned "Pear Pickers" team to draft Court Hall, veteran manager of local baseball outfits, as manager of the "hub for the balance of the present season. The team wishes to continue in the Rogue Valley league, despite the withdrawal of Grants Pass. The Hills, Cal., team has taken the place left vacant by the Cavemen and will carry on in the second half of the split season.

Sunday's schedule calls for games between Jacksonville and Hill at Jacksonville and Medford and Talent at Talent. Both tilts should prove interesting as all four teams have been reinforced for a hot campaign in the second half pennant chase.

TOD MORGAN DROPS DECISION TO FRASER

SPOKANE, Wash., June 24.—(AP)—Tod Morgan, Seattle, dropped a six-round decision to Don Fraser, Spokane welterweight, here last night but many of the customers who saw the fight didn't know about it until they read today's papers.

Referee Denny Walsh, who had decided to vote for Morgan, glanced at the two judges' ballots, and raised the Seattle boy's hand in victory. As the stadium was emptying, Walsh discovered he had read one ballot wrong, so he changed the records to one. Fraser weighed 142 pounds and Morgan 140.

Morgan knocked Fraser out in the fifth round here two years ago.

The Nuthall-Palfrey match was played on the center court before a gallery of 12,000. The American girl was never ahead but waged a fine battle against an opponent who was just a bit more forceful in critical spots.

Ellsworth Vines, Jr., American champion, defeated I. Aoki, Japanese Davis cup team member, in a hard four set match in the fourth round, 6-2, 3-6, 6-3, 6-2.

ANCIENT HARVARD-YALE REGATTA LOSES GLAMOR

NEW LONDON, Conn., June 24.—(AP)—The most ancient of all inter-collegiate rivalries—Harvard's 80-year old rowing conflict with Yale—brought the 1932 crew season down to the finish line today in a setting that was but a hollow shell of the splendor of other days.

The Broad Thames, where the finest yachts of the nation's sportsmen formerly swung at anchor, carried but a corporal's guard of the princely craft; the hilly streets of New England's old whaling town felt the scuffle of but half the old crowds; and the general press of the times shadowed the entire scene.

But out on the water, where Harvard's brawny, powerful eight, and the fleet, all-conquering varsity of Yale, waited the starting gun for the four-mile pull down the river from Bartlett's cove to the railroad bridge, there was all the intensity and excitement that only a rivalry of such ancient vintage can muster.

Stroked by Johnny Jackson, lean, lanky sophomore from New Haven, Yale held a 2-to-1 margin as favorite. But the wise men of the river declared that this evening, when the two varsities pull out of Bartlett's cove on an ebb tide at 6:15 (E. S. T.) all will be even.
